

On Tuesday the 18th Nov., at the residence of the bride's father, Torbrook, Annapolis, by the Rev. W. G. Parker, Hugh Francis H. Hamilton, of this city, to Mary Lavina, eldest daughter of W. H. Wheelock, Esq.

Deaths.

At Eastville, Col. County, 13th inst., Mr. Edward Weather, aged 64 years. He was a respected citizen and a consistent member of the Great Village Baptist Church. His end was peace.

At New Ross, Nov. 12th 1873, Mrs. Jane O'Neill, in the 65th year of her age. When young she came with her parents from Scotland to this Province and in New Ross, formerly Sherbrooke in the year 1874. She made a public profession of religion and was baptized, and united with the Church in this place. Our dear sister had many trials to pass through. Her husband was a strict member of another church. She had much to contend with, yet it can be said of her that she always stood true to her profession and was often heard to say that the Lord was her help in times of trouble. For the last ten days she suffered much, but her night of suffering is over and we believe she is forever at rest. Five of her children died before her, and only one son is left which was a great comfort to her in her last years. May the Lord sustain him in his lonely hours.—Com.

At East Port Medway, Queens Co., in the 44th year of his age, John A. Vaughn, leaving an afflicted widow and three children to mourn. For upwards of 15 years he endured untold pain and suffering, in the spirit of a true Christian and died in a full assurance of a blessed rest, not only from his perplexities and trials, but in the enjoyment of Christ's presence, his "All and in all."

"Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away;
As morning high and higher shines,
Nor sink those stars in empty night,
But hide themselves in heaven's own light."

Nov. 13th, 1873, at the house of her son, Deacon David, on Main Street, aged 92 years, leaving a husband, aged 95 years, and many co-adjutors to mourn her loss. She united with the Baptist Church in Hantsport forty-five years ago, adorned her profession by a Christian life, enjoyed the favour of her presence in an unusual degree in old age, and died trusting and rejoicing in Him.

On the 18th inst., Henry, aged 29 years, son of the late Henry Birkenhead.

At New London, P. E. I., on the 9th inst., of consumption, Rev. Augustus B. Morris, in the 28th year of his age.

At the Eastern Passage, on Sunday, the 15th inst., Joseph Nangle, in the 69th year of his age.

At the Provincial and City Hospital, Nov. 20th, Rebecca O'Neill aged 24 years.

At Musquodoboit Harbour, on the 18th inst., Ellen, the beloved wife of William Cribby, and daughter of Mr. John Moser, aged 32 years.

On the 21st inst., Sarah, beloved wife of Sylvester Nichols, and daughter of the late John and Jane McDougall, in the 26th year of her age.

On Wednesday, 19th inst., Margaret, wife of William Bowie, aged 57 years.

At Chester, N. S., Nov. 19th, Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Richard and Elizabeth Richardson, in the 21st year of her age.

At Westchester Mountain, on the 16th inst., Mr. Peter Rushton, aged 73 years.

In Bo-fo, Nov. 4th, Judson Harris, aged 30 years, son of the late Judson D. Harris, of Belcher St., Cornwallis. The affliction falls with great heaviness on the widowed mother, as her eldest son, Dr. C. L. Harris, a few years ago, died of the same fever in New York. And the bodies in each case have come to the family for burial. But she is hope in his death.

On Saturday, the 22nd inst., aged 65 years, Margaret, wife of William Sutherland, Esq., Recorder.

On Sunday, Maria D., wife of Capt. B. H. Williams, of Bermuda, and daughter of the late Wm. Cutlip.

At Dartmouth, Nov. 22nd, Mr. Patrick O'Gorman, a native of the city of Dublin, aged 69 years.

On Saturday, 22nd November Edward F. Leguire, for many years of H. M. Customs, Halifax, aged 70 years.

At Sydney Mines, on the 13th inst., in the 31st year of her age, after a long but painful illness, Maria, the beloved wife of Mr. John McLean, and second daughter of H. M. Lawlor, formerly of Halifax.

At Baddeck, on Tuesday, 18th inst., Margaret Plant Halliburton, eldest son of Alfred F. Halliburton, Esq., Barrister, aged 26 years.

At Windsor, Nov. 22nd, Sarah Elizabeth, relict of the late Kneph Ellis aged 72 years.

MRS. AINSLEY'S

Arthranodyne Liniment.

THIS magical pain curer having been in use among private friends for a number of years is now offered to the public as a superlative remedy for

RHEUMATIC PAINS,

TOOTHACHE,

NEURALGIA,

SPRAINS, &c.

Manufactured by Mrs. Ainsley, Halifax, Lunenburg, August 20th, 1873.

MRS. AINSLEY, DEAR MADAM,—

Having found the efficacy of your very valuable Liniment in the case of sore throat, which by two applications I was entirely relieved of, I was induced to apply it to the parts affected by a severe attack of Lumbago. After having my back, loin and thigh thoroughly rubbed with the mixture, I was enabled to sleep comfortably and in a few days to walk about the field. I would further add for your satisfaction that my friend with whom I board has been entirely relieved from a pain in his shoulders, which drove him nearly to madness, by freely using the Liniment twice. Also the wife of one of my neighbours who was suffering dreadfully from an attack of acute rheumatism especially in her joints and legs, told me that she had securely applied it to parts affected before she felt immediate relief. I have reason to believe the Arthranodyne Liniment the best now in use.

Your obedient servant,

REV. D. S. SHAW.
