

Agriculture is becoming more and more an occupation of thoughtful men. The fostering care bestowed on the products of the soil in the way of agricultural Exhibitions, and the attention given by Agricultural Societies and Granges have a tendency to raise the science from its former drudgery, and render it worthy the attention of intellectual men and cultivated minds. The interest taken in this subject by the foremost men of the kingdom have taken it out of the range of those who are governed by chance and necessity, and made it what we believe it was intended to be, a noble pursuit on which rests the well being of the people and the nation. Our columns have of late had valuable papers on these subjects, and we trust that others equally able will give us the benefit of what light they can throw on these important matters.

Rev. E. W. Kelly is invited to the pastorate of the Leinster Street Baptist Church, St. John, and is expected there in a week or two.

Sir Robert Lush, one of the English Judges, has been recently made a member of the Privy Council. Sir Robert is a Baptist, and an active member of Dr. Landels' Church in Regents' Park, London.

We have a number of very interesting and valuable papers for our readers, which we shall be happy to place before them as early as possible.

A volume of MISSIONARY SKETCHES is to be shortly issued from the Missionary Rooms, Boston, written by Rev. S. F. Smith, D. D. It will give a succinct description of the rise and progress of each of the missions under the Union. It is intended that it shall render valuable service to ministers and other persons who may wish to make themselves intimately acquainted with the work of carrying the gospel to the heathen, so that at missionary concerts, and prayer-meetings, they may have no difficulty in preparing an address or giving further information on these subjects.

Of making Sabbath School Hymn Books, truly there is no end. Before the old ones are worn out, forward comes a new one and pushes its predecessor out. We now have one under the title of "JOY BELLS," by W. A. Ogden, and published by W. W. Whitney, of Toledo, Ohio. The hymns are well adapted to Sabbath School use, it has a number of lively and pleasant airs. It may be had for $3.60 per dozen, or 35 cents the single copy.

Sworn Statement

OF A
BOSTON POLICE OFFICER.

H. R. STEVENS.
DEAR SIR.—From exposure I took sick about nine years ago with Rheumatic Fever, from which I suffered about four months. When I recovered from the fever I found myself suffering with pain in my side and constipation, which brought on the piles. I consulted a physician, and paid him over $200 for attending me, and all the while I was gradually growing worse. Then one physician after another was employed, until seven of the best physicians of Boston had taken my case in hand.

On consultation between several of the leading physicians, they concluded my complaint was asthma and general debility. I had great difficulty in breathing and an inhaler was required to afford me breath. Through the treatment of one physician I took from 75 to 100 boxes of calomel pills, and faithfully tried all the medicine that each physician prescribed. From my long sickness, and the vast amount of medicine used to overcome the great pain, my kidneys became badly affected, and I suffered excruciating pain in the small of my back, with great difficulty in passing my urine.

One physician said I was diseased all through my system, and he regretted that he could give me no hope for health. My suffering from indigestion was so great that it was impossible to keep any solid food on my stomach, and the whole nature of my food was brot from oatmeal.

I also took a prescription from a celebrated English physician, who said my trouble was Bronchitis and Dyspepsia. I took 18 bottles of medicine especially prepared for Dyspepsia, and I have used a great deal of medicine from apothecaries' prescription. I have taken Sarsaparilla until you could count the bottles by the dozen, and indeed I have given nearly all the popular advertised medicine a fair trial. I had a dreadful cough, and did not average over two hours' sleep a night for 8 years.

A brother policeman urged me to try VEGETINE, but for a long time I refused, having got completely discouraged from taking so much medicine without any benefit; however after urgent persuasion, I concluded to try it, and before I had used one bottle I could eat and hold on my stomach a beefsteak, a thing I had not been able to do before for years; indeed, I obtained more substantial benefit from the first bottle of VEGETINE than from all other medicines which I had taken. I kept on improving, and kept on using the VEGETINE, until I was perfectly cured and able to do duty all day, eat and digest my food, sleep well at night, and I am now 40 pounds heavier than I ever was before in my life, and am, as I think, a living contradiction of the prophecies of the most learned medical talent of New England, for with all of their combined wisdom, they could not accomplish so much as that simple vegetable medicine called VEGETINE to which I am indebted for health, life and happiness.

VEGETINE.

Further Proof.
FACTS WILL TELL.
Goffstown, N. H., Aug. 1, 1875.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:—
DEAR SIR,—Allow me to say a word in favor of VEGETINE. During the past year I have suffered from a complication of diseases. I lay in bed from the 3rd of November until the middle of the following June, and on an average did not sit up two hours a week; I had eight of the best physicians in the state, but got no help, and constantly grew worse. They agreed that I had heart disease, phthisis, pyæmia, and kidney complaint, and could never be any better. I was reduced in weight 50 pounds, which is much, for I am naturally thin.

In June, finding I was failing under the treatment of the physicians, I commenced the use of VEGETINE through the earnest persuasion of friends, and I am happy to state, with good results. I have gained ten pounds in weight, and can sit up all day, walk a mile, and ride six.

I am greatly encouraged, and shall continue using the VEGETINE if I get it. I am a poor man, but the truth of this statement I refer to any man in Goffstown or vicinity.

Yours very thankfully,
A. J. BURBECK.
