

aries, with the exception of those at Hankow, were all in the six sea-board provinces; and in these populous provinces were but as one man to about two and a half millions of the people.

This was the state of things in seven out of the eighteen provinces of China Proper, and the other eleven provinces were in a yet more deplorable condition. Throughout the whole of these eleven provinces, which contained an aggregate population of about 150 millions, there was not even one resident Protestant missionary.

MORE LABOURERS NEEDED.

	Millions.	Missionaries
Shen-si	with 10	has only 2
Kan-suh	15	3
Kwei-chau	5	4
Gan-hwuy	17	5

In the above four provinces, the members of the China Inland Mission are the only missionaries.

There are other provinces in much the same condition. Surely this state of things is a loud call to all for prayer, that more labourers may be raised up.

For the Christian Messenger.

Rev. John Davis and Dr. Lorimer.

Some years ago, after sermon, one fine summer Sunday morning, Mr. Davis, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., gave out his intention to preach at North River Church in the afternoon, and added that as he had room in the wagon for another, he would be glad to have the company of any brother who felt like going. After dismissal, he was waited on in the Vestry by a gentleman in a grey summer suit, (I have heard somewhat dusty at that) who told Mr. Davis he would be glad to go with him. All was arranged, they met after dinner and started. During the drive from Charlottetown, the gentleman in grey, asked Mr. D. if he would allow him to say a few words to the people. Permission was readily given, and after prayer, and reading of Scriptures, Mr. Davis said something like this. "There is a young man here who wants to say something to you, he may as well say it now. He had better come forward." The gentleman obeyed, took a text to speak from, got fairly into it, and waxed somewhat warm. Mr. D. threw himself back in his seat, looked intently at the man in grey, evidently wondering who he was, finally the wind up came, when Mr. D. nearly on his back looking up at him said, "And who are you?" "My name is Lorimer." "Lorimer—Lorimer—from Boston, (inquiring). "Yes I am from Boston." And are you Dr. Lorimer?" "That is what they call me when at home," says the man in grey. You may imagine the rest quite easily if you knew Mr. Davis. The fact was, Mr. Davis only expected a few words. He had not taken the measure of his man, so when Dr. Lorimer unconsciously grew eloquent, Mr. Davis began to wonder who he had got hold of, and wondered till the end of the sermon, when in stentorian tones he asked, "And who are you?" MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCE.

TRURO, Dec. 3, 1881.—Dear Bro.—Our Conference meeting last evening was a season of thrilling interest, special manifestations of God's presence made it such. Some could only express themselves in the praiseful accents of the old doxology.

Three young persons for whom prayer has been offered for many a year, de liberately related their Christian experiences and were received for baptism. We are looking for a day of power to-morrow.

J. E. GOUCHER.

THE TABERNACLE.—In connection with the "Tabernacle Seventh Anniversary," the Rev. J. E. Cracknell is expected to take a prominent place. He will preach the Anniversary Sermon, and give his celebrated lecture on "Happy Homes, and how to make them," some time during the week of Anniversary Meetings. This will be his last effort, and public work before leaving for England. It is hoped that friends far and near will show us their practical sympathy, and help us to raise enough to complete our vestry.

The name of Dr. Colenso is to be removed in the English clergy lists from the list of Anglican bishops.

At a Plymouth Church (Brooklyn) prayer meeting, a young man had to be forcibly ejected, because he would read too much from the Bible. He had got so far through Genesis that his hearers thought they saw evidence of his purpose not to stop short of the last verse of the last chapter of Revelation. Mr. Beecher's decisive yet courteous attempt to put down the bore proving vain, he has put out of the assembly.

The Rev. Albert B. Simpson, a Presbyterian minister of New York, has resigned his pastorate and dissolved his connection with the Presbytery of that city in consequence of dissenting from the propriety of infant baptism. Mr. Simpson expresses his conviction of the propriety of dedicating infants to Almighty God at His altar, but dissenting from the propriety of using the baptismal symbol as the type of such dedication. On the other hand, he regarded baptism as the outward sign of an inward regeneration, which can only be predicated of a person who has been convicted of sin, passed through the ordeal of a sincere repentance, and experienced the saving grace of God in the salvation of his soul and the new birth of his being.

QUIET BAPTISMS.—It is not generally known that Mr. Moody, although he has long been a member of a Congregational church, was immersed the winter he spent in Baltimore, three years ago, and that his daughter was immersed in the Connecticut River, west of the seminary, at Northfield, by Mr. Pentecost, during the Convocation last year. The baptisms this year have been conducted quietly, and have been very solemn and impressive, and although not frequent, are said to have been a marked feature of the Convocation. A married daughter of a Presbyterian pastor of Delaware was baptized in connection with the recent meetings.

The New York correspondent of the National Baptist, in an account of the Baptist Ministers' Conference in that city on Monday, Nov. 7, says: "Rev. Garabed Caprielian, of Constantinople, an Armenian, was introduced to the Conference. He was converted under and educated by the American missionaries in Turkey. A pastor in Constantinople, utterly ignorant until recently of the existence of the Christians called Baptists, he finds his study of the Bible calls for believer's baptism, and is in a bewildered condition. He must reject sprinkling and infant baptism, and yet how can he cut himself loose from his church and people? Rev. J. B. Hayguni, of Cappadocia, now in the Seminary in Rochester, had a similar experience. He had never heard of Baptists until disputing with the Professor in Robert's College, Constantinople, when he was told he was a Baptist. Coming to this country to complete his medical studies, he was baptized by Rev. Dr. MacArthur.

The Free Church congregation at Creebridge, in the Highlands of Scotland, has been in a state of great excitement over a change of posture in prayer. The protesting elders demanded of the minister and his party any evidence that our Lord or his apostles ever sat at prayer, and declared if the elements of communion were offered while the state of ferment continued they would be thrown into the elders' face.

A vigorous assault is at once to be made on the Scottish Establishment. The Scottish Council of the Liberation Society has recently held its annual conference and public meeting in Glasgow. "Opinion" was declared to be "ripe for Disestablishment," and it was resolved that the question should be "pressed upon the Legislature and the constituencies with a view to legislation as early as practicable." There is to be a thorough discussion of the subject with a view to a decisive vote at the next general election. If the representatives of the Scottish constituencies take it up with any fair degree of earnestness and unanimity, it will soon be settled.

A lady has placed the sum of £250 at the disposal of the committee of the Homes for Working Girls in London towards the founding of a home in the south of London, to be called Garfield House.

Refus.

The Inland Revenue officers on Thursday last discovered an illicit still in an outhouse in the rear of Mr. Watkins' liquor shop in Upper Water Street. The people of the shop said they had no key to the outhouse, and the officers had to break open the door. When they did so they found in the upper floor of the place a still in full blast, fires lighted in the furnace, and several tubs of material in process of manufacture, the still of about 25 gallons capacity, full, a small quantity of liquor made, and a puncheon of molasses. The officers carried off all the portable articles they could and destroyed the remainder of the apparatus. They met with no resistance, the persons in charge of the place having evidently taken alarm and left before the officers effected an entrance.

There was one day last week on exhibition, at the Halifax fish market, Liverpool Wharf, 20 fresh codfish, weighing over 700 lbs.

A ROBBERY.—On Wednesday, quite a sensation was caused by the discovery of the theft of property from the Provincial Museum to the value of $1,200. On Tuesday afternoon Dr. Honeyman, who has charge of the Museum, locked up the place as usual and went home. On going down on Wednesday morning he saw evidence that some one had been in the room after his departure on the previous night, though how entrance was effected did not appear. A strong box under the table at which he usually sat, contained some valuable specimens of gold from the Rose lead, Montague. The box had been forced open and two most valuable specimens, supposed to be worth $1,200, had been carried off. There was no clue to the perpetrator of the theft. The stolen specimens are well known among those interested in mining, having been on exhibition here in 1879 and again at the Dominion Exhibition just closed. They were purchased by the Provincial Government and placed in the Museum. Nothing else in the room was carried off so far as is at present known.

The first steamer of the Brazilian Line will leave Halifax on the first of January next, both for Brazil and the River Plate. She left Rio De Janeiro en route for Halifax some days ago. The vessel is a fine one, named the Comtesse d'Eu after the daughter of the Emperor of Brazil.

The town of Truro, can boast of a market house just completed by private enterprise. The building is 50x38, which is divided off into stalls and offices with a large space in the centre. Spaces and stalls are let by the day and year. The regular market days will be Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

It appears that Judge Desbarres is to resign, and his place is to be filled by Mr. S. G. Rigby of Halifax.

Truro has had a vexatious proceeding in the shape of a charge preferred against the Head Master of the Model School, for punishing insubordination in the school. A lawyer was imported from Halifax to conduct the case, and succeeded in getting a fine of $4, and costs imposed. However, at a full meeting of the Town Council on the 29th ult., the following resolution was passed by a unanimous vote.

"Whereas, the use of strict and impartial discipline in the public schools of Truro is essential to the efficiency of these institutions, and inasmuch as said discipline has been recently jeopardized therefore,

"Resolved, That we, after duly considering the whole matter, and having the facts of the case in question fully before us, do hereby endorse the conduct of W. M. McVicar, Head Master of said schools, and support his exercise of authority in such cases as are necessary and just to maintain proper discipline in the schools under his charge."

By order of the Council,
SILAS R. TUPPER,
Town Clerk.

The palm of the hand moistened with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, exerts a wondrous control, over pain, speedily and entirely subduing it. The electric healing influence of this highly sanctioned medicine is manifested by the rapid disappearance of sores and abrasions of the skin when used.

A. D. Noyes, Newark, Michigan, writes:—"I have enquired at the drug stores for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, but have failed to find it. We brought a bottle with us from Quebec, but it is nearly gone, and we do not want to be without it, as my wife is troubled with a pain in the shoulder, and nothing else gives relief. Can you send us some?"

owe their healthy existence to PHOSPHORUS and become disorganized when it is lessened in quantity. It is as necessary to the proper preservation of the functions of life as Electricity is to the Telegraph. The use of Phosphorus, combined with Cod Liver Oil, Lime, &c. in Purner's Emulsion, by providing, in a palatable and perfectly digestible form, all the elements necessary to the healthy growth and vitality of the body, prevents and rapidly cures all diseases which are due to its being present in less quantity than nature demands. Hence its inestimable value in Brain diseases, Nervous debility, Wasting and other Lung troubles which, beginning in loss of flesh and vitality, with Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis, end in that fed destroyer of the human race—CONSUMPTION.

THE HIGHEST AWARD.—That Purner's Emulsion stands to day higher and far ahead of any other compound of the kind, and is acknowledged by the profession to be the most reliable in the treatment of Wasting, Scrofulous, and Children's Diseases, and diseases of the Nervous System, where the brain is overworked, and the general system run down for the want of Phosphorus, which is the only Nerve Tonic.

It is said ease of mind assists longevity. A man who carries a policy of life insurance in such a Company as the UNION MUTUAL certainly should have ease of mind, and therefore this must help to prolong his life. And should the "brittle thread" be broken, he has secured something for his dear ones. F. B. K. MARTER, Manager, office Queen's Building, Hollis Street.

GIVE HEED TO A COUGH.—If we except those tremendous epidemics which sometimes often half depopulate the regions of country where they prevail, no diseases are so destructive as those which affect the breathing organs. Unfortunately also, there are few maladies which at the outset are so frequently disregarded as trivial. No warning is fraught with graver meaning than this—Give heed to a cough! To neglect it, is simple madness. So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen that often in a few short weeks a simply cough culminates in tubercular consumption, that terrible enemy to human life.

The best pulmonary remedy which medical science has developed, and which seems peculiarly adapted to the suppression of a cough or cold, Asthma, Spitting of blood, Bronchitis, or other throat or lung complaint, is Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. Experience has shown that the oil obtained from the Cod's liver exercises a powerful control over pulmonary diseases. In the above preparation, not only is this main ingredient specially pure, but its efficacy is greatly increased by addition to it of these hypophosphites which are among the most powerful invigorating and blood fertilizers known to MATERIA MEDICA. While the lungs are soothed and healed by the Cod Liver Oil, the rapid physical decay attending lung diseases is stayed and the system built up and fortified by the hypophosphites. Ample evidence proves this. Ask for Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.
