

Despite repeated challenges of the Government he said the Opposition had formulated no direct specific charges against them.

Mr. O'Brien made a most violent speech charging all the crime in Ireland to the administration of law. He is the editor of United Ireland and defended his supporting the election of Carey to the Town Council of Dublin.

Mr. Forster defended his own course previous to his resignation of the Chief Secretaryship for Ireland. But for the Phoenix Park murders, Ireland would have believed Parnell supreme and would therefore have become ungovernable. Recent disclosures had increased the suspicion that the Land League was connected with outrages. He charged Parnell with heading an organization which had started an agitation that promoted outrages and incited to murder. Parnell, he said, had reaped advantages from the agitation. He did not plan outrages, but connived at their commission.

O'Kelly shouted "It's a lie" several times. He was named for suspension, and his suspension was ordered by a vote of 305 to 20.

A feeling is now rising even in Ireland against the agitation—Parnell and his friends had been unmasked and unmasked.

There were loud cries for Parnell, but he did not move. O'Donnell, on attempting to interpose during the speech, was ruled out of order.

In the evening Parnell made a lengthy speech in which he sought to make his position clear to the Irish people at home and abroad. He declined to answer Forster's questions. Forster's amendment was rejected, the Parnellites abstaining from voting.

The developments by Carey in the trial of the prisoners for the murder of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, during the past week, have fully identified the guilty parties. It seems Carey was the Treasurer of the Fenian Brotherhood, and a leader of the Irish Invincibles, who had sworn to "remove" "all tyrants." The court room was a scene of the most intense excitement during these developments. He so far identified the murderers that he said he was in Phoenix Park with those who purposed to murder Mr. Burke and detailed how he saw seven men meet the two gentlemen. He said Curley, Joseph Hanlan and Egan were the first, Brady and Kelly were next, and McCaffrey and Patrick Delaney came after. Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke were allowed to pass through by the first three, and the last four then faced right about. When Carey again looked the two rear men had closed in on the two gentlemen.

The witness continued: I saw Joseph Brady raising his left hand and striking a man dressed in a gray suit. That was all I saw. (Here there was a sensation in the court, room and loud cries of "Hush.") I timed my own movements accurately during the day. What I related occurred at 7.17 p. m. After I left the Park I met at the Island Bridge Joe Smith, a person who was acquainted with Mr. Burke's appearance and had accompanied me for the purpose of pointing him out. It was Smith who told Kavanagh to hurry up and take the nosebag off. The witness repeated the conversation he had after the murder with Brady, who stated that he had stabbed Mr. Burke and afterward settled Lord Frederick Cavendish. After that he went back to Mr. Burke and put a knife in his throat.

The witness detailed his conversation with Brady, who said he stabbed Mr. Burke in the left shoulder. The other gentleman came up and called him a ruffian. He ran after him into the road and settled him. He then looked round and saw Kelly coming away from Burke's body, and he and Brady went and cut Burke's throat. Brady said: "Lord Frederick Cavendish, when he spoke, struck me with an umbrella. I then made at him. He held up his arm and I struck it. He ran into the road."

It had been arranged that Mr. Forster was to be shot together with the other occupants of his carriage, and any one interfering was to be disabled. Here the prisoners laughed. On the night Mr. Forster left Ireland fifteen Invincibles actually followed him to the Westland Row station. Curley loomed into the cars, but only saw Mr. Forster's wife and daughter. The fifteen Invincibles were under the command of Curley on this occasion, who was obeying the orders of the mysterious Number One. As Mr. Forster had definitely left Ireland they were told to concentrate their attention upon Mr. Burke.

The Central News says the police are convinced that the man known as "Number 1" is Gen. McAdams, who was in London on Saturday. After the murders Carey and Curley and Brady met at McCaffrey's house. "No. 1" was there also, and they informed him of all the day's proceedings. The next night but one after the murders the knives with which they had been committed were produced by Brady. "No. 1" ordered them to be destroyed. The blades were broken into three pieces and the handles were buried.

During the giving of the evidence Brady was seen crouched down behind two of the other prisoners. The rest of the prisoners appeared dejected, except James Mullett, who wore a defiant look.

Before the Court adjourned, Carey formally identified all the prisoners. Several of the latter as they were put forward for identification called Carey a "perjured liar." Pat Delaney who looked to be very ill, said solemnly: "That is the man (meaning Carey) I may thank for all my misfortunes from childhood."

Since Carey became informer, Mrs. Carey has been completely "boycotted." Not one tenant has paid rent and notices have been posted on the door steps of her Densille Street property warning persons not to pay rent to a "cursed informer."

Since the disclosures made by Carey at the hearing of the conspirators a number of Irish-Americans and farmers' sons in the counties of Armagh, Monaghan and Louth have been secretly leaving for America.

The Dublin Mail learns that the first letter of condolence received by Miss Burke after the murder of her brother, Under-Secretary Burke, was from James Carey.

The Secretary of the N. S. Western Baptist Association says that he learns from Rev. J. H. Saunders, of Digby, that in the Treasurer's report of Minutes, 1883, of the W. B. Association there is a mistake. Digby Church is credited with $22.50 when it should have been credited to Hillgrove Church, and wishes a correction inserted in the Christian Messenger. Parties having copies of the Minutes will please make the correction.

KINGS COUNTY MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE will meet with the Port Williams congregation at 6 p. m., on the 5th March. The Rev. J. E. Bleakney was appointed to preach, and Rev. John Williams the alternate. All the brethren are especially requested to be present, and to be prepared to read their papers. Contributions at each preaching meeting for missions.

By order of the M. C., J. C. BLEAKNEY, Sec'y. Berwick, N. S., Feb. 19, 1883.

CORRECTION.—Careless type-setters often make stupid blunders, and so trouble editors as well as correspondents. One of these occurred in our last, where a report from a Colporteur of the British American Book and Tract Society was accompanied with the caption—"Baptist American Book and Tract Society." This was of course greatly misleading and puzzled some of our readers. When it is understood that it was all a mistake they will be trust smile instead of frown, and pardon the oversight in allowing it to pass until it was too late to correct.

Acknowledgment.

Dear Editor,—Somewhere I have read of a pastor resigning his charge shortly after he had received a donation, because he could not afford to have another.

Recently we had one, and I think that if called upon we could afford just such another every year.

On the 16th inst. a large number met at the Paragon. Tables were spread, and after tea and a pleasant evening were presented with serviceable articles aggregating $84.31, and accompanied by a neat speech from bro. J. L. Giffin, a purse containing $31.56.

These with articles previously received—including a dress for Mrs. W., and nearly six cords of wood, giving since my last acknowledgment, a total of $140.96, exclusive of salary.

To other churches I would say: Do you wish to encourage your often discouraged pastor and to unburden a heart too frequently weighed down by cares which it should never bear? Then, "Go thou and do likewise." Truly, &c., L. M. WEEKS.

During a long period of unparalleled usefulness, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proven its perfect adaptation to the cure of all diseases originating in poor blood and weakened vitality. ## Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

"AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has cured me of the Inflammatory Rheumatism, with which I have suffered for many years." W. H. MOORE.

Durham, Ia., March 2, 1882.

"Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. I have not been troubled with the Rheumatism since. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public."

E. F. HARRIS, River St., Buckland, Mass., May 15, 1882.

"Last March I was so weak from general debility that I could not walk without help. Following the advice of a friend, I commenced taking AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and before I had used three bottles I felt as well as I ever did in my life. I have been at work now for two months, and look to your SARSAPARILLA the greatest blood medicine in the world."

JAMES MAYNARD, 520 West 42nd St., New York, July 19, 1882.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blisters, Sores, Bolls, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. ## People's Home Mission Agency.

The Society has been in operation 15 years. Colporteurs to the number of 102 have been employed, who have distributed Bibles and good books worth $141,236 by sale, and books and tracts valued at $10,081 by grant. Total grants by the Society, including those from Depot, more than $16,000 worth. Time served by the Colporteurs equals that of one man for 142 years. Labrador, Newfoundland, Cape Breton, P. E. Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and a portion of Quebec have been explored. There have been found 1,523 families without God's Word; 2,582 families with no other religious book; and 2,545 families who habitually neglect attending any place of worship. The 26 Colporteurs employed in 1882 performed labor equal to that of one man for 12½ years; found 205 Protestant families without Bibles, 279 with no other religious books, and 373 families who never enter the House of God. They sold books worth $13,332, and made free grants to the value of $913, as they made $1,679 family visits, and held 626 religious meetings.

The books circulated are sound and good, teaching the truth of man by the fall, regeneration by the Holy Spirit, and redemption through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. They are eminently designed to spread abroad Divine truth, and they are accepted by those that in every place call upon the name of the Lord. They give no uncertain sound upon the essential doctrines of the Cross. Justification through the atonement of the Redeemer, holiness through the sanctification of the Spirit, and complete redemption through God's grace alone. Books and tracts designed especially to awaken the impenitent and point to Jesus are imported in great numbers. Almost 10,000 "Come to Jesus" were distributed last year.

The prayers of all God's people are earnestly requested for the Spirit's power to accomplish the reading of the books and the evangelistic efforts of the Colporteurs. A copy of the last Annual Report, giving much interesting information and copious extracts from the Colporteurs' reports, will be sent on application to the Secretary.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Fremont, Ohio, Jan. 25th, 1881.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for benefits and profits which I have derived from your invaluable and far famed Spavin Cure. My cousin and I had a valuable stallion worth $4000 which had a very bad spavin, and was pronounced by four eminent Veterinary Surgeons beyond any cure, and that the horse was done forever. As a last resort I advised my cousin to try a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. It had a magical effect, the third bottle cured it and the horse is as well as ever. Dr. Dick of Edinburgh, the eminent veterinary surgeon was an uncle of mine, and I take great interest in assisting his profession.
