

and costly mausoleums in honor of the great, let Chicago erect a monument still prouder yet, to perpetuate the memory of the little boy who chose to die rather than to steal.

"Yours, with respect, THOMAS B. BRYAN.
"CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 21, 1853."

"RATHER DIE THAN STEAL."

Rew the marble—lay the corner—
Let the monument arise!
For another hero's fallen,
And his spirit walks the skies!
Mightier than Ajax was he—
Nobler than a Caesar born!
And his name shall immortal be,
Spurning death with marble scorn!

Raise the shaft—inscribe the tablet—
Carve the letters deep and bold!
Let the stone preach words the sermon,
"Truth is worthier than gold!"
Let it say to children's children—
Let its marble lips reveal
Iverson's great resolution—
"BETTER FAR TO DIE THAN STEAL."

S. S. Advocate.

PLEASANT WAY OF DOING GOOD.—A very pleasant way of doing good is the distribution of small books among children. Let the minister—as he meets some little one of his flock, by the way, or at his home, or one that wanders without a shepherd, and addresses a few kind words of inquiry and instruction—present the little book, and what delight he was awakened in that young heart! He has secured the confidence and affection of the child, increased his own influence over him, and, perhaps, through that little gift, opened a channel for light and truth to enter his mind, and even the minds of friends who may read it. The agent or secretary, in his tours among the Churches, is often a guest in families where there are children. Let him gather the happy group around him, and present each with a book, accompanied with a few words of counsel or exhortation, and his future visits will be welcomed both by them and their parents. Let no Christian journey without a liberal supply of children's books. He will be abundantly rewarded, both for the expence and the labor it may cost him in the purchase and distribution, by the exhibitions of happiness he will often witness in the kind eye and smiling countenance, and the warm expressions of gratitude. The happy influence of such efforts to do good, "in season and out of season," he will learn with joy ineffable in eternity. Superintendents, teachers, and all Christians, without much expence of money or time, may avail themselves of this mode of doing good.—S. S. Visitor.

SHE PRAYED FOR YOU LAST NIGHT.—A few evenings since, a ragged boy presented himself before a business man on River-street, and asked for a sixpence to buy a loaf of bread for his mother, who was sick and suffering with the ague. The gentleman gave him a shilling and also got some meat for him, and then told him if he could bring him evidence of the facts, and come to him next morning, he would head a paper for him and help him collect something. The next morning the little boy came with satisfactory evidence, and the gentleman headed the paper, and told the little boy to pass down the street. The boy took the paper, passed to the door, and there stood as if he had something to say. The gentleman asked him what he wanted, and the boy, thanking him, replied, "My mother prayed for you last night."

Friends, remember the poor widows and orphans in their want and suffering, and they will remember you at the throne of grace.—Cleveland True Democrat.

GOD OF MY MOTHER.—Rev. Charles Morgan, of East Try, Wisconsin, in giving an account of a religious revival in that place, says:—

"An infidel of talent and respectability, under the power of the truth, bowed upon his knees, and cried in agony: 'God of my mother, have mercy on me!' His mother is a devoted Christian in the State of New-York."

"God of my mother!" How much is revealed in that single exclamation; how conclusively it proves that this man had a mother whose faithfulness left its impress on his soul too deep to be obliterated by time and sin; and how eloquently it pleads with other Christian mothers to be diligent in inculcating the religion of Jesus, and encourages them to expect the quickening of the seed which they sow, though it be buried long."

A JEWISH BOY WHO HAS FOUND CHRIST.—A Jewish boy only thirteen years old, who lives in a village on the borders of Wurtemberg, writes thus to a missionary:—"I am decided to become a disciple of Jesus Christ, my only Saviour. I pray diligently to him. I am attending Bible meetings where he is present. The other Jews say when they see me, 'Look there, the pietist is coming!' But I go my way as though I heard it not. My Saviour has died for me on Calvary, and I will be faithful to him unto death. I wish to know more about him. I beg you will come soon, or write what is to be done. The good men who keeps the Bible meeting would likewise be happy if you would come and help me." Let us pray to the Saviour to keep him, and make him the means of bringing many of his nation to know Him of whom Moses and the prophets wrote.—Dayspring.

THE LITTLE SHOVEL.—A poor woman had a supply of coal laid at her door by a charitable neighbour. A very little girl came out with a small fire-shovel, and began to take up a shovel full at a time, and carry it to a sort of bin in the cellar. I said to the child,—

"Do you expect to get all that coal in with that little shovel?" She was quite confused at my question; but her answer was very striking:—

"Yes, sir, if I work long enough."

Their is no labor, children, too great for industry and perseverance to accomplish; and it is not so much the tools we have to work with as the spirit with which we use them, that gives us success.

LITTLE BOYS SHOULD PRAY.—A little boy, only four years of age, said to his mother, while undressing for sleep:—

"Mother, why can't I make a prayer myself?"

I can think of a great many things I want to ask God for, which are not in the little prayer I always say. There is my little cousin William, who is too small to pray for himself; I want to ask God to make him a good boy. There are other things too I want to say."

What mother could not rejoice to hear this? Parents, how very early your children come to you for temporal things? Teach them to ask God as early for spiritual blessings.

"Those that seek me early shall find me."

NEW BRUNSWICK HOTEL.—Charlotte street

nearly opposite Country Market, St. John, N.B. The Proprietor of the above Establishment thankful for past favors, would respectfully inform the Travelling Public, that having erected a large addition in rear of the main Building, he is now prepared to furnish ample accommodation to 70 or 80 Boarders. The Proprietor is determined to leave no means untried to merit the patronage of the community. Travellers arriving late at night will find the House always open and ready to receive them.

The Sleeping Rooms are large and well ventilated, and the improvements and convenience which have been made render it emphatically, the House of the stranger. It has always been a Temperance House, and the Proprietor is determined to adhere strictly to the Total Abstinence principle.

This House is centrally located, and is well supplied with well furnished apartments, clean beds, good fare, the best attention, and reasonable charges, which should render it worthy the support of Travellers.

A Large STABLE has been erected on the premises, capable of accommodating 70 Horses. Good Hostlers are always in attendance.

AZOR'S TURKISH BALM. The only certain Remedy for Baldness, and for preventing and stopping the falling out of the Hair.—As a Toilet Article, for Beautifying and keeping the Hair soft, glossy, and in a Healthy Condition, it is unequalled. Its positive qualities are as follows:

1st.—It frees the head from dandruff, strengthens the roots, imparts health and vigor to the circulation, and prevents the hair changing colour or getting gray.

2d.—It causes the hair to curl beautifully when done up in it over night.

This Balm is made from the original receipt procured from the original Turkish Hakim (physician) of Constantinople, where it is universally used. The Turks have always been celebrated for their wonderful skill in compounding the richest perfumes and all other toilet articles. In Turkey the aromatic herbs, &c., of which this balm is composed, are almost universally known and used for the hair. Hence a case of baldness or thin head of hair is entirely unknown in that country. We wish but one trial made of it; that will do more to convince you of its virtues than all the advertisements that can be published, and that all may test its virtues, it is put up in Large Bottles at the low price of 50 cents per Bottle.

Remember the genuine has the signature of Comstock & Brother on the splendid wrapper.

George's Honduras Sarsaparilla Extract, for the cure of those Diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood, such as Scrofula, Stubborn Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Pimples on the Face, FEMALE IRREGULARITIES AND COMPLAINTS, &c. As a general Tonic and Invigorator of the System it is unequalled. This Medicine is not offered as a cure for all Diseases, but merely for those arising from impure blood. It is composed of the PURE HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA, combined with other purely vegetable substances of acknowledged efficacy, and is manufactured with the greatest care, every pound of the Sarsaparilla being subjected to the strictest chemical tests, and its genuineness ascertained before being used; and it contains ten times as much Pure Honduras Sarsaparilla as any other ever offered for sale.

We have endeavored, George's Honduras Sarsaparilla, to give to the public a Medicine which can be depended upon to do for them (in the class of diseases to which it is adapted) all that Medicine can do; and confident that we have done so, we leave it to the good common sense of the People to decide BETWEEN AN EXTRACT OF THE PURE HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA, and the many worthless Extracts of a worthless Compound Sarsaparilla now sold.

Then be not deceived. Resort to GEORGE'S HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA, and you will be rewarded by a quick and easy cure.

To the Ladies. You who wish a Beautiful Clear Skin, free from all PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, and IMPURITIES, we say, abandon the use of paints and mixtures, and use the Genuine George's Honduras Sarsaparilla.

It beautifies the complexion by removing every particle of morbid or diseased matter from the blood, making it pure, healthy, and vigorous, and changing the yellow and dark countenance to the BLOOM AND FRESHNESS OF YOUTH.

This Medicine is put up in large bottles, one of which, in VIRTUE, is equal to six of any other ever made.

Caution.—Find the name of Comstock & Brother on the wrapper, and you will get the Genuine George's Honduras Sarsaparilla.

All orders must be directed to COMSTOCK & BROTHER, No. 2 St. Peter's Place, (rear of Astor House,) New York.
