ulsion,

nd such

or such

or the

in the power

for the

before

nly on

And

5 will dar of

ch men

Strong

onished

en and

e pro-

e who hiding

empest,

shadow

would

God did

-if we

ies and right it

empest-

throws

come.

aven,"

when

earth,

me the

";" and

a bles-

Omnipo

he diffi-

rovince

secuted

ar Book

w Fash,

ose, and

copper

he then

nd from

e of Mr.

cellar-

W. had

his desk

missed

en some

y night,

vned by

d spread Wilson,

d to the fronting

r, which

red most

Brigade

It was

but this

n eleven

m's barn,

et. The it could

i, and a

ses serith in one

urned to n, which

all in the

be ex-

ining it,

ed. We whether for the

it is pro-

barn, on

Milkish,

and was surance.

urder of

nesday in cient evi-

HS.

an Tract bernacle,

sources,

sand one

ents, and nineteen

irty-four

fty-three

650 col-

-10,091,since the tions, in-

urs have 4,686 of

icentious

uri ags of hristians.

C. Milne,

tain parts

rying on

Spirit ap-

ters from conver-

ety," and d a few phy, comd father,

for the

but little

ay 9. f Lucon, e.

S.

General Intelligence.

BRITISE AND FOREIGN. THE VIENNA NEGOCIATIONS.

LORD PALMEASTON in reply to a question from tivity and courage in repairing the injured works. Mr. Bright in the British House of Commons as to whether the Government considered the Conferences at Vienna at an end said :-

"It is well known to the House that the English and French Governments, in concert with the Go. gineers had been killed in the trenches. vernment of Austria, had determined that the proper development of the third point, which regardthe Straits of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus, from affording any assistance to the besieged. should, among other things, be that the preponderdown by England and France, and agreed to by Austria, and the principle was in the abstract acpreponderance of Russia in the Black Sea- ance at his funeral of many English, and an imwhich principle had been admitted and accepted mense number of French officers. by Russsia-they proposed, I say, as a method of You will, many days before the receipt of this, carrying that principle into execution, either that know by electric telegraph, the long expected bomtives, which were pressed by the four other pleni-potentiaries unanimously. Thereupon the confer-When morning began to break, we took up a

any counter-propositions.

made no counter-proposition.

ure of peace negociations, says :-

now decide the issue. The bombardment of Se-smoke were bursting, and, vainly striving to rise able achievement of 1855. vastopol has been recommenced on a scale unparalleled in ancient or modern warfare. The defence is as remarkable as the attack. Eige hunfence is as remarkable as the attack. Five hunof shot and shell were poured into the town, and er of Lady Rayleigh, and his loss (says the Chelmsleaves him no discretionary must be executed.—N. Y. dred pieces of cannon for six days uninterrupted-being as incessently answered. Long strings of ford Chronicle) has carried into the noble family mirabile dictu—it stands! Towers and turrets are battered down, but are rebuilt in a night, as if by magic. It would seem the determination of the London Weekly Christian News furnishes

The tower and turrets at Terling the pangs of private sorrow, in which the county deeply sympathises. A correspondent the week ending May 17th.

The tower and turrets at Terling the pangs of private sorrow, in which the county deeply sympathises. A correspondent of the London Weekly Christian News furnishes

The tower and turrets at Terling the pangs of private sorrow, in which the county deeply sympathises. A correspondent of the London Weekly Christian News furnishes are battered down, but are rebuilt in a night, as if the week ending May 17th.

The tower and turrets are proceeding back the wounded, who, fortunately, were not numerous.

The tower and turrets are battered down, but are rebuilt in a night, as if the week ending May 17th.

The tower and turrets are battered down, but are rebuilt in a night, as if the week ending May 17th.

Hiram Freeze, your papers has been regularly sent.—

INDIAN MEAL, kiln dried, and the county deeply sympathises. by magic. It would seem the determination of the Allies to lay the city in ruins, and bury it beneath a mountain of cannon-balls, before they neath a mountain of cannon-balls, before they ed; and perhaps the strongest feeling in the mind of the London Weekly Christian News furnishes some very interesting information about the deceased officer, from which it is evident, that he was a Christian indeed. At the camp at Chobham, he wounded, who, fortunately, were not numerous.

The town was at first plainly visible, and even the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished; and even the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. At the camp at Chobham, he wounded, who, fortunately, were not numerous.

The town was at first plainly visible, and even the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. At the camp at Chobham, he wounded, who, fortunately, were not numerous.

The town was at first plainly visible, and even the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. At the camp at Chobham, he wounded, who, fortunately, were not numerous.

The town was at first plainly visible, and even the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. At the camp at Chobham, he wounded, who, fortunately, were not numerous.

The town was at first plainly visible, and even the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. At the camp at Chobham, he wounded, who, fortunately, were not numerous.

The town was at first plainly visible, and even the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. The could be clearly distinguished the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. The could be clearly distinguished the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. The could be clearly distinguished the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. The could be clearly distinguished the effects of the shot could be clearly distinguished. The could be clearly distinguished the c to picture such a terrible scene. Well might Gortschakoff write to his master the Czar Alexander, in words more forcible than select: "It is the fire of hell?" We forced hell?" We forced hell? We forced hell? We forced hell? We forced hell? We forced hell at the buildings did not crumble industry to dust before such a tremendous fire. The day gradually became more cloudy, and the smoke denser, till it was impossible to distinguish clearly a cheering account as to the success of his efforts. der, in words more forcible than select: "It is the denser, till it was impossible to distinguish clearly a cheering account as to the success of his efforts.

THE SIEGE OF SEBASTOPOL.

We have official reports from Sebastopol, both French and Russian, to the 19th instant. The Asmodee brings word that on the night of the 18th the Russians made a sortie from Sepastopol, but nate the fire of the Russians, I am convinced their were immediately driven back. The siege work works are more solid, and certainly their guns far Admiral Bruat transmits a despatch of the 17th: of artillery. "In front of the Central Tower we have carried a The first gun was fired at fifteen minutes past packet. This was scarcely five years ago. series of ambuscades, and have established our- five from our right attack. The next moment from selves in these works, which are now comprised in all parts of the line of batteries, and from every our lines. We have crowned a ravine in the same point commanding a "coign of vantage," the bright the 16th, 17th, and 18, the besiegers' fire was less the works of the Malakoff Tower and the Mamelon. sustained than on the preceding days. The Russian batteries, it is alleged, had responded with heavily into the harbour and dockyard buildings. der your command," full success, especially by their cross fire before Gordon's Battery, on its right face, was directed the allies had established at that place. The Battery on the Redan. The centre and left faces way. Five squadrons of the Guides of the Imperior. The months since, afflicted with Erysipelas. In face, my the 18th and 19th," says the Prince. "one of the Erench right attack fought at very short range les on Thurday next. Russian battalions achieved with success, and with insignificant loss, a sortic made with the view of destroying the more advanced of the enemy's Altogether the losses of the Altogether the losses of the Secondary and their left enganged the secondary and their left enganged the secondary and their left enganged the secondary regiment, in addition of 30,000 horse to the army.—

Erench right attack fought at very short range in the secondary next with some new batteries which the enemy have lately thrown up in advance of the Barrack and Flagstaff work. The French centre was close to new squadrons will be added to every cavalry regiment, in addition of 30,000 horse to the army.—

STER, Pharmaceutical Chemist, New Haven, Ct.—

The latest despatch, bearing the stamp of full authenticity, is contained in the Moniteur. It runs thus :-

es, by which we are getting closer to the place.— At one period the electric telegraph wire to the sion of each to 600f.

been received from Balaklava.

The bombardment was continued with great energy up to the 17th when the despatches left. The fire of the Allies had done considerable Alies is satisfactarily established. Several French mines have been fired, and have done great damage to the place. Our fire had been very effective on every point.

The Chernaya had overflowed its banks; and as

The following interesting particulars of the first ance of Russia in the Black Sea should henceforth four days of the siege are given by the correspondent to a London paper.

Before Sebastopol, April 9. cepted by the Russian plenipotentiary. On Thurs- On the night of the 7th, the Colonel of the 25th day last, in a conference held, at which were pre- French regiment of Infantry was struck down sent the English, French, Austrian, Turkish, and while talking in the trenches to a subaltern. A Russian plenipotentiaries, the plenipotentiaries of 68-pounder shot shattered him frightfully. He England, France, Austria, and Turkey proposed was buried in the sloping ground towards Inkerto the Russian, as a mode of making to cease the mann in the evening of the 8th, with the attend-the amount of the Russian naval force in the bardment of Sebastopol has commenced. Yet, Black Sea should henceforth be limited by Treaty, the event, although daily expected, has quite taken or that the Black Sea should be ideclared neutral every one by surprise, the time having been so ground entirely, and that all ships-of-war of all carefully concealed, that it was not known even to countries should be excluded from it, so that it the best-informed, until the evening before Sunhenceforth should be only a sea of commerce. - day the 8th). The evening was extremely wet The Russian plenipotentiary requested forty-eight and unpleasant, soaking us to the skin as we stumhours to take that proposal into consideration .- bled, or rather our horses did, along the rude and Those forty-eight hours elapsed on Saturday, and very rough road to the camp, which was not on that day another conference was held, and at reached until very late at night. We, therefore, that conference the Russian plenipotentiary abso- did not lie down, but spent the night with a merry lutely refused to accept either of those alterna- party, in spite of wet clothes and a thin tent, dis-ence adjourned sine die, and my noble friend the position in front of the Fourth Division, a spot beset Member for the City of London, and the French adapted for a general view. The morning broke Minister M. Drouyn de Lhuys, were, I believe, to in on us as wet and cheerless as the night had been. take their departure from Vienna in the course of throughout. But we had not long to wait at our post before the first gun opened. This was the Sir H. Willoughby asked if Russia had made signal for the simultaneous opening of upwards of three hundred guns on the town, the Russians an-Viscount Palmerston: I may state that Russia swering by an even greater number. The ground An American exchange remarking on the fail- ing like a long-continued peal of thunder, mirgled neath a mountain of cannon-balls, before they ed; and perhaps the strongest feeling in the mind a Christian indeed. At the camp at Chobham, he make their assault. It requires vivid imagination wes, wonder that the buildings did not crumble infire of hell." We are on the eve of startling events, and the next mail may bring us the intelligence that the Allies have either taken Sevastopol, or have abandoned that reckless enterprise many more to occupy the place of this Christian soldier.

The cholera appears to be on the increase at St.

denser, the was impossible to distinguish clearly was silenced: The Sixth District Meeting of Free Baptists will be held many more to occupy the place of this Christian soldier.

The cholera appears to be on the increase at St.

May 18.

The Cholera appears to be on the increase at St.

May 18.

The Cholera appears to be on the increase at St. No damage of any consequence had been done to our batteries, or to those of the French.

Sir Harry Jones went through the English batteries, which were beautifully worked and most vigorously served.

were steadily pushed forward, and the besiegers more numerous, than ours, mighty as is our weight of metal, and with a numerical force of 500 pieces

Prince Gortschakoff writes on the 19th, that on works near Inkermann, concentrated their fire upon against the Mamelon. The centre of Gordon's ants, left on Saturday at noon by the Lyons Rail- Rev. A. B. L. Myers: Dear Sir-I was, about two was an explosion in the Malakoff, presumed to be the army of the Crimea. "THE GENERAL-IN-CHIEF OF THE ARMY IN THE from the accidental firing of catridges. The wea-

These works advance regularly, in spite of the patieries from head-quarters was severed by a shell, but the mischief was soon repaired. At troops, and on the 17th was raging fiercely.

These works advance regularly, in spite of the patieries from head-quarters was severed by a shell, but the mischief was soon repaired. At troops, and on the 17th was raging fiercely.

The cholera had broken out among the French after a lingering illness of consumption, Mary, consort of will be punctually attended to.

Assumption of the patient telegraph wire to the contact of the proved to the contact of th

VIENNA, April 23 .- Authentic advices have noon a couple of the cannon in Gordon's battery were struck by the enemy's heavy shot, and disa- The Sardinian steam-frigate Contstitutione left bled. The Mamelon battery seemed silenced at Genoa on the 11th for Constantinople, with part o about six, as did the Garden Battery. Indeed, it the staff of the engineer corps of the Piedmontese was stated at this time that between forty and fifty expedition, and a number of medical officers. damage; but the Russians displayed extreme ac- of the enemy's guns were dismounted. As the King Victor Emmanuel, accompanied by the day closed our fire grew slacker, but it was quite French and English Ambassadors, on Saturday my in aim, closeness of fire and position.

not with what truth, as the thick weather preven- departure for the port of embarkation with the folted us from perceiving it from the heights, that the lowing address;-

yesterday is now manifest. Two guns only re- the Cross of Savoy is not unknown. You will see plied to our tremendous cannonade. At 12 o'clock valorous armies, the fame of which fills the world.

fire, as does the Garden Battery. They are, how- perils and fatigues; to-day I regret that we must evar, much injured by the French fire. We have be separated for a time, but my thoughts will foltremendous artillery duello; among the latter is for me which re-unites me with you.

elite of the Turkish army, from Eupataria.

At half-past one almost every gun in the Flag-staff Battery was dismounted. We have now an The following telegraphic despatch has been are killed, and 38 wounded.

13-inch pieces opened to-morrow, on our night with the exception of 1 sailor and 6 soldiers."

TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATION WITH SEBASTOPOL. The telegraph now unites the camp before Sebastopl and the War office in Whitehall, London. swering by an even greater number. The ground shook beneath the perpetual roar of cannon sounding like a long-continued peal of thunder, mirgled wildly with which inight be heard the whistling of tric wires from Head Quarters to the trenches— journals from the Missouri river brings us similar tidalmost instantaneous communication, instead of intervals of days—these are new elements in the wildly with which inight be heard the whistling of wildly with which :night be heard the whistling of conduct of the war. A thin wire, traversing our The Kingston (Canada) News of Tuesday last learns "The combatants have thrown aside the scabbard. Protocols, notes, and diplomatic delays are again. From a perfect circle of batteries around the broad Euxine, and chmbing again the tall stuffs in proportion, the people of Smith's Falls have VEAL.

The Kingston (Canada) News of Tuesday last learns that have thrown aside the scabbard. The Kingston (Canada) News of Tuesday last learns that in consequence of the price of flour having been again. From a perfect circle of batteries around the broad Euxine, and chmbing again the tall stuffs in proportion, the people of Smith's Falls have VEAL.

What which inguished the whisting of the continuous through the vast States of France, Germany, and Turkey, diving beneath that in consequence of the price of flour having been again. From a perfect circle of batteries around the broad Euxine, and chmbing again the tall stuffs in proportion, the people of Smith's Falls have VEAL. among the things that have been; the sword must the towr.—at least, the south side of it—jets of cliffs, 3,000 miles from home, is the most remark-broken open the stores and helped themselves ad libipouring shot and shell into the city, and still- mules were proceeding backwards into the trench- at Terling the pangs of private sorrow, in which

Petersburg. The cases, for several weeks, have Petersbeurg, of the 17th, it appears that, on the 13th inst., there were as many as 220 cases re-

When the Emperor of France was elected Pre- Listen to the testimony of an emment physisident of the French Republic, he proceeded to cian in favor of M'Lane's Vermifuge, which is now Southampton, and alighted at Silva's Hotel, with universally acknowledged to be the best in use; even one attendant, previous to embarking in the Havre posed to the use of patent medical faculty (who are so often opposed to the use of patent medicines,) cannot withhold boat. He was not known or noticed on board the their approval of this invaluable remedy:

sprung mines, at a distance of about 50 metres.—
This operation having perfectly succeeded, has given us a new parallel, which has been successfully joined to the others. From the 12th to the 14th, notwithstanding the offensive returns of the Russians, we only had about 300 men hors decombat." In the camp the general state of affairs a consulting voice, and the will of the Emperor will be omnipotent. When, on leaving the meeting, the Emperor went to the Queen, Her Majesty approached him and said, "Well, sire, you are Sold in St. John by T. Walker & Son, and Challomore than an ally to us, for our army is placed un. ner & Hunt.

The Emperor's camp furniture, with its attenddamages caused by the besiegers fire during the day are remained at night. "In the night between of Greenhill Battery engaged the barrack work, rial Guard, moreover, are ordered for the Crimea, whole body was completely covered with the eruption. day are repaired at night. "In the night between the 18th and 19th" says the Prince, "one of the supported by a sailor battery of heavy guns. The land the first detachment is to proceed to Marseil-tirely cured me in less than three weeks. My mother works of approach. Altogether the losses of the the last four the Flagstaff Battery, and their left enganged the ment, in addition of 30,000 horse to the army.—

STER, Pharmaceutical Chemist, New Haven, Ct.—

For sale by G. F. EVERETT, & Co., King Street. By nine o'clock the thirteen-inch moriar battery, tween Lyons and Valenciennes, and the camp at St. John, N. B., where pamphlets, &c., can be had by the picket-house, had dismounted three guns Sathonay is to be augmented to 50,000. General gratis. of the Mamelon, and the Malakoff tower was suf- Aupick has been selected by the Emperor as the fering dreadfully from our sheil practice. There head of his staff when he assumes the command of

"Before Sebastopol, April 17th.—Our fire continues to maintain its superiority, without any extraordinary waste of our ammunition.

"The attack up to present time has been exclusively made by the artillery, but now the engineers sively made by the artillery, but now the engineers are combining their efforts, and making approaches, by which we are getting closer to the place.—

EAST TO THE MARSHAL MINISTER OF WAR.

"Before Sebastopol, April 17th.—Our fire distinctly; indeed, that little could be seen distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see nothing, whatever they might hear of the 400 guns and mortars of the Allies, and still loss of the 600 or 700 bouches a feu of the Muscovites, which were doing their works of death before and in the works of Sebastopol.

At Cambridge, Q. C., fon the 4th ult., Isaac, son of Mr. David Fowler, in the 26th year of his age, much respected divisions, requesting them to make known to the troops under their command a resolution made some time since by the Emperor, that all soldiers obliged to undergo amputation in consequence of wounds, shall receive from His Majesty's privy purse a sum sufficient to bring up the annual pensor.

At Cambridge, Q. C., fon the 4th ult., Isaac, son of Mr. distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, the persons in camp could see to the generals commanding the various military distinctly; indeed, t

PIEDMONT.

The fact of the superiority of the artillery of the evident we had a decided advantage over the ene- last distributed colours to the troops proceeding to the East. "You go," said His Majesty, "to figh-April 10 .- Each mortar is firing a shell every in countries where the flag of Savoy floated in ten minutes during the night. so that a perfect days of vore. I regret that I cannot go with you. A French General (Bizot) commanding the En- shower of bombs is falling. It is stated, I know His Majesty took leave of the troops on their fleets engaged, yesterday, the seaward defences. "Officers and Soldiers-A war, founded in jused the Treaties of 1840 and 1841 with respect to the valley was inundated, the army was prevented The Forts Nicholas and Constantine were certainand the destinies of our country summon us to the

> not a gun was fired from Malakoff, and the Mam- Let their example stimulate you, and let it be evielon had ten of its thirteen guns injured, or, at any dent to all that you are not less valiant than your On the other hand, the Reden has given a se- "I have formerly led you on the field of honour vere lesson to our batteries, and keeps up a heavy I remember it with pride. I have shared your > lost no more than sixty killed and wounded in this low you everywhere, and that will be a happy day Lord John Hay slightly from a splinter of a shell. "Soldiers! behold the banners bravely unfurl-Among the former is Lieutenant Twyford, R. N., ed by the magnanimous Charles Albert; let them by a round shot, and a couple of sailors by an ex- remind you of your absent country, and of the noble traditions of eight centuries. Be their de-Omer Pasha is at Kamiesch, with 15,000 of the lite of the Turkish army, from Eupataria.

At half-past one almost every gun in the Flag-accurate return of the casualties, 55-17 of whom received from Genoa: "Genoa, April 24. The Crasus, which left Genoa at eight o'clock this The weather is still very thick. Ten of our guns morning for Constantinople, with 37 officers, 209 have been struck. The fleet is off the harbour, soldiers of the Sardinian army, 25 mules, and proand greatly distracts the enemy's artillerymen. visions, was entirely lost 11 miles south-east of There will be a new morter battery of four Genoa. The passengers and crew were saved, MISCELLANEOUS NEWS.

THE CHOLERA.—This scourge is beginning to make | C. R. Goodenow. Lord Panmure cun speak to Lord Raglan, and the 3rd inst., states that every boat which reaches St. within a few hours the Commander-in-chief can Louis from below, has buried at almost every landing communicate with the Minister of War. A tele- and woodyard some of the victims of this scourge, or graph from the metropolis of the Empire to Balak- lands them at the Quarantine station there to die.lava, a railway from Balaklava to the camp; elec- The Galena, Dubuque, and St. Paul papers, and the

must be executed .- N. Y. Obs.

Received For Bible D. Fund.

For the Tract Fund. WHAT DO THE PHYSICIANS SAY?

LIND, Stark Co., Ohio, Jan. 8, 1849.

I have used Dr. M'Lane's Worm Specific in my pri-On Wednesday in last week, the Emperor had long conference with Lord Palmerston, Lord both for children and adults, induces me to say the direction, which runs along the fortifications of the flash, the slowly-rolling smoke, and the bursting Clarendon, and other English Ministers. Marshal most in its favor of any specific or patent medicine in safety. Before the Flagstaff Bastion we have for a while were silent, stupified, paralyzed by the the command of the armies were settled at this in-

ERYSIPELAS.

Any army of 75,000 men will be echeloned be- For sale by G. F. EVERETT, & Co., King Street,

Deaths.

Simmons, aged 19 years, 5 months, and 5 days. Her en

was peace.
At Salmon River, Queen's Co., on the 11th inst., Mrs Mary Darrah, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with resignation to the Divine Will, until relieved from her pain by death in the 73d year of her age. The deceased was a native of Tyrone, Ireland. She emigrated to New Brunswick about 28 years ago with her family. Her affec-tionate amiability of mind endeared her to all those favored with her acquaintance. She died in the hope of a glorious resurrection through Christ Jesus.

At Granville, N. S., on the 1st inst., Rachel, wife of Mr. Samuel Pickup, aged 32 years, leaving two children and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. She was for fourteen years.

urteen years a consistent member of the Methodist Soci-

At Long Reach, on the 28th ult., Samuel G., second som of Wm. Howard, aged I year and nine months.

MARINE JOURNAL.

The mischief in the Malakoff work of the fire of East. You are about to visit remote lands, where Saturday-Bark Brothers, Doran, Newry, 48-W. & G. Carvill, goods and iron. Brigt. Ohio, Churchill, Guayama, 27-Jardine & Co., moslases and sugar. Isaiah, McAlmon, New York, 4-master, gen. cargo. Schr. Pearl, Whelpley, Boston, 2-G. Eston, do. Sunday-Brigt. Lucy Ann, Simpson, Halifax, 7-J & G. Saltar, genreral cago.

Monday—Ship Vitula, Leach, Boston, 5-W. & R.

Wright, ballast. Tuesday—Packet ship Eudocia, Spurr, Liverpool, 31—J. &. R. Reed, passengers and gen. cargo.
Ship W. P. Lindsay,—, Bath—Short & Estey, bal-

Schr. Primrose, Myers, Halifax, 11-J. W. M. Irish, molasses, &c.

Sago, Best, Philadelphia,-19-C. M. Gove, cornmeal kin & Co. Brig St. George, Dexter, Thomastown, 5-ballast. Brigt. Bloomer, King, New York, 8—gen. cargo. Margaret, Henneberry, Philadelphia, 6—flour, corn. Schr Franklin, Welply, Boston—E. D. Jewett & Co., gen. cargo. CLEARED. May 12th-Ship Titan, Eldridge, London, deals; Commonwealth, Grosier, London, do.

15-Barque Perseverance, Stephenson, Liverpool, N. S. Demill; Wapella, Nickerson, Kingston, W. & G. Carvill; brigt Mary G-oton, Sloan, Boston, R. Rankin & Co; schr J. C. Hertz, Bullock, Baltimore,

Ar at Baltimore, 7th inst., schr. Wm. Wallace, hence Cld at Boston, 11th, schr. Sea Bee, for this port. At New York, 8th, ship Persia, do. At Philadelphia, 8th, brigt. Margaret, do.

ST. JOHN MARKETS.

[Corrected for the Religious Intelligencer, up to Thursday, May 17th.] BUTTER, in Firkins, per lb. ls. 4d. to ls. 5d. 1s. 6d. to 1s. 7d.
b) 84d. to 9d.
90s. to 100s. . . . (F) HAMS AND SHOULDERS OATS, per bushel, POTATOES, per bushel, -LOWER MARKET SLIP, FIRE WOOD, Maple, per cord, POTATOES, per bush., TURNIPS, per bush. 1s. 9d. to 2s. FLOUR, GROCERIES, etc. 42s 6d. to 43s. 9d 30s to 31s 3d

Muscovado, " " C. FREEZE, Country Agent. WANTED—To rent in a healthy part of the City, a house containing 3 or 4 rooms, and 5 or 6 Bedroms, to be used as a temporary Orphan Asylum, until the contemplated Orphan Asylum is erected—Application to be made to JOHN ARMSTRONG, Charlotte street, or Williams LIAM PETERS, Union street.

MOLASSES, clayed, reagal, by hhd., ls. lad to ls. 2ad "Muscovado, " "ls. 4d. to ls. 5.

BOARDING.—The Subscriber having taken the house owned by Mr. Reynoids, in Germain Street, immediately over the Religious Intelligencer Book Store and Office, and a few rods South of the foot of the Country Market, will in a few days be prepared to accommodate a few permanent Boarders, on reasonable terms.

N. B.—None need apply but persons of steady and temperature. E. C. FREEZE.

FLOUR AND CLOVER SEED .- Landing this day ex "J. L. Snow," from New York :- 230 brls. Super-fine FLOUR. Ex Margaret, from Philadelphia,—:00 brls. RYE FLOUR. Ex Eastern City, from Boston—7 bags Clover Seed.—For sale by (May 18.) HALL & FAIRWEATHER.

NOTICE.—Cheap Wool Carding.—The Subscriber in returning thanks to his friends and customers for the handsome manner in which they have patronized him, begs leave to state that he will card Wool this season for the low price of 14d per 15.

Sussex Vale, May 16, 1855.

2w

THE NEW ENGLAND SCHOOL, (Inductive System) is kept in the School Room formerly occupied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian" Church, Morris street, where a thorough and progressive course of Instruction is adopted. Hours of attendance.-From 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from Terms reasonable, and made known on application during chool hours.

C. H. TUCKER, TEACHER.

School hours. May 18.

NARM FOR SALE .- The Farm of Land owned and occupied by the Subscriber, situate on the North of the Washademoick Leke, in the Parish of Johnson, Q. C. about three miles above the Narrows. It contains 200 acres of land, of which about 40 are cleared, and cuts about 12 tons of hay, -has a frame house and barn, and small orchard thereon. Apply to the subscriber on the premises.

May 18.—3m. pd. GEORGE P. BROWN.

HAVING PURCHASED from Mr. W. WARWICK, all his stock of Glass and Earthenware, now offers the same for sale, at the lowest cash rates, and solicits a share of patronage, and inspection of his stock.

Just received per Mary Groton, from Boston—10 casks of Glass Ware, 20 bbls. of Tumblers—very cheap,—22 crates of American Manufactory Earthenware—new article.

Per ship Lampedo, from Liverpool—10 casks of China Ware, 40 crates Earthenware.

In Store—2000 Butter and Water Crocks, 1000 Milk Pans, 100 crates of assorted Earthenware for Country Trade, packed with care,—no breakage.

Heating's Building, Water street. ed with care,—no breakage. W. H. HAYWARD.

May 11,—2m Hasting's Building, Water street.

HAMPSTEAD, Queen's County.-TYLER TEOMP-A son, thankful to his friends and customers for the very eral patronage he has received since he commenced business in this place, begs leave to inform them that he still continues to keep for sale all kinds of Dry Goods and Groceries, Hardware, Flour, &c.,—at Small Pprofits.

POR SALE.—That desirable FREEHOLD PROPERTY on which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax road, seven miles from the City of Saint John. The Farm contains about one hundred and ninety acres, with a large and substantially built House, Barn, Out-house, &c. It fronts on the Kennebekasis Bay, and is well known as the subscriber's Ship-yard. Also will be sold a quantity of Material for ship-building as it is now in the yard. In connection with the ship-yard will be sold separate or together, as the purchaser may require; 75 per cent of the purchase money may remain on the property for a term of years to suit the convenience of the purchaser. Possession given immediately. Enquire of C. W. STOCKTON, Esq., St. John, or to BENJAMIN APPLEBY.

Hampton. King's County. May 8.

Hampton. King's County. May 8. REMOVAL.—Day's Printing Office has been Removed to the Corner of Market and Germain streets, opposite D. & J. Leavitt's Grocery Store, where all orders

GEORGE W. DAY.