One by One.

One by one the sands are flowing, One by one the moments fall; Some are coming, some are going, Do not strive to grasp them all.

One by one thy duties wait thee, Let thy whole strength go to each; Let no future dreams elate thee, Learn theu first what these can teach.

One by one (bright gifts from Heaven) Joys are set thee here below; Take them readily when given, Ready too to let them go.

One by one thy griefs shall meet thee, Do not fear an armed band; One will fade as others greet thee, Shadows passing through the land.

Do not look at life's long sorrow-See how small each moment's pain! God will help thee for to-morrow, Every day begin again.

Every hour that fleets so slewly Has its task to do or bear. Luminous the crown, and hely, If thou set each gem with care.

Do not linger with regretting, Or for passing hours despond, Nor, the daily toil forgetting, Look too eagerly beyond.

Hours are golden links. God's tokens, Reaching Heaven; but one by one. Take them, lest the chain be broken Ere thy pilgrimage be done.

Atliscellany.

The Golden Rule.

But it is so cruel, so shamefully cruel, mamma, and so wicked, and so good-for-nothing,' cried little Harry Lester, panting with rage, and stamping his foot between each passionate word. 'And I'll never love bim again .- never, - never.'

'Oh yes, you will Harry.'
'No I shan't—I know I shan't. I shall hate him all my life, and I'll go up to the Hall and let his rabbits out directly, that I will.'

As the child said this, he raised his eyes from the long-eared pets which lay before him, to the countenance of his mether, which, full of pity and sorrow, looked down tenderly upon him. At any other time Harry's temper would have yielded at once to the influence of such a look, but now he only burst Py into tears, again exclaiming,-'It is cruel, mamma it is cruel, and it is too bad of you to take his part.' I do not take his part, Harry; I think he has been very negligent and very cruel; but that is no reason why you should be wicked.'

'It is enough to make anybody wicked, to be used so. My poor dear darling rabbits, that I loved so very much; and to die such a horrid, horrid death, while I was happy away. I do hate him, mamma-I can't help it; and it would serve him just right if I were to go and let his rabbits loose now, this on his pony, Now, remember your verse my boy."

There was a silence; for even in the very heat of passion, Harry knew that he was saying and doing wrong; and although he spoke loud and naughty words, he was ashamed of them even as he did Quietly, therefore, he stood beside his mother, his eyes fixed upon his favourites, and his little heart swelling with sorrow, until at last, passion and pride gave way, tears of sorrow replaced those of rage, and laying his head suddenly upon Mrs. Lester's shoulder, he sobbed out-

'Don't be angry with me, mamma; I am very sorry for going into such a passion; indeed I am. I am glad to hear it, Harry, for you have grieved me sadly. I did not think that any temptation could have made you so unlike yourself, and so wicked.

'But I was very unhappy, mamma, and I am sorry. Do. do forgive me. Willingly, when you can tell me that from your heart you have forgiven Arthur, and have truly repented of your revengeful feelings towards him. Again there was a silence, for Harry was an honest boy, who would not, even to gain his mother's pardon, tell her a falsehood, and she had asked him a hard thing, harder than any task or lesson he had ever yet learned, and one which it seemed impossible for him to perform. Had it been anything that he had lost, or had any one else been to blame, the injury, he thought, would have been easier to forgive; but now that it was his darling rabbits that were dead, his very dearest, best-loved pets which had been killed, and by the faithlessness of could not bestow it. His mother saw and understood the trial, and said, after a little pause-'Can you repeat that verse which Fanny taught you last week, Harry?" 'Yes, I think so. Is this it:

his friend, forgiveness was too much to ask-he

Be to others kind and true! As you'd have others be to you: And neither do, nor say to men, What you would not take again.'

'I'm sure, Arthur has done to me what he wouldn't like me to do him,' said Harry, moodily, when he had repeated the verse.

'Yes! but did you never do the same? When you broke little Fanny's tea-pot, would you have liked her to break your silk-worms' n use! And the other day, when you upset that glass of water over Miss Ryall's painting and spoiled it, what ears. would you have thought if she had gone to the tray of beads you had been sorting for your sister's bag. and shaken all the colours together again? Would you have liked it?'

'And yet that would have been doing to you as you had done to them.' But I did not hurt their things on purposethey were accidents.'

Yes, but very careless ones; the very least attention would have prevented them: and what people will not take the trouble to prevent, is almost as bad as what they do on purpose.' 'Oh, mamma!'

'It is true, Harry; and you can easily understand it, by what has happeded to-day. Arthur has not beaten your rabbits and so wilfully killed them, but he has not taken the trouble to prevent their dying, by feeding them properly, and therefore he is equally blameable. You are very unhappy about it, for besides that you were fond of the poor creatures, you know that they must have suffered a great deal of pain and misery before they died; and though you would not be so cruel as to make Arthur's pets suffer in the same way for his fault, you would like to punish him by taking them away from him and so making him suffer. In short, things for the boy, unless she is told, and I know mamma would wish that Jem should be attended to. I may go, mayn't I?'

This mother won time to send up to the Hall for this city.

Also, on hand—A lot of superior English and Domestic manufactured Saddles. Bridles, Collars, and Whips, whole-sale and retail. Terms Cash.

'You are very hard, mamma. I don't want to er no revenge myself, but I do think he ought to be quit.' Punished. He had no business to promise he would take care of the rabbits.'

· Certainly net. Your cousin has been very soon, and if I can, I'll run over to-night and see naughty, and if I were talking to him now instead how they look." of to you, I would tell him so, but I am not, and And saying so, the boy sprang on his pony and therefore it is of little consequence whether his conduct has been good or bad. God will not judge you according to Arthur's sin, but according to was out of sight, 'are you not glad that you did was out of sight, 'are you not glad that you did while, seeing that her son did not proceed. You though my little readers may easily guess, for I can seem in a very uncomfortable state of mind. Tell assure them that never since, under any provocation, me honestly what is the cause of it. It is because has he been heard to utter a passionate or revengeyou cannot make up your mind whether you shall ful wish, or known to do to his companions differobey God, and deny yourself, or whether you shall obey Satan, and please yourself? If so, suppose I try to belp you in your choice. You would like, of course, to choose that which would make you the happiest. Well, then, putting all the difficulties of duty aside, do you think you would be happier if you were to go to Arthur's hutch and let his rab-

'He ought to be punished. 'That is not the question. The question is, whe- "Camp before Sebastopol, June 1, 1855.—I ther you would be happier by making him as un-happy as he has made you. Would his losing his rabbits make you forget losing yours, or would seeing him sorrowful make you joyous? I do not think that killing his pets would bring back life I will take it for granted that you are, from the to yours; but that is of no consequence, if you can numerous sketches of the place becoming acquaintbe made happy by seeing Arthur miserable, could ed with our position, although they cannot know

'Mamma, how can you ask such a thing? you know I couldn't.'

'Then of what use would your revenge be to you? It wouldn't make you happy, what would it do?' Nothing,' answered the boy in a low voice.

to give you leave now to release Arthur's rabbits, you would not doit?'

be angry. . What, if I gave you leave ?'

But if I did give you leave with all my heart, would it make you happy to take it?' No, I don't think it would. Sin can never make any one happy, and revenge is a I saw them all go down on their knees, in which never heard of one who, having obtained it, was sa-great sin. Many men have died to obtain it, but I tisfied or happy with it. God has told us to forgive our enemies, and to do to all men as we wish them to do to us, and we may be all very certain that if ing even on that mountain, in the sight of French we do not, but disobey him, and follow our own will and English Bat-men, and in the sight of Him who instead of his, we shall be miserable instead of hap- looketh down on the children of men, to see if Yes; I am glad now I did not open Arthur's after God."

hutch; but it was very cruel, mamma, wasn't it? And the tears came into Harry's eyes-he was but seven years old, remember, and so may be forgiven . A FOOR BOY'S NOBLE RESOLUTION. for crying so often over his poor little pets-and I know I am poor; but I am not ragged, and I will trickled slowly down his face.

"Yes, Harry, very: so cruel and so careless, that we will not judge Arthur until we have seen him, and heard what account he can give of the matter-I have been so busy since you went, that I have seen no one from the Hall-and see, here he comes "With a powerful effort of self-control—for Harry was a child of strong affections, and far more And he says God loves the poor.

What if I am poor? My teacher says the blessed Saviour was poor. He says the apostles were poor. to resent an injury to anything he loved than to I will sing a lattle before I work: himself-he went forward and held out his hand to his cousin, who stooped gaily from his pony, and shaking it heartily, cried-

· Well, so you're home first, Hal, after all, 1 thought I'd be, so I rode round this way from the station, instead of taking the near cut across the

"Why, where have you been? Have you been out too ?

· Ah, havent't I? Do you think you're to be the a jolly time we have had, boating and fishing and can't sleep sounder than I do. -but hallo! what have you been doing with your rabbits, Harry ?

to-day. They have been starved to death'-and are mine. All these robins, and thrushes, and larks, the child turned away to hide his quivering lip. saddle, and snatching up one of the poor dead rabbits-' how ?'

' I don't know ; I left them to you. warmly to his cousin, taking his passive hand, am I They are taken care of by the Lord; so am I. don't think hardly of me ; don't blame me for this; for indeed, indeed it is not my fault. When I knew that I was to go with papa, and found that NEWLY IMPROVED MODEL MELODEONS. I had not time to come here and say so, I went to Lawrence, at the head of King Street.-These Instruments Jem, our gardener's son, and promised to pay him from their superior quality of tone have attracted the attentwopence a week to attend to your hutch and mine; he was very glad, and promised faithfully to feed and clean them out regularly-so of course I trusted him. I did all I could, Harry, indeed I did; but I am very, very sorry; and if my rabbits are Messrs. Mason & Hamlin, not dead too. you shall have them all, which is but Melodeons this morning. I can strongly recommend them fair. Don't turn away, Harry; you must forgive to parties wishing to study the Organ, and can assure you for my own use. I should select one of your make.

'Yes, but not with you. Oh, Arthur, I have been so naughty; I thought you had killed my rabbits, and I was so spiteful and wicked against

'I killed the rabbits ! Oh, Hal, how could you think so? And yet when you found them dead, after leaving them in my care, what else could you think? Well, never mind, only say you forgive the utmost satisfaction, both in Tone, Touch, and Power, and it will be all right. If Jem has not staryed my hutch empty too, you shall have the long ever seen. Since the introduction of this instrument in our cars.

No indeed-indeed I won't.' But you must, Harry. It is but fair; for if I did not kill yours, it was in trusting to me that they died. It was my deputy's fault if it was not

' No Arthur, said Mrs Lester, who had been anxeously watching the changes upon her son's face during his cousin's speech, 'this appears to have been a most unfortunate combination of circumstan- Saddle Trees; Spurs; Bitts; Curry Combs; Collar Cloth ces; but I do not think that any one has really been to blame. Harry trusted his pets to you. as the person in whom he had the greatest confidence, Foot Oil and Oil Blacking; and every other article now in charge to a boy upon whom you had every reason to depend, and who, I have no doubt, would have fulfilled his duties faithfully if he hed been able; but about ten days ago he was attacked with brain fever, and although much better now, has been far too ill to think of rabbits or any thing else ' aunt; mamma would'nt mind my going to see Jem would she? And now she is out and papa, prchaps his mother won't like to send up to the Hall for this city.

'Yes, Arthur, I think you may, but you had bettthe hatch ready, for I shall send down the bunnies not revenge yourself upon your cousin as you wish-'Yes, but—'

'But what, Harry,' asked Mrs. Lester after a now.' What Harry answered I do not know,

PRAYER MEETINGS BEFORE SEBASTOPOL .- TOE bits loose, so that he would never have them again?' Crimea will be read with interest by all friends of will tell you a little matter which I think may inthe caves, crags and corners of the ravines as well as myself. Well, to have a quiet meditrtion, a few Sundays ago I took my Testrment in my pocket, and left the din and confusion of the camp, and went and placed myself among the rocks of 'Then you lose nothing by giving it up, because you would gain nothing by taking it, If I were down, and had not been reading long, before a gentle breeze brought to my ear a sound of voices, it ceased, but the wind brought the sound again ; 'And why, Harry?'

'Because it would not be right, and you would about; at first I could only discern a great many groups of men about, chiefly Frenchmen, washing Yes, because you would not give the leave with all your heart. You would enly say so to try if I'd the voices more distinctly, and a good way off. their linen in the ravine, and a few Bat-men graz-On the opposite side of the ravine, I observed against a stone wall four soldiers in full dress, and a man in the costume of a servant; I watched 'You may be sure, my child, that it would not. them and in a few minutes the voices ceased, and position they remained ten minutes, when they arose and left in the direction of the Second Division. I felt thankful that there were a few worshipthere be any that understandeth and that seeketh try to be honest. I can go to the Sabbath-school, and the e I can get many a tract and presty book; and my teacher says, if I get the knowledge of Christ, I shall be richer than many a man who owns a million of dollars. Yes, I am poor! But isam not poor enough to steal, or to beg, or to le. And I am not near poor enough to sell on Sabbaths, or to go to grog shops.

"He that is down need fear no fall, He that is poor no pride; He that is humble ever shall. Have God to be his guide!"

Thank'ye for that, good John Bunyan! they say vou were a poor boy your-elf once; no better than a tinker. Very we'l, you are rich enough now, I dure say. I don't see, after all, but that I can sing as gaily as if I had a thousand pounds. Money does not lighten people's hearts. There is Squire Jones; he is rich; but I never only traveller? No, I went to uncle Edward's heard him sing a hymn in my life. His cheek is paler with papa the day after you went to Hertford, and than mine, and his arms is thinner; and I am sure he

No, I am not so poor either. This fine spring morning I feet quite rich. The fields and flowers are mine. Nothing. I found them so when I came back The red clouds yonder, where the sun is going to rise, Starved!' repeated Arthur, springing from his and water. What could money buy for me more than saddle, and snatching up one of the poor dead ash

'And I— Oh, Harry,' cried the lad, going up have food and drink; so have I. They are cheerful; so

[From George Washbourue Morgan.] NEW YORK, June 17, 1854.

Most faithfully yours GEO. WASHBOURNE MORGAN, Late Organist of St. Clares, Southwark, the Parish Church of South Hackney, and to the Harmonic Union, Exeter

Hall, London. St. John, N. B., March 27, 1355. MR. STEVENS,—Dear Sir,—It is with pleasure I make known to you the opinion of myself and many others, of the MELODEON purchased from you a few months ago. This taining the Voice, and procuring a perfect Tone to every I am dear Sir, yours truly, R. D. McARTHUR, Conductor of St. Andrews' Church Choir. HENRY HORTON, Importer of all kinds Harness Mounting, Saddles, Bridles, Whip Thongs, &c.

Union Street, North of the Country Market, St. John, N. B. Offers for sale HARNESS MOUNTINGS in Silver, Brass and Japan'd; Cart, Waggon, and Team HAMES; Pad Plates; Chain Traces; Breeching and Back CHAINS; Dog and Halter Chains; Patent Leather, and Webs of all kinds; Riding and Driving Whips; Wool; Saddles; Bridles, Martingals,

P. S.—All kinds of Harness, Saddles, and Bridles, made to order, and sold with the above cheap for cash or approved

NEW Brunswick Saddle, Harness, and Collar Manufactory, Charlotte Street, North of the Country Market, and opposite the New Brunswick Hotel.

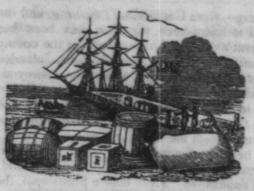

The Subscribers begs leave to return thanks to their friends who so liberally natronized them since their commencement. Poor Jem! This is bad news indeed, worse than who so liverally patronized them since their commencement the rabbits, Harry. But brain fever isn't infectious, annt: mamma would'nt mind my going to see Jem lected, and engaged the services of the most competent men in the city,—that they are now ready to execute all orders, er not go into the cottage; Jem must be kept very quit.

> St. John, April 27, 1855. D. W. & J. R. ADAMS.

'Very well, I'll take care. Good bye, Hal; get the hatch ready, for I shall send down the bunnies REMOVAL.—Day's Printing Office has been Re poposite D. & J. Leavitt's Grocery Store, where all orders will be punctually attended to. May 11. GEORGE W. DAY.

and Wholesale and Retail dealer in CHINA, GLASS, And Earthen Ware. Stephens' Buildings, King's Square, SAINT JOHN, N. B.

PORTO RICO.—50 casks and 9 tierces very Bright Molasses ex "Perseverance" from Guaymai, Porto Ri-co. Also—by steamer "Adelaide," from Boston, a further upply of Newell's Patent Safety Lamps.

Jan. 15. HANNAH & UNDERHILL.

CARPETS AND RUGS!-Now open for sale at the O'ALBION HOUSE,' a splendid variety of 3-ply Super and Dutch Carpets, with Rugs to match.

The balance of Stock of Patent Tapestry Carpets, we are now offering at 5s. 3d. per yard, very best qualities

March 23.

BEARD & VENNING. GERMAN BAKING POWDERS.

POR making Bread without yeast and in one fourth the time; also Puddings without eggs (with directions improved by the Queen's Private Baker) equally valuable in making Puddings and Pastry, which it deprives of all their indigestable properties, and at the same time, if Dripping or Lard be used instead of Butter, it removes all unpleasant taste.—Manufactured by George Berwick London.
For sale by HANNAH & UNDERHILL,

HATS AND CAPS.—Spring and Summer style for 1855.—Now ready for sale—the Spring and Summer style of Hats for 1856, as adopted by the Paris and New York Boards of Trade. This is a beautiful style: crown 74 inches high; brim, 24 inches wide; no binding, feather edge; band 1 inch wide; curve of brim 1 mch.

We have on hand a very large stock of Cloth Caps, just manufactured for spring and summer wear, to which we call

Our prices are exceedingly low, and as most of our goods are manufactured under our own immediate inspection, we trust that we shall be able to continue to meet with public

Hats and Caps made to order.
C. D. EVERETT & SON, North side King street.

resides in Germain Street, immediately over the Religious where. Intelligencer Office. Persons wishing to see him on business of any kind can do so by calling at his residence. forih be left at the above named office.

E. C. FREEZE. THOMAS HANFORD, Nelson Street, - Agen for sale of WILLARD'S PATENT CHURNS.

NEW STORE at Indiantown.—Boots, Shoes, Leather, and Findings. Trunks, Valises, Carpet Bags. Groceries, &c. &c., for sale at lowest prices, Wholsale and Indiantown, June 1, 1855. STEVENSON & IRVIN. 2 months.

MARLBORO HOTEL, BOSTON.—JOHN A. PARKS

Proprietor.—This house is very pleasantly situated on Washington Street, and location very central. It has recently been refitted and furnished, and is now the best temperance house in town. There is social worship morning and evening in the parlors, where all who choose may be present. Itis a house where the traveller will find a new temperature. her will find a pleasant home Boston, Oct. 1, 1853.

SOAP and Candle Manufactory.—The Subscriber informs the Public that he is manufacturing, and keeps but freely. constantly on hand, at his Establishment in Union Street, which has recently been fitted up expressly for the business, a large stock of Soap and Candles, of every description, and has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinwhich he disposes of on the most reasonable terms. Parties ner pill is employed. ordering from this Establishment may rely on their orders being promptly filled, and to their entire satisfaction; the Proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants.

I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being promptly filled, and to their entire satisfaction; the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved to retain the confidence of his constants. I articles of the proprietor being resolved t

Those wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to call nd inspect his stock. ISRAEL MERRITT.

May 25. Union Street, near Waterloo Street and inspect his stock. WALTON'S Leather and Shoe Finding THE business heretofore carried on by McKIM & CLEAR,

The red clouds yonder, where the sun is going to rise, are mine. All these robins, and thrushes and larks, are mine. I never was sick in my life. I have bread and water. What could money buy for me more than this?

It might I was poor, but I am rich.

The birds have no purse or pocket-book; neither have I. They have no pairs or aches; neither have I. They have food and drink; so have I. They are cheerful; so am I They are taken care of by the Lord; so am I.

Newly improved model melodeons. Sold at the Cabinet Warr-rooms of the Messrs. J. & G. Laurence, at the head of King Street.—These Instruments from their superior quality of tone have attracted the attention of the most distinguished Musicians throughout the Country. Prices vary from £16 to £48.

M. A. STEVENS, Agent.

Newly in the sign of the big Shoe Hammer, next to the Religious Intelligencer Book store, Germain street, St. John, N. B.

The subscriber has just received his Spring stock of English and American Leather and Shoe Finding, of every describer, who has now on hand a most superior assortment of workman-ship in his line, MONUMENTS, TOMB TABLES, MAN-TLE PIECES, &c. &c., combining beauty of design, corrections can be simple to the Religious Intelligencer Book store, Germain street, in the name and on account of the Subscriber, who has now on hand a most superior assortment of workman-ship in his line, MONUMENTS, TOMB TABLES, MAN-TLE PIECES, &c. &c., combining beauty of design, corrections, and Claming Awis, shoe Threads of every description. Lasts, Crimps, and Boot Trees. Shoe kit on's sewing Awis, and Claming Awis, shoe Treeads of every description. Lasts, Crimps, and Boot Trees. Shoe kit on's sewing Awis, and Claming Awis, shoe Treeads of every description. Lasts, Crimps, and Boot Trees. Shoe kit on's sewing Awis, and Claming Awis, and

S. L. TILLEY, No. 14, King Street, St. John, N. B., Would call the attention of the public to his large and varied Stock of Goods, received per ships Middleton, John Barbour, and Achilles from London and Liverpool, and steamers from United States, viz: Drugs and Chemicals of all kinds.

Brushes and Combs of nearly every description.

Brandram's No. 1 White Lead, in 14lb., 28lb., 56lbs., and 1 cwt. kegs. Red, Yellow, Black, Blue, and Green Raw and Boiled Linseed Oil. Spirits Turpentine and Var-

Olive and Porpoise Oil.
Pure E. I. Castor Oil, in tins.
Gold Leaf, Glazier's Diamonda, Glass, Putty, Lampblack,

Confectionary, in great variety, from the best Scotch and American manufacturers. Seeds-Clover, Timothy, and Garden Seeds-warr nted For sale wholesale and retail at lowest market prices.

ROCERIES.—The subscribers are receiving ex schr Orlando, from Boston.
30 bags Java Coffee; 10 do. Cape do. 5 brls. and 10 boxes Saleratus. 300 bags Ground Rock Salt. 2 bales soft Shell Almonds.

5 boxes Shelled, do. 4 Packets Cloves.
10 bags Castana Nuts. 1 bbl. Mason's Blacking.
5 Bbls. Ground Logwood. 1 bale Bags.
Strong Souchong, Orange Pekoe and Oolong Tea. Rice,

Tobacco, Castile Soap, Citron, Arrowroot, Sperm Candles, American Mustard, Saltpetre, Suiphur, &c. &c. &c. In Store,—50 hhds. very Bright Porto Rico Sugar.

150 chests and half chests Tea 25 brls. crushed Sugar.

30 boxes Tobacco, various brands.

15 bags Filberts and Walnuts. 10 bbls. Matthews' Cider Vinegar.
Burning Fluid, Logwood and Redwood. Colman's Starch und Mustard. Anderson's Patent Starch. Glenfield Patent Powder Starch. Preston & Merrell's Yeast Powder.

and a general assortment of other Groceries, Fruit, &c. for sale Wholesale and Retail, by HANNAH & UNDERHILL.

SAFETY Lamps and Cans.—We are now opening lot of Newell's Patent safety, soler hanging, side and Table Lamps, Ship's Cabin Lamps, safety cans, &c., just received from the manufacturer. Also,—A large assortment of Fluid Lamps, suitable for halls, shops, Public Rooms, &c. Also—Brass Tops, and Extinguishers.

Oil Lamps altered to burn Fluid.

Burning Fluid of best quality.
June 1. HAN HANNAH & UNDERHILL.

remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other origns of the body, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors, Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of dangerous diseases almost beyond heliaf, was they are beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of sanch exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth, Their certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to Annexed we give Directions for their use in the complaints which they have been found to cure.

FOR COSTIVENESS.—Take one or two Pills, or such quanti ty as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Piles, and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under a costive habit of body. Hence it should be, as it can be, promptly relieved

FOR DYSPEPSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveess, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses-from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and liver into healthy acsoulburn of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

For a FOUL STOMACH, or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels which produces general depression of the Spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength is restored to FOR NERVOUSNESS, SICK HEADACHE, NAUSEA. Pain in the Stomach, Back, or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept to the part of the part of the part of the same than and kindred disar-out from the system. Don't wear these and kindred disders because your stomach is foul. FOR SCROFULA, ERYSIPELAS, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The erruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disppear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by the purging effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have com-pletely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in per-fect health. Patients! your duty to society forbids that you should parade yourself around the world covered with pim-ples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the unclean dsseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansling.

To Purify the Blood they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which sow the seeds of incurable diseases will COUNTRY AGENCY.—The subscriber begs to inform be wept out of the system like chaff before the wind. By Call who may wish to employ him as Agent to transact any business whatever, in the City of St. John, that he now as by the remarkable cures which they are making every ess of any kind can do so by calling at his residence.

All letters sent to him by private conveyance must henceor obstructions of the Liver. Torpidity and congestion vi LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious Affections Letters sent by mail addressed C. E. Freeze, St. John, N. B. All of which will receive immediate attention.

tiate the bile and render it unit for digestion. This is disastrous to the health, and the constitutionis frequently ndermined by no other cause. mined by no other cause. Indigestionis the symutom Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhosa, prevals. Ferverish symptons, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness; sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid; the bowels bore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tensency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colie lious diarrhœa, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It is wicked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

RHEUMATISM, GOUT, and all Inflame pidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, in Fredericton, in Carleton by J. Cook, and by the Druggists

MONUMENTS &c.

to the Religious Intelligencer Book store, Germain street,

Scotland, he has since his commencement of business in St. John, entirely outstript all competitors whose importations from the United States have been even miserable samples of land of Yankee clap-trap and wooden nutmegs! He desires to defame no man, but as a hard-working British Mechanto defame no man, but as a naru-working Darrish Machan-ic he thinks himself more deserving patronage than aliens and foreigners, particularly when the latter give their patrons mere Monuments of Mistakes and botches, while he always Brushes and Combs of nearly every description.

Shaving and Fancy Soaps. Perfumery.

Fancy Articles. Spices of all kinds.

Dye stuffs—Logwood, Redwood, and Fustic, ground and in stick. Indigo, Alum, Copperas, Blue Vitriol, and Analysis and Soaps. Perfumery.

Indigo, Alum, Copperas, Blue Vitriol, and parted friends, twenty per cent. better, more beautiful and more substantial than can elsewhere be obtained.

David C. Parent, Nashwaulksis, near Fredericton, Y. C.; Hugh Kay, Eel River, Dumfries, Y. C.; Israel Atherton, Queensbury, John Hea. Jr., Prince William. Geo. Hammond. Kingelear, Thos. A. Beckwith, Oromocto, Sunbury; Thos. W. Ebbet, Parish of Gagetown.

Geo. W. Miller, Southhampton, Travelling Agent;
Thomas Oulton, Westmorland Point, N. B.
James D. Archibald, Eastville, Stewiack, Colchester, N. S. The above are Agents for the Subscriber, to whom all orders for him may be given, and which will receive prompt attention.

R. A. McKIM.

SUPERIOR BOTANIC MEDICINES.—The following superior Medicines are for sale, wholesale or retail, at the office of the Religious Intelligencer, and at the store of Messrs. Hannah & Underhill: Wilson's Compound Sarsaparilla,

Wilson's Dysentary Syrup, Wilson's Wild Cherry Bal-Wilson's Wild Cherry Bitters, Wilson's Nenropathic Drops, Wilson's Salve, Wilson's Composition Powders,

Cayenne Pepper, in small and large tin cans. for fam

CENERAL LEATHER and Finding Store, 26, North side King Street.—J. J. CHRISTIE has received a large and varied assortment of Leather and Snoe Finding of the very best description—per ships 'Themis' liner Middleton,' and 'teamers from Boston: All of which will be sold at the lowest Cash prices. Also—Doe Skins for

MORRIS & DENNISTON. VENETIAN BLINDS AND SASHES, GRAINERS AND PAPER HANGERS, Golden Ball, Corner Union Street,

SAINT JOHN, N. B. By Sign Boards made and painted. Old Blinds repaired. E Mel

VOL. THE Is Publis for th of Ne

ONE] ers that th Parties better med

The tr

Sardis a

have mo and both capture o Scripture But altho doubt the alluded t of Cyrus there are siege an clear ide tions allu to give perceive derive m tures, an furnished uable, as represent After came in barra in 1 that cou

horse and dred of mentione midable i projecting to pieces

chariots 1

dealing w

the time b

Persian c

ered with missle we large nun large size of which feet high archers. of wood, pearance with the action, ra and more and their marksme off" the r as to furn the troop broken or the Persia els, each one looki wards the that of Cy men. Be plain, wh to the rig which he himself

hemming

of his ar

alone nu

these we he two sus, perc wings to enemy, a same tim ently ext main boo the fron which w flanks a seems to ly preser sians, co But Cyri nalled hi abled to were ma them int squadron the other most who experian on, so m body of threw th occasion while the of great head of vigorous and the same tin was on t enemy b gave ord fall upor ranks co