VOL

THI

Is Publ for t of N

ONE

B. J. D. V WIL JAM

All Co

The ob

ed (post

LAR A Y

family in proper re

Soldi

The

held, M

was tak resting ciety o

ject hit ong ag

viduals, same of

then ca

was no could he

the Briti

to say th

disciplin pline be of relig

the stron consider posed, c

ral char greater spiritual made fo

rality, h things o The mention ety's age from let sults of t

appropri military

five age

Balaklav

proceed

tracts, w

Baltic fle

ble clain

had to d to moral other oc them the eternal !

favorable

cowards soul to wounded

fend him

army as made for

Scripture

and thos

among th rageous would a might sti

the mean ment of

with suc

direful c prisoners

teen yea

sia, after

in the di

and he d

The I

The I

The

For the Religious Intelligencer.

The Judgment.

The final trump is sounding, Its peals awake the dead, making and confounding Mankind with mighty dread.

Behold the angel standing On both the sea and land, With awful voice proclaiming, That time is at an end.

The islands, rocks and mountains, Are moving to and fro: The rivers, streams and fountains, For ever cease to flow.

And now the mighty ocean Is yielding up its dead, While hell in great commotion, To hear its doom is led.

Now Jesus Christ descending. A shout divides the air, The heavenly host attending, The trump of God is there. The dead in Christ are waking.

Their bodies first arise, Then living saints are taken With them into the skies. There with their Lord remaining.

They shall for ever be, Where there is no complaining, From sin and sorrow free Then brethren let us comfort Each other with these words,

That when we hear the trumpet, We know that we're the Lord's."

The Dewprop.

A DROP of dew from heaven descended; nce on its globe was blended; From the leaf of a rose its waters depended. From the leaf of a rose its waters depended,
Like a miniature world, in mid air suspended.
The sunbeams of heaven its bosom reflected,
The shadows of earth its spirit dejected;
The white, and the red, and the gold, and the blue,
Were the colours it loved to reveal to the view.
When the heaven was obscured by a thunder cloud,
The dewdrop was clad in a night-like shroud;
And when the dark thunder had rolled away,
Entranced in a halo of glory it lay.
O'er heaven reigning in glory resplendent, O'er heaven reigning in glory resplendent, The royal sun shone on its lowly attendant; With a virginal smile, the dewdrop replied, As the glance of her king her soul gle And then the dewdrop, surpassingly fair, Like a spirit of light, clave the upper air; Her pinions upborne by celestial love, She ascended to rest in the heaven above. A crystalline dewdrop seemeth to me,
A beautiful emblem of purity;
By evil unspotted, unstained by sin,
All glorious without, and all tranquil within.

MORAL. Should not the Christian ever be, A dewdrop in his purity?

As free from earth-born guilt and shame,
As pure in thought, and act, and aim?
The Christian, too, will pass away,
While "beams divine" around him play;
Encrowned and enrobed its scriphic love, He, too, shall enter the portals above ! Union Magazine.

W. S. G.

Miscellann.

The Praying Bankrupt.

Some twenty-five years since, in a town of some maritime importance, there resided a deacon, who was engaged in sucrative business. Although of prudent habits, his benevolence led him to endorse largely for one who had won his confidence as a Christian brother, but afterwards proved to be a designing knave. This issued in the good deacon's failure, when with scrupulous integrity, every thing that could be claimed by his creditors was given up. A winter of great severity and of general business depression followed. His wife and young children looked to him for a subsistence which he knew not how to furnish, as his most diligent efforts for employment were unsuccessful.

A debt incurred with no prospect of payment was in his estimation sin; and he saily saw the little stock of provision they possessed passed rapidly diminishing, with no way to obtain more. He was a man of prayer as well as action, and carried the case to Him who feedeth the ravens. Yet long, weary weeks passed. and no succour came. At length the morning dawned when the last stick of wood was on the fire, and little Hatty told her father that the candles were all gone : "and how," asked she, "shall we take care of dear mamma to-night?"

The question went to the father's heart with daggerlike poignancy. The vision of his suffering wife gasping her life away in the last fearful stages of consu ation, her comfortless sick-room, unwarmed, unlighte and the thick darkness which he knew would enshroud her mind, when made aware of the extent of their destination, would have driven him to distraction, were it sought the Lord for help; and, forgetting all other wants, pled and pled again for the two articles now specially needed, specifying them with resterated earnestness. He arose from his knees in full assurance of faith and with heavenly tranquillity, and went forth the door, clapping his bands, exclaiming,

"Oh, pa! we've got some wood and some candles." "But where did you get them? Are you sure they were not left here by mistake?" "Oh no, pa?" interrupted Hatty, "they were not left by mistake. A man knocked at the door with his whip, and when I opened it, he asked if you lived here. I told him you did. Then he said, Here are some candles and a load of wood for him." "I asked him if you sent them; and he said, I rather think your pa don't know any thing about it."

"Who did send them, then?" said I. "Oh," said he, "I mustn't tell, but you may say to your father that they are a present." But to what instrumentality they were indebted for the relief was a mystery. And what particularly interested Deacon P. was the character of the anon presents,-that the very things so much needed, and no others, should be sent; and he was sure he had mentioned his want of them to no human ear. He questioned the children anew. They described the man who knocked at the door, the horse and truck he drove. A new thought strock him. "Why," said he, "that team belongs to my old enemy, Graff. Can it be possible he is the donar? If so, surely the finger of God has touched his heart." Descon P. was, however, so convinced that he was their benefactor, that he resolved on an immediate call on that gentleman.

But who was Mr. Graff? ed in this desecration, were so potent in influence that nobody thought of risking interference. Deacon P., though a man of peace, was also a man of moral "bound themselves with an oath" to kill him. Yet they feared his presence, and at his approach stores would be deserted of customers and closed with great celerity. This species of Sabbath-breaking was at length broken up, after various hair-breadth escapes to the Religious Intelligencer Book store, Germain street, St. John, N. B.

on the part of Deacon P. and his compatriot, the authorities being shamed into action by their fearless real.

The brutal drunkenness of the sailors, and the degradation and suffering of their famalies, with which Deacon P. was in this enterprise brought into contact, opened his even to the evils of the lieuor traffic; and opened his eyes to the evils of the liquor traffic; and, turning over his Sabbath reform to the legal authorities. he became known as a temperance advocate. ties, he became known as a temperance advocate.

This also brought him enemies, sometimes changing even friends into foes. Distiller Graff was among the became known as a temperance advocate.

Quick sales and small profits.

N. B.—Just received, 50 sides New York Sole-Leather, 56 sides from the celebrated Tannery of Charles Melick.

In vain did the grieved deacon strive to conciliate by S. L. TIELEY, No. 14, King Street, St. John, N. B., Would call the attention of the public to his large and varied Stock of Goods, received per ships Middleton, John Barbour, and Achilles from London and Liverpool, and steamers from United States, viz: explanation and personal kindness. Even the triffing civility of a bow was rudely unnoticed by Mr. Graff. Descon P. entered the distillery of his old friend. For the first time in years its proprietor looked up Drugs and Chemicals of all kinds.

with a nod and smile of recognition. It was evident something unusual had softened his heart. Patent Medicines. Brushes and Combs of hearly every description. "I have called,' said the deacon, "to ask if you can tell me who sent some wood and candles to my house to-day?" "Yes, sir, I sent them." "You are very kind; but pray, tell me how you Brandram's No. 1 White Lead, in 14lb., 28lb., 56lbs., and 1 came to do so?"

"But first let me inquire if you really needed them?" Raw and Boiled Linscod Oil. Spirits Turpentine and Var-"Oh, I cannot express to you how much!" "Well, then, I suppose I must explain," said Mr. Olive and Porpoise Oil. Pure E. I. Castor Oil, in tins. Graff. "It's all very singular, and sometimes seems very foolish. This morning, about 10 o'clock, as I was busy at my work, suddenly a voice seemed to say to me, 'Send some wood to Deacon P.; he is in want?" I was astonished. I could not believe you meeded it. And I could not send it to you of all others. I tried to banish the thought, and went to work again more earnestly. But the voice,-it seemed within me,-said again with painful distinctness, 'Send some wood to Deacon P.; he is in want." I scouted the idea as weak and silly,-a mere phantasy of the brain; but it was of no use; I had to succumb. The more I ridiwas of no use; I had to succumb. The more I ridiculed and fought it, the more vivid and irresistible was the impression, until to purchase peace, and in some awe, I confess, I bade John load his team with wood, and leave it are the impression of the impression, until to purchase peace, and in some awe, I confess, I bade John load his team with wood, and leave it are the impression of the awe, I confess, I bade John load his team with wood, and leave it at your door.

" For a moment I was at rest; but only for a monot gratify this whim. But again I was so beset with Retail. the mandate, and so distressed and baffled in repelling it, that as a cheap way to get out of torment. I handed John a package of candles also.

and then again, such was the strange character of the able for the coming season. impression, so unexpected, so solemn, and powerful, A large stock of Satin Hats, Cloth Cape, &c., on and such the singular peace following compliance with hand. its dictates, that I almost believe it to be superratural. June 1.

" It is indeed the doings of Him who is wonderful in working," replied Deacon P. "It was about ten o'clock, I well remember, that I pled with God for the Deputy land Surveyor; by virtue of which he is authorised periences of individual members, to be accounted for only on the ground of a special Providence reguardful of the emergencies of the believing cofficient results.

Sussex, May 25, 1855. of the emergencies of the believing, suffering people of God? Surely, " light is sown for the rightous," and to them,

"The deepest dark reveals the starriest hope."

PROBIBITION WANTED BY THE DEUNKARD,-The Wilmington Statesman, (Delaware,) publishes the following. It will be remembered that the prohibitive liquor bill passed both branches of the Delaware Legislature;

State Senate of Delaware, during the pending of the Probibitory bill before that body.

A man of notoriously intemperate habits, said to the Hon. Member (who it was thought held the life or death of the bill at his will,) "suppose Mr.

—, a vessel was out in the Bay, in a sinking condition with a large number of persons on board, without boats of any other means of carrons and board, without boats of any other means of carrons and leaves of any kind can do so by calling at his residence. without boats or any other means of escape, and ness of any kind can do so by calling at his residence. you bad the only boat and the only means of forth be left at the above named office. not that he yet had hope in One mighty to save. He escape, and without your assistance they must het letters sent by mail addressed C. E. Freeze, St. John, perish, and you could save them without endanger. ing your own life, would you do it?"

expecting deliverance, looking for it, however, in but one way,—through his own earnings. But after a fruitless day of seeking employment, gloomily he refruitless day of seeking employment, gloomily he returned home.

He entered his gate, and was startled to see before

Will you do it?'

The appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the new "Christian appeal was said to be more convincing pied by Mr. T. Hutchings, directly opposite the ne

Temperance men—and the honorable gentleman's 2 to 4 P. M. mind was more firmly fixed in favor of the Bill than it had ever been before.

The gentleman did vote for the bill, and it has

May God protect the right.'

asked for cider, refused him and ordered him to inches high; brim, 24 inches wide; no binding, feather edge; decision, and referred her to the command of the manufactured for spring and summer wear, to which we call Apostle not to be forgetful to entertain strangers, particular attention. for some had thereby entertained angels unawares.

She said she was not afraid in this case of losing such a privilege, for she never heard that angels approval were in the habit of going around begging cider before breakfast!

On the same safe ground ladies who have the tabaco-phobia insist that the use of the vile weed is a conclusive argument against the angelic character Store, and a few rods south of the foot of the Country Mar-

CURE FORE TOOTHACHE.—At a recent meeting statering.
St. John, June 1, 1855. of the London Medical Society, Dr. Blake stated, courage. He determined to put a stop to the iniquity. that he was able to cure the most desperate cases His friends warned him that his life would be endanger of toothache (unless the disease was connected with May 11.

| WOUR AND CORN MEAL—Landing ex Triai—
| 100 Bris. Canada superfine Flour; 200 do. Corn Mesl. May 11.

ed, but at first alone, and afterwards with a brother rheumatism), by the application of the following deacon, he would take a walk along the wharves of a remedy to the decayed tooth :- Alum, reduced to latter, from a warm friend becoming bitterly alienated.

Shaving and Fancy Soaps. Perfumery.
Fancy Articles. Spices of all kinds.
Dye stuffs—Logwood, Redwood, and Fustic, ground and in stick. Indigo, Alum, Copperas, Blue Vitriol, and

ewt. kegs. Red, Yellow, Black, Blue, and Green

Gold Leaf, Glazier's Diamonds, Glass, Putty, Lampblack, Confectionary, in great variety, from the best Scotch and

Seeds-Clover, Timothy, and Garden Seeds-warr nted For sale wholesale and retail at lowest market prices. SAFETY Lamps and Cans.—We are now opening a lot of Newell's Patent safety, soler hanging, side and Table Lamps, Ship's Cabin Lamps, safety cans, &c., just Burning Fluid of best quality.

HANNAH & UNDERHILL ment. The imperative whisper came, 'Send some candles?' Said I to myself, this is too absurd; I will Groceries, &c. &c., for sale at lowest prices, Wholsale and Indiantown, June 1, 1855. STEVENSON & IRVIN.

"This matter has been in my mind ever since. SUMMER HATS.—The Subscribers have just received from New York, a full and well assorted Sometimes I have thought it almost a freak of insanity, stock of Panama. Leghorn, Peral, and other Hats suit-

C. D. EVERETT & SON.

very articles you sent me. It was then, too, that my to ascertain the contents, and fix the bounds of Lands that soul was filled with the conviction that my prayer was heard and relief would come." have already been, or may hereafter be granted in the Pro-Since hearing a venerated relative relate this incident in his own life, we have often wondered how the sceptic can dispose of such occurances. While it would be presumption for the believer to expect to live by prayer alone, to be fed without his own cooperation, as was Elijah, yet are there not events happening all along the history of the church, in the experiences of individual members, to be accounted for

New Goods.—BEARD & VENNING respectfully informs the public that they have received the usual assectment of Spring and Summer Goods, per Packet Ships Misidleton and John Barbony, to which they invite atten-The Stock comprises every article kept in a First Class Dry Goods Establishment; and are offered at prices that suit the present Depressed State of the Times. May 25.

which has recently been fitted up expressly for the business, Here Him. The most convincing argument in favor of Prohibition that we have ever heard, is said to have been made to a member in the State Senate of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the state of Delaware, during the pending of constant of the business, a large stock of Soap and Candles, of every description, and which he dispuses of on the most reasonable terms. Parties ordering from this Establishment may rely on their orders being promptly filled, and to their entire satisfaction; the

May 25.

'Certainly I would. I should be inhuman to do otherwise!'

'Well,' said he, 'I' and there are hundreds of the sold because the owner has retired from the business.—

This appeal was said to be more convincing than a dozen such lecturers would have been from than a dozen such lecturers would have been from the course of Instruction is adopted. Hours of attendance .- From 9 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from

Terms reasonable, and made known on application during school hours.

C. H. TUCKER, TEACHER. School bours. May 18.

become a Law. In a few months that poor FARM FOR SALE.—The Farm of Land owned and inchaints with hand a few months that poor inebriate with hundreds of others, their wives and Washademoick Lake, in the Parish of Johnson, Q. C. about children, will have the shield of Law for their pro- three miles above the Narrows. It contains 200 acros of land, of which about 40 are cleared, and cuts about 12 tons of hay,-has a frame house and barn, and small orchard thereon. Apply to the subscriber on the premises.

May 18.—3m. pd. GEORGE P. BROWN.

A lady in Connecticut at whose door a tramping beggar called very early one morning and mer style of Hats for 1856, as adopted by the Paris and New York Boards of Trade. This is a beautiful style: crown 74 go on. He ventured to remonstrate against her decision, and referred her to the command of the We have on hand a very large stock of Cloth Caps, just

Hats and Caps made to order C. D. EVERETT & SON,

Some years before, the sacredness of the Sabbath was openly violated by a brisk trade in fish. The pitalities."

Store, and a new roas south or the road of the Sabbath was openly violated by a brisk trade in fish. The pitalities."

Persons coming to attend the !" Training School" would do well to call, as he is well acquainted before the sacredness.

and can give such information as they would require before entering.

E. C. FREEZE. 100 Bris Canada superfine Flour; 200 do. Corn Mesi (ap 11. HALL & FAIRWEATHER.

NEWLY IMPROVED MODEL MELODEONS. deacon, he would take a walk along the wharves of a Sabbath morning to ascertain who broke the laws by traffic on that day. Men swore at him like Sends, fired his dwelling at several different times, and at last "bound themselves with an oath" to kill him. Yet M. A. STEVENS, Agent.

[From George Washbourus Morgan.] NEW YORK, June 17, 1854. Messrs. Mason & Hamlin, Gents :- I have had the pleasure of trying one of you Melodeons this morning. I can strongly recommend them to parties wishing to study the Organ, and can assure you for my own use. I should select one of your make.

Most faithfully yours, GEO. WASHBOURNE MORGAN, Late Organist of St. Ciares, Southwark, the Parish Church of South Hackney, and to the Harmonie Union, Exeter Hall, London.

Sr. John, N. B., March 27, 1855. Mr. Stevens,—Dear Sir.—It is with pleasure I make known to you the opinion of myself and many others, of the MELODEON purchased from you afew months ago. This instrument manufactured by Mason & Hamlin, has given the utmost satisfaction, both in Tone, Touch, and Power, and I do freely, and cheerfully admit it is the best I have ever seen. Since the introduction of this instrument in our Choir Practice we find a great improvement, thereby sustaining the Voice, and procuring a perfect Tone to every

I am dear Sir, yours truly,
R. D. McARTHUR,
Conductor of St. Andrews' Church Choir. MONUMENTS &c.

THE business heretofore carried on by McKIM & CLEAR. THE business heretofore carried on by Mckim & Clear, will hereafter be conducted at the old stand, Germain street, in the name and on account of the Subscriber, who has now on hand a most superior assortment of workmanship in his line, MONUMENTS, TOMB TABLES, MANTILE PIECES, &c. &c., combining beauty of design, correctness of finish, and durability of material.

The Subscriber is determined by will snare no pains.

trouble, or expense, to maintain the fame his work has se-eured throughout the Provinces. Determined to satisfy all TO S unless they give complete satisfaction. He is prepared to hours, and wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of he voice. are endeavoring to build up their inferior fame upon the ruin of his Establishment, and who seem to think wretched workmanship may be palmed off with impunity upon this community, while the members of such firms give neither personal attention nor superintendance to the execution of BRONCHITIS, or itratation of the throat and upper portheir work. Having studied his business in England and Scotland, he has since his commencement of business in St. John, entirely outstript all competitors whose importations is soon relieved. from the United States have been even miserable samples of land of Yankee clap-trap and wooden nutmegs! He desires to defame no man, but as a hard-working Entrush Muchan-til it cures the disease. If taken in season it will not fail to detaine no man, our as a native state management of the thinks himself more deserving patronage than alvens and foreigners, particularly when the latter give their patrons mere Monuments of Mistakes and botches, while he always has given, does now and will hereafter give Markel work chaste and lasting, fitting Monuments for the graves of demands of the graves of dem parted friends, twenty per cent. better, more beautiful and lies were protected from any serious consequences, while more substantial than can elsewhere be obtained.

David C. Parent, Nashwaulksis, near Fredericton, Y. C.; Hugh Kay, Rel River, Dumfries, Y. C .; Israel Atherton, Queensbury, John Hea. Jr., Prince William. Geo. Hammond. Kingelear, Robert Kilburn, Thos. A. Beckwith, Oromoeto, Sunbury; Thos. W. Ebbet, Parish of Gagetown. Geo. W. Miller, Southhampton, Travelling Agent; Thomas Oulton, Westmorland Point, N. B. James D. Archibald, Eastville, Stewinck, Colchester, N. S. The above are Agents for the Subscriber, to whom all

The above are Agents for the constraint orders for him may be given, and which will receive prompt R. A. McKIM. F. W. CLEAR'S Marble Works Establishment . - Union Street-2nd House East of the Golden Ball,

St. John, N. B. REFERENCES: Rev. Wm. Armstrong, James Paterson, The Subscriber respectfully informs his friends in Saint John, and the Public generally through the Provinces, that he has opened a new Marble Cutting Establishment, in the second house East of the Golden Ball, in Union Street, where he is prepared to execute Monuments, Tomb Tables, Head Stones, Centre Tables, &c., in a workmanlike style. A superior Mechanic has been employed to assist in the Ornamental Work. The work produced in this Establishment will not be inferior to that of any other shop in this city.

The Subscriber would therefore solicit a continuance of that attended in Saint in the Ornamental Work. The work produced in this Establishment is superior Mechanic has been employed to assist in the Ornamental Work. The work produced in this Establishment is the Ornamental Work. The work produced in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and noteriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on it is friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unistakeable benefit conferred on its friends. will not be inferior to that of any other shop in this city.

The Subscriber would therefore solicit a continuance of that patronage which was so liberally bestowed on his actual that patronage which was so liberally bestowed on his actual that the Cherry Pectoral does not only as a general thing. count, previous to the dissolution of the Firm of M Kim & but almost invariably cure the malidies for which it Work and Stock warranted. Ten per cent discount employed.

P. W. CLEAR. As time

GREAT SALE OF DRY GOODS at the ALBION HOUSE.—BEARD & VENNING are continuing that great sale of DRY GOODS in which they have been so successfully engaged for seven years past, and which has given universal satisfaction to many thousands in these

The great advantages we offer are these, that while many generally. advertise for a limited period Cheap Sales, we are prepared at all times to supply our numerous customers with GOODS OF THE NEWEST STYLES, and warranted fabries at Lower Prices than any other house advertising 'Cheap Sales,' Great Reductions,' &c. The Stock is replete with every article kept in a first class Dry Goods Establishment. REMOVAL.—Day's Printing Office has been Removed to the Corner of Market and Germain streets, opposite D. & J. Leavitt's Grocery Store, where all orders CLEAR, is this day dissolved by mutual consent; and that CLEAR, is this day dissolved by mutual consent; and that

The Subscribers begs leave to return thanks to their friends who so liberally patronized them since their commencement in business, and would inform the public that they have selected, and engaged the services of the most competent men in the city,—that they are now ready to execute all orders, been related and furnished, and is now the best temperance. which for neatness and durability cannot be surpassed in house in town. There is social worship morning and evening sale and retail. Terms Cash.

on which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax style superior to any Establishment in the Province, and at road, seven miles from the City of Saint John. The Farm prices full twenty per cent less than those usually charged in contains about one hundred and ninety acres, with a large and substantially built House, Barn, Out-house, &c. it fronts on the Kennebekasis Bay, and is well known as the to order on reasonable terms. subscriber's Ship-yard. Also will be sold a quantity of Material for ship-building as it is now in the yard. In connection with the ship-yard will be sold separate or together, as the purchaser may require; 75 per cent of the purchase mother purchaser may require; 75 per cent of the purchase mother purchaser may require to a together, as the purchaser may require to a together, as the purchaser may require to a together, as the purchaser may require to a together together to a together to now offering at 5s. 3d. per yard, very best qualities.

Manch 23

BEARD & VENNING.

GENERAL LEATHER and Finding Store, 25, North side King Street.—J. J. CHRISTIE has received a large and varied assortment of Leather and Shoe Finding of the very best description—per ships "Themis." liner "Middleton," and Nteamers from Boston: All of which will be sold at the lowest Cash prices. Also-Doe Skins for

HAVING PURCHASED from Mr. W. WARWICK, all his stock of Glass and Earthenware, now offers the same for sale, at the lowest cash rates, and solicits a share of same for sale, at the lowest cash rates, and solicits a share of patronage, and inspection of his stock.

Just received per Mary Groton, from Boston—10 casks of Glass Ware, 20 bbls. of Tumblers—very cheap,—20 crates of American Masufactory Earthenware—new article.

Per ship Lampedo, from Liverpool—10 casks of China Ware, 40 crates Earthenware.

In Store—2000 Butter and Water Crocks, 1000 Milk Pans, 100 crates of assorted Earthenware for Country Trade, packed with care,—no breakage.

W. H. HAYWARD.

May 11,—2m Hasting's Building, Water street.

NOTICE.—All persons having any legal demands agains the Estate of John McLean, late of Sussex, deceased, are requested to hand in the same, duly attested within $ months, and all persons indebted to said estate are request ed to make immediate payment. Sussex, K. C., JOHN A. McLEAN,

DUNCAN B. CAMPBELL.

Breesters. April 19, 1859.

For the rapid Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS. BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH. CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

TO CURE A COLD, WITH HEADACHE AND SORE NESS OF THE BODY.—Take the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrap up warm, to sweat during the night.

FOR A COLD AND COUGH, take it in the morning, moon and evening, according to the directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will seem be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when they find it can be so readily cured. Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them off their rest at night, will find by taking the Cherry selves unwilling to forego its use when the necessity for it TO SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS this remedy who may kindly favor him with patronage, he will receive is invaluable, as by its action on the throat and lungs, when no pay until the articles ordered are finished, and not then, taken in small quantities, it removes all hoarseness in a few from the disease. Repeated instances are reported here of patients who have been cured from LIVER COMPLAINTS by this remedy, so many that there can be no quest. a of its healing power, on these diseases. It should be perseveringly taken until the pain in the side and other unpleasant symptoms cease. FOR CONSUMPTION in its earliest stages, it should be taken under the adviser of the stage. taken under the advice of a good Physician if possible, and in every case with careful regard to the printed directions on the bottle. If judiciously used, and the patient is carefully narsed meantime, it will seldom fail to subdue the

For settled CONSUMPTION in its worst form, the Cher ry Pectoral should be given in doses adapted to what the patient sequires and can bear. It always affords some rerelief, and not unfrequently cures those who are considered past all cure.—There are many thousands scattered all over he country, who feel and say they owe their lives and preent health to the Cherry Pectoral

Many years of trial, instead of imparing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually became the best reliance of the af-flieted, from the log-cabin of the American Peasant, to the Palaces of European Kings.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold in St. John by T. Walker & Son, Fellows & Co., Everett & Co., Chaloner & Hunt, do., in Fredericton, in Carleton by J. Cook, and by the Druggists

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS.—FRASER, ENNIS & Co., have on hand a large Stock of CARPETINOS, DRUGGETTS, MORKENS, Hearth Rugs and Door Mats, which are offered at Wholesale Prices, in order to make room for Spring Importations. The Goods are marked in plain figures. A liberal dissount given for CASE.

GEORGE W. DAY. R. A. McKrx is duly authorized to receive and give dis-NEW Brunswick Saddle, Harness, and Collar Charges to the debts due to the said firm. All Accounts are requested to be presented within three months from this Market, and opposite the New Brunswick Hotel.

Dec. 6. 4863.

FRANCIS W. CLEAR. FRANCIS W. CLEAR.

this city.

Also, on hand—A lot of superior English and Domestic manufactured Saddles. Bridles, Cellurs, and Whips, wholeBoston, Oct. 1, 1858. St. John, April 27, 1855. D. W. & J. R. ADAMS.

When the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

The state of the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides, situate on the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides is the same of the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides is the same of the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides is the same of the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides is the same of the Halifax

On which the Subscriber resides is the same of the sam

N. E .- Furniture, Mattrasses, Curtains Carpets, &c, made the purchaser may require; 75 per cent of the purchase money may remain on the property for a term of years to suit the convenience of the purchaser. Possession given immediately. Enquire of C. W. STOCKTON, Esq., St. John, or to BENJAMÍN APPLEBY.

Hampton, King's County. May 8.

CARPETS AND RUGS!—Now open for sale at the Dutch Carpets, with Rugs to match.

The balance of Stock of Patent Tapestry Carpets, we are now offering at 5s. 3d. per yard, very best qualities.

Eastern side of the River, in the Parish of Kingston, containing One Hundred Acres, with a Dwelling House, two Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in the Parish of Kingston, containing One Hundred Acres, with a Dwelling House, two Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in Barns, and cuts about Fifteen Tons of Hay. Also,—That calculate lot of Land on the Western side of the River, in the Parish of Greenwich, about one mile and a half from Oak Point, with a good House, and Shop attacked.

The Subscriber also offers for sale one Horse, one Cow, seeme Sneep, Sleds, Waggons, Ploughs, and other Farming Oak Point, with a good House, and Shop attacked.

The Subscriber also offers for sale one Horse, one Cow, seeme Sneep, Sleds, Waggons, Ploughs, and other Farming Oak Point, with a good House, and Shop attacked.

The Subscriber also offers for sale one Horse, on

SUPERIOR BOTANIC MEDICINES.—The fol-D lowing superior Medicines are for sale, wholesale or re-tail, at the office of the Religious Intelligencer, and at the store of Messrs. Hannah & Underhill :-Wilson's Compound Sarsaparilla, Wilson's Dysentary Syrup,

Wilson's Wild Cherry Bitters, Wilson's Nenropathic Drops, Wilson's Composition Powders,

Cayenne Pepper, in small and large tin cans, for fami-ly use. Doc. 8th, 1854. YEW SPRING GOODS,-FRASER, ENNIS, & Co. have

New Spring Stock, which has been personally selected in New Spring Stock, which has been personally selected in the best markets, and purchased on the most advantageous terms. No trouble or expense has been spared in order to procure the newest and most beautiful styles in every description of Fancy Goods. Particularly in Ladies' Dress Materials; Shawis, Capes, Parasols, Bonnets, Ribbons, Sewed Work, Veils.

The stock of House Furnishing Goods is large and varied, and purchasers will find it to their advantage to examine and judge for themselves.

Wholesale Department. The stock of Staple land Fancy Goods in this department will be found as well assorted as that of any house in the trade—the goods or cheep, and the terms or bbevoil.

May 11.

King street, opposite St. John Hotel.

King street, opposite St. John Hotel. May 11.

his know lying wi ing brou original tian instr ly; but i tunity w by comn the glori of Jesus ing able

Testame book and sian tong and he h hundreds at Plymo has all e he thoug repose w whereve they will of the pe much im by this S

ers. If they coul old editio the Sclav obsolete,