By shear seel and sheer cour-age, Ennisk liender and Scat were winning their desperate way right through the enemy's squad-rons, and already gray horses and red coats had appeared right at the rear of the second mass, when, with irresistable force, like one b. It from a bow, the 1st Royals, the 4th Dragoon Guards, and the 5th Dragoon Guards, rished at the remants of the 5th Dragoon Guards, rished at the remants of the 5th Dragoon Guirds, rushed at the remains of the first line of ike enemy, went through it as though it were made of pasteboard, and dashing on the second body of Russians, as they were still disordered by the torrible assult of the Grays and their companions, put them to utter route. This Russian horse, in less than five minutes after it met our dragoons was flying with all its speed before a farce certainly not half its strength. A cheer burst forth from every lip—in the enhusian offi-cers and men took off their caps and shouled with delight-and thus keeping up the scenic character Much leening appears to have been excited by two named Sulis, and a Mr. Hardwicke. All the the conduct of the Turks. Even suspicions of unfortunate persons belonging to Smith's Cove and of their position, they clapped their hands again and again. Lord Ragian at once despatched Lieutenant Curzon, Aide-de-Camp, to convey his congratulations to Brigadier-General Scarlett, and to thority that the Pasha in command of the Turkish mourn their sudden beieavement. Captain Rice POULTRY, Clickens, per pair, say, " Well done !" The gallant old officer's face beamed with pleasure when he received the message :- " I beg to thank his lordship very sincere-! ly," was his reply.
