

DOMESTIC.

The Hon. John Montgomery, member for Resignation, has been appointed to the office of Surveyor General, and also a member of the Executive Council. Mr. Solomon Denton to be Inspector of Schools for the County of York, in the room of Mr. John Davidson, resigned.

Fire.—Between one and two o'clock on Friday morning, a fire broke out near Reed's Point, in a small house occupied by J. Reed, a blacksmith, which communicated to the two-story house on either side, occupied by Mr. J. Anderson and Mr. J. S. Garlick, as sailor lodging houses, which were greatly injured, all the upper portions being destroyed.

Shocking Accident.—We learn by telegraph from Digby, that a young woman, named Poppoon, in Lower Granville, on Monday last, while assisting her husband in stowing hay, fell from the mow upon the pitchfork in his hand, which penetrated her heart causing instant death. She had been married only a fortnight previously. —Yarmouth Herald.

A Branch Bible Society was formed at Gagetown on Tuesday evening last. Over ten pounds was subscribed to its funds at once.

On Friday last a man named Robert Reed was killed at the Lancaster Mills. Muesnash, by a quantity of rubbish falling upon him. His death was instantaneous.

Sudden Death.—A man by the name of Dunnivan, fell yesterday afternoon from the roof of a building, situated near the Marsh Bridge, and was so much injured by the fall that he died almost instantly.

PERMANENT CURES in all affections of the throat and lungs are constantly being made by Vitar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Great as is its reputation, its words are verified. Many physicians speak of it in the highest terms.

THE REV. MR. CHURCHILL.—This gentleman, after a residence of four years in this city, as pastor of the Wesleyan Church, departed for Halifax, with his family on Tuesday last, in accordance with his appointment as Book Steward to the Conference, and Chairman of the Halifax district. No minister of religion has ever officiated in Frederick with greater zeal and more commanding talents than those of Mr. Churchill, and none ever received, not only from this own congregation, but from all other denominations, a larger share of Christian consideration and esteem. It was impossible to know without respecting him, for the spirit of his Divine Master appeared on all occasions to support him in his work and endear him to the hearts of the people. We believe there are many who will join us in the opinion that it would be hard to find the Christian Minister and the English gentleman better exemplified than in the life and manner of Mr. Churchill. —Fredericton Reporter.

APPALLING!—The Ohio Gazette contains the following letter respecting the murder of Laban Parker from Cleveland, Ohio, at Blue Spring, in Kansas. Three persons append their names to the letter and say:—

"Yesterday morning we were going to Tecumseh, but when about eleven miles from that place, we were appalled by the sight of the body of a murdered man tied firmly to a tree by the roadside. He was tied with his back to the tree, with his hands and feet partially around it. He had been shot about the left eye with, as we suppose, a rifle ball. A huge hunting knife was sticking in his breast. It had been driven clear through him and the point was two or three inches in the tree. He was evidently murdered yesterday or the day before. There was a toadstool tied to the knife-handle, on which the following inscription was written, 'Let all those who are going to vote against slavery in Kansas, take warning!'"

EUROPE.

Four Days Later from Europe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.

The Atlantic arrived last night. The English news is unimportant. Parliament would adjourn about 30th.

From Spain there are contradictory reports, but it appears the insurrection had been put down in Madrid, with the loss of 200 killed. In other parts of the country the insurgents are making headway.

MARKETS.

MONEY.—The London Money Market was unchanged.

Breadstuffs were generally firm; the better grades of flour exhibit a slight improvement, but lower grades had a declining tendency. In wheat, the better grades had advanced one penny, while other descriptions were about two pence per bushel lower. Corn was firm, but transactions small. Other markets unchanged.

The weather was unsettled.

SHIP NEWS.—Arrived at Liverpool, 18th, Triad; at Dublin, Florida, hence.

ONE HUNDRED AND TEN LIVES LOST.—An explosion occurred on Tuesday last, in the collieries of Messrs. Insole and Co., at Cymmer, situated in the Rhondda Valley, about 11 miles above Cardiff, which has produced consequences hitherto unparalleled in the melancholy history of colliery accidents in South Wales. The fearful occurrence took place between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning, and at that time it is supposed that there were about 150 men at work in the pit, of whom only 15 have been got out alive. Up to 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, no less than 110 bodies had been brought out. The explosion of fire damp was not of an extensive character, but it was sufficient to destroy the means of ventilation, and to fill the extensive workings with choke damp, which suffocated those who were unable to reach the shaft before they were overpowered. The dismay caused by this dreadful occurrence may be well imagined, as every family in the vicinity of the works was bereaved of some member. The whole of the male members of a dissenting chapel class at hand are numbered among the dead. Many years have elapsed since any accident of a very serious nature has occurred in this valley, which is celebrated for its coking coal, and from which the Great Western Railway derives the supply for its locomotive power. The last explosion of a sweeping character was one in 1853, at the Middle Dyffryn Colliery, near Aberdare, when 64 men were killed. At present, of course, no cause can be assigned for the explosion, but the barometer at the time was falling, a circumstance which has attended every former occurrence of the kind, and which should impose on the overlookers extra caution whenever atmospheric alterations may be expected.

A Voice from Scotland!

The following article we copy from the Glasgow Christian News of July 5th; a paper conducted with great ability and candor:

PROHIBITION IN NEW BRUNSWICK.—In present circumstances it would be rash to conclude, that either Great Britain and Ireland, or the Colonies, are to derive any important advantage from the operation of a prohibitory liquor law in the colony of New Brunswick. That measure, sanctioned by the home Government, has been in legal operation for upwards of six months; but, like our Mackenzie law, in several counties and burghs, there has been small effort to enforce the law, and opposition has gathered strength; the highest authority in the colony strongly dislikes it, and has at last taken measures with a view to obtain its repeal by the Provincial Legislature. The Hon. Manners Sutton, governor, wished to dissolve the House of Assembly, and appeal to the people by a new election, with a view to secure the repeal of the Prohibitory Liquor Law. As it had been in operation but a few months, the Ministry, or Executive Council, earnestly dissuaded his Excellency against such a measure; but he persisted; and the new House will be elected and meet in autumn, with what result it is impossible yet to say. But the Ministry, when overborne by this little despot, resigned—resigned to a man; and he has had another Executive Council formed from those known to be opposed to the prohibitory law. Thus, to gratify this British Czar, the country is to be subjected to the trouble and expense of an election, two years before the time, that he may have it in his power by a show of legislation to abolish the law that received the sign manual of Victoria, Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, and the dependencies thereof. What effect this state of things has had on my lords and gentlemen of Downing Street, is not at present known to us. But if they attach value to constitutional law, they will certainly supersede this presumptuous governor, and make him feel that the royal power which made him what he is can instantly 'unfrock him,' as Queen Elizabeth said to the Bishop of Ely. He deserves no sympathy. Whether the prohibitory law is to his taste or not, he is there to see it executed; and in acting thus unconstitutionally he well deserves to be expelled from New Brunswick, or at least to be recalled by Her Majesty.

The celebrated Mount of Olives, near Jerusalem, has been purchased by a Madame Polack, the widow of a wealthy banker of the Hebrew persuasion at Königsberg, Prussia. This lady intends to beautify the place and improve the whole neighborhood, at her sole expense. The first thing she had done was to plant the whole area with a grove of olive-trees, and thus restore it to the original state from which it derives its name.

LONDON, 28th.—The Bishop of Arras, according to the Paris correspondent of the Times, intends visiting England and Ireland with a view to exciting sympathy amongst the Roman Catholic Prelacy in behalf of the maintenance of the Pope's temporal power. The Abbe Michon, a Catholic priest of Paris, has published a pamphlet to demonstrate that the Pope ought to renounce all secular authority and renounce to Jerusalem temple to reside over the Christian church.

PROTESTANTISM IN FRANCE.—A striking example of the manner in which Protestantism has been gaining ground in the last twenty years in France is seen in the Church at Havre, where, from 500 souls, the Protestants have increased to 3,000, to which must be added a moving population of 1,000 persons at least. Instead of one school frequented by 100 children, there are now four, with more than 400 children. Out of 320 students at the college of the town, eighty are Protestants. The two churches have become insufficient, and a third is about to be constructed to contain two thousand sittings; the Municipal Council has voted a gift of 100,000 francs toward the expense of the edifice. In Marseilles the Protestant church attendance number 5,000. And in several of the other departments, where a few years ago the Reformed religion was unknown there are now a number of flourishing churches, all composed of seceders from the Church of Rome.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

Mr. Henry Steeves of Coverdale A. Co., departed this life June 25th, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. He was the eldest son of Mr. Christian Steeves, a native of Germany, one of the first settlers on the river Penobscot; and a devout soldier of the cross. He often travelled long distances without roads in summer, and in the winter on snow shoes, to preach the gospel, nor was his labour in vain. He had the happiness to see a number of his family brought to the knowledge of the truth. His son Henry was born in Moncton in 1780; was made the subject of divine grace in the thirty-seventh year of his age, followed the Saviour in the redemptive of baptism, and for a time devoted himself to the work of preaching. He held the office of Deacon in the first Church in Salisbury. He was a lover of truth, and he often remarked upon his death bed, that the gospel that supported his soul in the time of temptation and conflict, had loved for forty years. His constitution being of remarkable strength, disease had the greater work to perform; his sufferings were of course in the same ratio. This lasted for about six months, yet through the waters they did not overflow him, nor the flames kindle upon him. He delighted much in the visits of the servants and people of God, and it was comforting to see the faith and hope of one so long years in those trying circumstances—so calm and so resigned to the Hand of God. He was sensible to the last, and his aged and very afflicted widow having been deprived of her sight for nearly 30 years, and her sons and daughters—none but as those without hope. "Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection; on such the second death hath no power."

MORE HOME TESTIMONY.

Boston, April 18, 1852, No. 48 Union Street.
MR. SETS W. FOWLER—DEAR SIR:—A sense of gratitude prompts me to make the following statement, which is at your disposal. Your invaluable medicine, I can truly say, has literally snatched me from the grave. Last July, I was attacked by a sudden cold, which resulted in a very severe cough, with violent pains in the side and chest. From that time, I began to waste away, notwithstanding the use of the most respectable in Boston, my friends became so much reduced, that my friends frankly told me that I must die. At this time, I heard of WISTAN'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY, and immediately sent for a bottle. The effect produced was indeed wonderful. My physician, Mr. Candlish, said, "I have never known a case like yours, and I am glad to hear that you are recovered." I have previously told me that a cure was hopeless, and I am now able to tell you that I have taken. He examined the Balm, and advised me to continue the use of it, since which time I have continued to improve daily, and the same physician who had given me up, told me, a few days since, that I might yet live many years.

Respectfully,
MARY ROWE.
We can cheerfully testify to the truth of the above statement, Mrs. Rowe having been in our family for some months past.

A vernal dower perfume the morn,
But 'twas in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,
Thus swiftly fled its life away.

It died before its infant soul
Had ever burned with wrong desires—
Had ever spurned at Heaven's control,
Or ever quenched its sacred fires.

It died to sin; it died to care;
But for a moment felt the rod;
Rising on the viewless air,
Spreads its light wings, and soared to God.
