BY THOMAS EAFFLES, D. D.

Gan of seasons, thee we own, Seated on thy gracious throne: At thy foots ool, we appear, Thus to hail the new-born year-All its sorrow-all its joy-See es that g'adden or annoy; All a ike shall welcome be: All a ike are sen: by thee.

Thou art infinitely good, When by us least understood; All thy dealings are in love. E'n when mest they painful prove ; All thy discipli e is wise, Faithful when thy dost chastize : While thine erring children's smart Moves the pity of thy leart.

" Fathers of our fi-sh" there were, And we own'd the r tender care-Revere ced the r paternal yoke -Bow'd to their chastising str. ke; Shall we not much rather be In subjection, Lord, to thee ?-Blow to thy mo e wise behest-With thy richer blessing-blest!

Checler'd is the path of life; Seenes of tumult and of strife-Scene- of sorrow, toil and care; Every pilgrim has his share but if thou art Friend and Guide, Nau_ht but good can e er betide; Every grief shall mercy bring; Goodness out of ev I spring.

Then, let troubles spread around, War and pestilence abound -Hush'd, the lowing of the kine-Blighted, withered, be the vine-Labor of the olive cease loe s and lerds no more incre se-I'll ad re thy chastening rod; Still my trust shall be in God!

Earthly good I may resign, Suffer loss, no: yet repine ; Happy, hough my lot should be if hat the world cals poverty, If I heavenly treasure have, A h use secure beyond the grave, Flea ures that can never p Il, God, my portion and my all!

Betrospect of a Year.

BY REV. JOHN NEWTON.

Time by moments steal away First tile hour and then the day! Small the daily loss appears, Yet it soon amounts to years : Thus an ther year is fi wn, And is now no more our own. (though it b ought or promised good,) Than the years before the flood. But each year, let none forget, Finds and leaves us deep in debt ; Favors from the lord received, Sins that have the Spirit grieved, Mark'd by God's unercing hand, In his book ree rded stand: Who can tell the vast amount, Placed to each, in our secount? We have nothing, Lord, to pay, Take. O take our guilt away: Se f-condemned, on thee we call, Freely. Lord, forgive us all. If e e see another year, May we spend it in thy fear ; All its days devo e to thee, Living for eternity.

If you have a humor it has to start. There are no ifs nor ands about it, suiting some cases, but not yours. He has peddled over a thousand bo tles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. He gave it to children a year old; to old. people of sixty; and has seen poor, puny looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored toperfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to a sick headache ona bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have cen costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound, it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you-can, and enough of it.
