FEARFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT AND DREADFUL LOSS OF LIFE.—Early this morning the community was startled by a rumor that a terrible accident had occurred on the North Pennsylvania Railroad by a collision between two trains, causing a dreadful destruction of life, and the wreck of one train of cars. The accounts were conflicting, and for that reason unreliable. The prevalent report, however, was that an excursion train, containing five or six hundred persons—chiefly scholars and teachers of St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church, in Kensington—left the Master-street depot at 5 o'clock, destined to Fort Washington, 14½ miles from the city, where a picnic was to be held for the school.

The train was a very long one and very heavy, causing it to proceed with some difficulty and at a reduced speed. This put the cars behind time, and as the regular down train was expected, H. Hoppel, the Conductor, endeavored, when approaching the point for which he was running, to increase speed, to make up for lost time, and avoid meeting the downward train. The latter had started from Garywood at 6 o'clock, and arrived at Camp Hill at 15 or 20 minutes past 6. Not finding the excursion train at this point, Mr. Vanstavern, the Conductor, resolved to wait for it, but while standing near a curve in the road, the uptrain came forward at a fearful gait and before it could be avoided, a tremendous collision and crash took place. Little injury was done to the stationary cars, but the other train, coming headlong on at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour, was crushed and wrecked. The three foremost cars were literally shattered into splinters, and their passengers mingled suddenly in mass of dead, dying, and terribly lacerated bodies. Other cars took fire and were burned up, though nearly if not all their inmates are reported to have escaped unhurt. Each car held about fifty persons, and it was estimated at the moment of the disaster that about fifty or sixty people were killed.

The Depot at Cohocksink.—About 10 o'clock, the scene at the Cohocksink Depot was one of indescribable confusion and excitement. Besides the large crowd of persons gathered by the news, there were many women hurrying from place to place in frantic alarm and apprehension, screaming in the agony of their fears, and inquiring for their children. Every person who came down the road from the direction of the accident was surrounded by the mob, and hundreds of eager voices put many questions respecting the occurrence.

About 11 o'clock a train arrived at the depot, with 42 bodies on board. The bodies of the unfortunate children were horribly mangled, and presented a most revolting and heart-rending spectacle. It is supposed that the number of the dead will reach from 100 to 150, but we trust that this will prove an exaggeration. In the same train that brought the bodies of the dead, were many of the children who escaped uninjured. A shout of joy greeted them as they came from the cars, and many a mother clasped her recovered little ones in her arms, and thanked God for their safety. When the car started with the physicians, hundreds of persons crowded into it; they would listen to no reasoning nor advice, being rendered frantic with apprehension and alarm. There was the strongest indignation expressed against the conductor, but withal justice it is impossible to say, as in the wild excitement which exists nothing reliable can be learned in regard to the matter.

In one car eleven persons, consisting of men, women and children, were burned to death—names not ascertained. They were pinned fast in the wreck, and were surrounded by the flames. Several bodies, terribly mutilated, were recovered from under the engine and tender. The ashes of a child were found in the cinderpan.

Six other bodies were taken from among the embers of the burning cars.—Philadelphia Evening Journal, 17th.

THE MORMONS AT SALT LAKE.—The Los Angeles Star makes the following extract from a letter dated Great Salt Lake City, April 28, 1856. "Our Conference is over, and nearly all of the three hundred Missionaries called at it are now on their way to their respective fields of labor. It is most astonishing to see with what alacrity they have prepared themselves for their journey. Many of the richest men in the Territory have been appointed and have responded. Merchants have sold out their large stock of goods to other merchants remaining, at St. Louis prices, adding freight, would up their business, and are now on their way two hundred miles, in the short space of two weeks. Many others have sold their property at a very great sacrifice, so as to get on their journey before four weeks would elapse after their appointment.

ORDINATION AT SHUTESBURY.—A council was convened at Shutesbury, July 8th, to ordain Mr. G. W. Ryan as pastor of the Baptist church in that place. Rev. N. B. Jones, of Prescott, was chosen Moderator, and Rev. J. Shepherdson, of Petersham, Clerk. After a highly satisfactory examination of the candidate, it was unanimously voted to proceed to his ordination, and the following services were performed, viz: Invocation, Rev. W. L. Colburn, of Amherst; Reading Scriptures, Rev. E. S. Hill, of North Belchertown; Introductory Prayer, Rev. N. B. Jones; Sermon, Rev. H. Fittz, of Middleton; Ordaining Prayer, Rev. E. Andrews, of Montague; Charge, Rev. N. B. Jones, of Prescott; Hand of Fellowship, Rev. J. Shepherdson, of Petersham; Address to Church and Congregation, Rev. D. M. Crane, of North Hampton; Concluding Prayer, Rev. W. W. Ames, of Greenfield; Benediction by the Pastor.

The services were all of an interesting character. The sermon founded upon Matt. 20:7, was impressive and timely, designed to call out the servants of the Lord, and encourage them in their work. May God bless both pastor and people, and make their relation of long continuance.—Watchman and Reflector.

Oxygenated Bitters. This peculiar medicine astonishes every sufferer from Dyspepsia, and those who have tried a thousand remedies in vain, will never regret a trial of it. A few doses will give proof of its curative power.

One Week later from Europe:

NEW YORK, July 23d.
The steamer Persia has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 12th July.
MARKETS.—Breadstuffs advanced; Flour six pence to one shilling; Wheat two pence, Corn six pence to one shilling per quarter, with restricted business. Consols 95½ to 95½. Little change in other markets.
No news of importance.

(From late English Papers.)
ANOTHER WAR AT THE CAPE.—We have reason to believe that information has been recently received from the Cape of Good Hope, which savours strongly of another war in that colony. The Caffers are again becoming discontented, and the Home Government should lose no time in despatching an additional strong military force to keep these rogues in check.—United Service Gazette.

The Daily News says: It is with extreme gratification that we are enabled to announce the appointment of Sir William Williams, as Commandant at Woolwich—General Winars having resigned. In this prompt recognition of General Williams' past services, and in this just anxiety to bring to bear on Woolwich garrison those military virtues which he so conspicuously at Kars, Lord Hardinge is, we are bound to say, worthily following up that system of improvement which Lord Panmure has commenced in our great arsenal.

Sir William Williams and Sir Colin Campbell are the great lions of the day. The former was honored with a grand Banquet by the Army and Navy Club; the latter has shared some splendid festivities and honors in Glasgow.

Much anxiety is felt by the friends and well-wishers of the present French Government in consequence of the existence of Secret Societies, Louis Napoleon cannot feel very secure on the throne while the press is muzzled, and every channel for free discussion effectually closed.

AUSTRIAN GOLD.—At the latest dates received in England from Melbourne, March 18, the gold fields of Australia were yielding more largely than ever—at the rate of nearly £200,000,000 per annum, and the produce of three months of 1856, is nearly double that of the corresponding three months of 1855, being close upon 700,000 ounces.

OBITUARY.

Died, at Blisville, Sunbury County, on the 15th inst., Mrs. Susanah, relict of the late Clapman Smith, Esq., in the 84th year of her age, leaving eight surviving sons and two daughters, with a large number of grand and great-grand children. Mrs. Smith was born at the Bay Chaleur, to which her parents had emigrated from London; they removed to the St. John River when she was about four years old. Her father was a truly pious and devoted disciple of Christ, and for many years sustained the public worship of God. At a very early age Mrs. Smith became interested for the salvation of her soul, and experienced the saving knowledge of Christ while very young. When seventeen years of age she was married to Mr. Smith, by whom she had fifteen children; all one died in infancy, another in early years; all of the rest professed faith in the Saviour. During her whole life she manifested the greatest attachment to the cause of God. She never suffered the family altar to be thrown down in her house; she was a decided reprobator of sin, yet affectionate in all her relations; her piety was practically true, that she dealt her bread to the hungry, she brought the poor that was cast out to her house, and when she saw the naked she covered them; in a word, she was a succor of many, and a mother in Israel. During the last thirteen years she has been a widow, waiting for the time of her departure. During the last two or three years her faculties failed so far that at times she did not recollect her own friends, even her own children were sometimes forgotten by her, but at no period did she forget her Saviour. The mention of His name seemed to awaken her faculties, and often, very often, did she speak of home, and long to be there. Her expiring words were that she had "a blessed inheritance, and loved her Jesus." Her end was truly that of the righteous, after a long life of constancy and service in the cause of the Redeemer. She departed to be forever with the Lord, having fought the good fight, and kept the faith, with all the rest of the redeemed, to him who sets upon the throne, and unto the Lamb forever.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
Proofs of the great superiority of Wistar's Balsam pour in from all parts of the country.

OXFORD, New Haven Co., Conn., Jan. 4.
Dear Sir:—Having witnessed the effects of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, in the case of one of my neighbors, who has been for several years seriously afflicted with the pleuritic, general pulmonary weakness, bleeding of the lungs, etc., I have been induced to ask you to send me some of the medicine. My neighbor, referred to above, lately had a violent attack of bleeding at the lungs, and distress in breathing. He tried a bottle of the Wild Cherry, which has produced a most salutary and favorable effect. At this instance, and several others laboring under like complaints, I have been induced to make this request. By attending to the above mentioned, you will oblige the afflicted, and also me.

WORMS! WORMS!
Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year, the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take great pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. McLean. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. McLean's Celebrated Vermifuge, manufactured by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. McLean's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

DEATHS.

At Johnston, on July 7th, of consumption, Samuel Thorne, second son of Elder Charles Thorne, aged 31 years, leaving a widow and two children to mourn their loss.
At Canning, of inflammation of the brain, after only three weeks sickness, aged 29 years, Louis B. third daughter of Henry T. Tyndwell.
At Jacktown, on the 3d inst., after a lingering illness of two years and a half, which he bore with Christian fortitude, Mr. Henry Sharp, in the 62d year of his age, leaving a wife and eight children, and leaving the loss of an affectionate husband and kind parent. He was confined to his bed during the most of his sickness, yet he was perfectly resigned to his heavenly Father's will. He gave himself up to the struggle without a murmuring word, and he left the world with a glowing hope and full assurance of entering into that rest which is prepared for the faithful and humble followers of the Lord Jesus Christ.
Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord; yes, saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors, and their deeds do follow them.
Alm be his sleep, as the whisper of even, When the hands have been clasped, and the knees bent in prayer.
He has chanted his hymn at the portal of heaven, And is now praising God, whom he loved here so dear.
At Wakefield, on the 8th inst., after a lingering illness of four years and three months, of Consumption, which she bore with patience and resignation to the Divine Will, Mary A., second daughter of Mr. Elijah Kallad, aged 73 years.
We have laid them in the silent grave, In sadness and in gloom, And the winds, as they wander by, Are wailing around their tomb.
O! little thought we, ye years ago, Our careless happy band, So soon would yield its purest gem To Death's unerring hand.
Low in the green graveyard there Lies many a loved one now, And death has placed his signet on Full many a fair young brow.
And yet we will not weep for thee, Nor mourn that thou art gone, For, O! it were not hard to find, When all life had flown down:
Thy voice is hushed forever now, The light fled from thine eye, Nor thought thou hast early learned,—To hope, despair,—then die.
In brighter worlds thy soul will live, Where sorrows never come: God grant that we may meet again, In that eternal home!

On the 2d inst. in upper Gloucester, State of Maine, Ebenezer Hathaway, Esq., formerly of this Province, aged 84 years.
