THE JUDGMENT.

" Day of wrath ! O day of mourning ! see once more the Cross returning. Heav'n and earth in ashes burning !

" O what fear man's bosom rendeth. When from Heav'n the Judge descendeth, On whose sentence all dependeth !

" Wondrous sound the trumpet flugeth, Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth, All before the throne it bringeth.

" Death is struck, and nature quaking. All creation is awaking ; To its Judge an answer making !

" Lo, the Book, exactly worded ! Wherein all hath been recorded ; Thence shall judgment be awarded.

"What shall I. frail man, be pleading ? Who for me be interceding ? When the just are mercy needing.

" Righteous Judge of retribution, Grant thy gift of absolution, Ere that reck'ning day's conclusion ?

" Guilty, now I pour my moaning ; All my shame with anguish owning ; Spare, O God, thy suppliant groaning ?

" Thou the sinful woman savest. Thou, the dying thief forgavest; And to me a hope vouchsafest ?

"Worthless are my pravers and sighing, Yet good Lord, in grace complying, Rescue me from fires undying !

" Low I kneel, with heart-submission, ee, like ashes, my contrition-Help me in my last condition.

" Ah ! that day of tears and mourning ! From the dust of earth returning. Man for judgment must prepare him ;---Spare, U God, in mercy spare him ! Lord, who didst our souls redeem, Grant a blessed requiem. Amen
