content to so are your friends, and I will tell you what nevolent a are." Judged by this standard, no one conscientiously put down the theatre ong the respectabilities, or even the de-acies of life. We need not discuss the estion how far the drama is essentially, of own nature, demoralizing in its influence, how far the scorn by the "Saints" of the e has made it the especial delight of the ners. The fact stands—which is all we e to do with at present—that the acted ma is neither virtuous in itself nor repu-
le in its associations.
The more respectable patrons of the thee boast of a reform in its conduct, which menced with the management of Macdy in London, and has been partially car-would fain believe, by public opinion, are are theatrical managers who claim the tronage of a Christian community, through

The drama in America, from its inaptitude d rudeness, does not attract the taste of the ined; and from its grossness positively rels the sentiment of the moral. Its influce is confined to corrupting the inexpericed, or fixing the habits of the vicious.
ntirely a foreign thing in its nature and nagement, the so-called American drama as never touched the national sympathy, and Revival Intelligence.

Douglass.

Elder J. Perry writes to us from Douglass on Monday last as follows:—

"Believing that it will be interesting to many of the readers of the "Intelligencer" to hear of the prosperity of Zion in this place, I therefore send you the subjoined facts. I engaged to labour with the church here four months ago; they were then in a low scattered state. And although I have only preached half the time to them, yet in answer to prayer, God has poured out his spirit, and watered the word sown; the church has become re-engaged, backsliders have been reclaimed, and a deep work is going on among those outside of the church. Eight were baptized on the profession of their faith on last Sabbath, a general movement is among the people, and others are expected to put on Christ in this ordinance soon.

I wish to notify the churches in Johnson that I shall not be able to fill my next appointments with them in consequence of the revival here, but shall return to them as soon as possible. I request an interest in the prayers of all God's people."

Dover.

A letter from Brother R. Dobson informs us that Elder G. A. Hartly was labouring in Dover with success, the remaining members of the church in that place were revived, and several conversions took place. One had been baptized, and others were expected to be immediately.

Queensbury.

A letter received from Elder J. Hamilton a few weeks since informs us that a number of persons had professed religion and were baptized on his field of labor. A new church had also been organized, and a further prospect of good existed. Elder Kinghorn had been with him a portion of the time.

Kingsclear.

The new meeting house at Kingsclear is to be opened on Sabbath next. Elder Hamilton is the pastor of the church there. Elders Gunter, Perry, and Kinghorn, are requested to attend the dedication. We shall not be able to be present.

Answer to Inquiry.

There is no "Mr. Rand or Brand," a minister in our denomination; neither do we know of any minster of either of these names, except Mr. Rand, the Indian missionary in Nova Scotia, who we believe was never a General Baptist.

ORDINATION.—Brother W. M. Knollin will be set apart to the work of the Ministry by the laying on of hands on Monday next in the Meeting house at Jone's Creek. Services to commence at 2 o'clock, P. M.

The following are the names of the members of the Assembly as they voted on the Want of Confidence motion on Monday last:

For the Motion.—Messrs. Fisher, Hatheway, Smith, Gilbert, Gilmour, McAdam, Ferris, W. E. Perley, C. Perley, Tapley, Connel, Mitchell, Johnston, Sutton, McNaughton, Lewis, McLelan, Harding, Tibbets, Watters—20.

Against it.—Messrs. McPherson, Allen, Gray, Wilmot, McPhelim, Montgomery, Godard, Botsford, Landry, McMonegal, Street, Z. Earl, Kerr, Desbrisay, J. Earl, Boyd, Scovil, Lawrence, Barberie, Read—20.

☞ No business was done by the House of Assembly on Wednesday, on account of it being Ash Wednesday.

POLICE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 25.

ATTEMPT TO HORSEWHIP AN EDITOR.

Mr. Richard Simonds appeared to answer the complaint of Mr. Bellingham, (Editor of the Leader) for an assault committed in his office on Tuesday morning.

It appeared from the evidence that Mr. Simonds entered the Leader office, with the benign intention of horsewhipping the Editor, but on attempting to put said intention into execution was speedily overpowered (by our Sub and not a dozen men as insinuated by Mr. Thompson, who appeared as counsel for Mr. Simonds,) had his whip taken from him, and would have been ignominiously expelled but for the intervention of Mr. Bellingham. Mr. Thompson pleaded provocation in mitigation of the offence. The worthy magistrate delivered the law as follows—"Had the assault occurred in the street HE SHOULD HAVE THOUGHT LESS OF IT—IT WAS WHAT ANY SPIRITED YOUNG MAN WOULD DO—but to seek him out in his own office was an aggravation, and he should therefore inflict the full penalty of £5—but ordered the whip given to the Police by Mr. Bellingham to be restored to Mr. Simonds.

We now know the Law on the subject and must endeavor to protect ourselves.

The morals anounced by our Police Magistrate in his judiceal capacity in the above case of an attempt to horsewhip an Editor are reprehensible in the extreme, and should be indignantly rebuked by every friend of law and order. The utterance of a sentance like that in CAPITALS is not only unworthy of, but utterly disgraceful to a guardian of the public peace. Truly the state of our city will be unenviable when street assault will be regarded as merely the effusions of "SPIRITED YOUNG MEN."

NOVA SCOTIA.

A new Government has been formed in Nova Scotia, composed of the following persons:—

Attorney General	Johnston.
Solicitor General	Wilkins.
Provincial Secretary	Dr. Tupper.
Financial Secretary	Marshall.
Receiver General	S. Brown.
MEMBERS OF COUNCIL WITHOUT OFFICE.	McKinnon.
	M. Tobin.
	C. J. Campbell.
	John Campbell.

James McNab is reported Chairman of the Railway Board.

CORNWALLIS.—A Young Men's Christian Association has been formed in Cornwallis, N. S. on the model of the Halifax one. We rejoice at this; for no institutions can be more useful for rubbing off denominational asperities, and removing sectarian dislikes; and never was there a time when there was greater need for cultivating brotherly affection between all who profess the doctrines of the Reformation.—*Pres. EUROPEAN NEWS.

One week later from Great Britain.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23d, 1857.

Africa (qu. Asia) arrived yesterday. Parliament met on the 3d. The Queen in her speech announced that negotiations were in progress between England, the United States, and Honduras, relative to Central America, which it was hoped would remove all difficulties. The wars with China and Persia, and the affairs of the Hudson Bay Co. had been discussed in Parliamant.

Mr. Dallas had given a banquet to Lord Napier, the newly appointed Minister to the United States.

At Liverpool, breadstuffs were more active, with a slight advance in price except on low qualities of wheat. Provisions more buoyant. Pork and lard higher.

At Florence, the scene of so much persecution under color of law, there is an evangelical church of one hundred and twenty-five members, which is receiving constant additions. Thousands of the people there are reading the Scriptures with increasing earnestness. The government of the arch duke Leopoldo is obliged to wink at this, for fear of the intervention of the British Cabinet in case persecution is renewed. One accused person, who is at large on bail, asked the public prosecutor why his case was not brought on for trial.

"Oh!" said the functionary, "you have too big dogs to bark for you!" The Italian Committee at Geneva is getting out an edition of ten thousand of Diodati's Italian Bible, and they will know by what means they can circulate them through the Peninsula. The Waldenses are soon to have a press at La Tour, having never till recent times been permitted to have the use of that powerful engine.

Sir Robert Peel, who has lately been making foolish exhibitions of himself is to be dismissed from the Cabinet shortly.

Correspondence

Canada Correspondence.

MONTREAL, C. E., Feb. 16, 1857.

MR. EDITOR,—The week just closed has been full of interest to a large number of persons, on account of its probable bearing upon the future welfare of Canada.

I allude to the Sabbath School Convention, held at Kingston, C. W., composed of Delegates from all parts of both sections of our wide Province, to the number of three hundred,—the 9rst of its kind in Canada.

The writer, in company with thirty or forty delegates from the different Sabbath Schools of this city, took the cars for Kingston last Tuesday morning, at the reduced fare of one cent per mile; and as we pursued our journey through the different stations of importance on our route added to our numbers, so that by the time we reached our destination we had become "a host." We took the friends, who had pledged themselve to entertainers, by surprise. I was thought one hundred persons would meet in Convdntion; but lo! at least two hundred had already arrived, for the train from the West had brought a greater number, and more would certainly come on the morrow. Hotel accommmodation was procured for those not otherwise provided for; ane, to the honor of the city be it said, its Christian people, headed by the Mayor, paid all the Bills.

The Convention held five Sessions, concluding on Friday at half-past 12 P. M. The first half hour of each session was occupied devotionally, and the whole concluded with exhortation, prayer, and praise. Many delegates were present from the United States, and added to the interest of the meeting. Boston, Buffalo, Ogdensburgh, and other places, were thus represented, and by first-class men. The gathering, composed of Christians of every evangelical denomination, presented an interesting spectacle; and the spirit manifested from first to last, accorded with the character of the object which brought so many brethren together. Some had come with minds prejudiced against a Convention; but it had not been long in session, before these prejudices melted away, and the dispossessed were frank enough to acknowledge their change of opinion.

Many subjects of value to the efficiency of Sabbath Schools were discussed, and amid a considerable variety of difference respecting matters of detail, the unanimity of sentiment on the main points was marked and decided. Among the topics brought forward, were the best modes of training teachers; the most efficient means of teaching the uncared for children of the country; the true design of Sabbath Schools; the propriety or impropriety of rewards to the children; the qualifications of teachers; the kind of books for Sabbath School Libraries; the value of infant and Bible classes; the best means of interesting children in Missionary operations; and the propriety of bolding local and general Conventions.

The following principles were indicated on these points and others:—Teachers should be, if possible, so drawn together as to make their united knowledge of service to the whole school. Piety, a love for the work, and aptness to teach, with the recognition, in its fullest sense, of dependence upon the spirit, constitute the qualifications to be sought for in teachers. Rather than there should be no Sabbath school, let persons of good moral character and competent mental attainments be employed, on the principle that it is better to give an intellectual knowledge of the Scriptures than none; better to bring children together to read the Bible than suffer them to break the Sabbath, as is generally done in localities without Sabbath Schools. To replenish, enlarge, and bring the influence of the Schools upon the destitute, let visiting committees, and children, be employed. The true mission of the Sabbath school is to reach all the children, including the destitute, without infringing on the parental duty to train up children in the fear of the Lord. The libraries of Sabbath schools should be composed of such books, and such only, as are fit for Sabbath reading. Where it is possible let children support a missionary, or student, or heathen children in schools, and be in communication with the recipients of their contributions. Both local and general conventions are desirable, and when well conducted very profitable. The difference of opinion respecting the giving of rewards was such that the sense of the convention was not taken; while the feeling was extensive in favor of rewards proportioned to the diligence, punctuality and propriety of the pupils; but against those exciting emulation. Infant and Bible claims were highly recommended.

A public meeting held in the evening of each day, was crowded with eager listeners, and addressed by efficient speakers.

One of the murderers of Corrigan, not before tried, was brought into a Court of Justice, a few days ago, the evidence of his guilt was clear and convincing; but the jury acquitted him of murder, manslaughter, and even assault. This is a fearful state of things; and who can say where it will end.

New York Correspondance.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16, 1857.

MR. EDITOR,—In one of my recent letters to your paper I spoke of the Free Baptist Quarterly as one of the cheapest, if not the cheapest in the world. I mentioned the number of pages per. volume as 520, when it ought to have been 420. After the figures denoting the number of pages, I wrote the usual observation for octavo, which your printer so mistook as to make my half thousand over a half million. I state this circumstance particularity because it must have been a puzzle to your readers. After this explanation, allow me to say, that in looking over the Morning Star, I was cheered to notice in acknowledgements the encouragement by way of subscribers from your Province to the Quarterly.

Our city for the last two weeks has been in great excitement in consequence of the murder of Dr. Burdell of 31 Bond street, a distinguished dentist. The Dr., a bachelor, owned the house above designated, and had let to Mrs. Cunningham, who kept some boarders besides the Dr. Mrs. Cunningham is a widow, whose family consists of two daughters, young ladies, and three younger children, two of whom are boys of ten and twelve. The other lad is not at home, but in the country. It seems that some trouble arose between Mrs. C. and the Dr., which resulted in his taking his meals out of his house since last autumn. He still contrived to employ a part of the house, however, for his profession and for lodging. The house is three stories, the Dr.'s apartments being a part of the first and second. Besides Mrs. C.'s family, there were in the house Mr. Ullman a lodger, and Mr. Eckel and Mr. Snodgrass, boarders. The latter is by report engaged to marry the eldest Miss Cunningham. The Dr. as is proved, came home on the night of the 30th of last month between the hours of ten and eleven, and was almost immediately murdered in his sleeping apartment. He was found next morning in that apartment in his gore, having received nol less than fifteen wounds from his murderers.

The wounds were made probably by a large dirk, and nearly every wound by itself was enough to cause immediate death. No less than four witnessess testify they heard the cry of murder at the time stated; the neighbors and passers by, that there was the scent of burning woolen cloth about the house during the night and next morning.

The inmates with one accord testify they were at home, and retired about the time the cry of murder was heard, but themselves heard nothing.

After the murder Mrs. C. claiming that she was married last October, about the time the Dr. left the house for his meals, as above stated. As the Dr. was worth a hundred thousand or more dollars, it is thought that this marriage is set up for the sake of the one third that goes by law to the widow.

It has come out also, in the coroner's inquest, that the Dr. had told some of his friends that he feared for his life, and had invited one of his friends to lodge with him the very night of the murder, the friend not accepting owing to a previous engagement.

Snodgrass has been identified as a person who purchased a dirk of five inch blade, a day or two before the fatal night. The sources of suspicion against Eckel and Mrs C., are too numerous to mention.

The Inquest pursued the investigation two weeks, and have brought in a verdict, criminating Mrs. Cunnitgham and Mr. Eckel, as principals in the murder. Mr. Snodgrass as accessory, and the Misses Cunningham, as having knowledge of the crime. So all of them are turned over to the Grand Jury.—The suspected persons being kept to-day meanwhile. It is quite likely the two first at least will be tried for murder, and the others as accessories.

It seems hardly possible that the coroner's jury can be mistaken in this case, but unless there should come to light new testimony there is not the first chance if any of the parties will be found guilty.

During a residence of a number of years in this city, I have seen excitement after excitement sweep over it; but I have never seen any thing before equal to that which this cold blooded murder has produced. The reasons which conspire to this result, aside from the atrociousness of the case itself, are the rapid increase of crime and the growing worse of the insecurity of human life. Almost every night there is a murder in this city. The attacks upon peaceable and quiet citizens are becoming very frequent, especially attacks by garrote robbers. In such a state of alarm this shocking case serves as a fitting opportunity for manifesting the general feeling in relation to crime. Hence the peculiarity of the present excitement. There is nothing else talked of, or read of, or scarcely thought of by our citizens. It is as much as ever, we give the least attention to the great freshets which have made such havoc of property and life. The war in Nicaragua, though affairs there have come to a crisis, Walker being completely hemmed in, is not spoken of; the Chinese and Persian wars do not gain a passing thought, and as for politics and slavery they hardly get a mention in the papers.

There is something very peculiar in any great excitement in a great city. The members seem to give to it a greater depth, as if the excitement of such reacted upon the mind of his fellow. This case brings out this peculiarity in its full force. The general conviction is, that the inmates of the house are guilty. To hear an opposite opinion expressed only increases the indignation. Before the final trial, the tide will doubtless set strongly in an opposite direction.

Three garrote robbers were sentenced yesterday to prison, to from ten to fifteen years each. G.

WHAT DO THE PHYSICIANS SAY OF

M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE, PREPARED BY FLEMING BROS.? Listen to the testimony of an eminent physician in favor of M'Lane's Vermifuge, which is now universally acknowledged to be the best in use; even members of the medical faculty (who are so often opposed to the use of patent medicines,) cannot withhold the approval of this invaluable remedy:—

LIND, Stark Co., Ohio, Jan. 8, 1849.

I have used Dr. M'Lane's Worm Specific, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa., in my private practice, and am prepared to say that the unparalleled success with which I have prescribed its use, both for children and adults, induces me to say the most in its favor of any specific or patent medicine ever before brought to my notice. The mode of administration, the smallness of the dose, and the certainty of its efficacious effects, give it, in my opinion, a decided advantage over any other medicine of the kind before the public.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, manufactured by FLEMING BROS, of Pittsburgh, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

THE BONY FINGER OF DEATH has set its seal upon many a fair forehead in punishment for neglect. Why will the young neglect for the Cold and the Cough; they are as surely the pioneers of Consumption as Day is the forerunner of Night. Do not neglect the slightest Cough, it comes in the springtime of life, the busy sower of disease. Meet it with Mrs. Gardner's Balsam of Liverwort and Hoarhound, and all is well, it will depart instanter. Give it no cordial greetings it will hang around and finally alarm you of its danger when forever too late. This celebrated medicine is sold by Weeks & Potter, 154 Washington Street, Boston, General Agents.

Holloway's Pills.—Bad Health.—Persons in bad health should lose no time in taking this wonderful remedy. Many who were at death's door have been restored by their means. They act upon the main spring of life, being infallible in disorders of the Liver and Stomach. Sold at the manufactories, No. 80 Maiden Lane, New-York, and No. 244 Strand, London; and by all druggists, at 25c., 62 1-2c., and $1 per box.

VICTORIA HOUSE.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

ENCOURAGED by the liberal share of patronage received during the past five years, and particularly since our removal to Prince Wm. Street, we have made arrangements to extend our retail trade. In addition to our regular Spring and Fall Supplies per Packet Ships, we shall during the winter as well as in the summer months import per steamers via Halifax, such Goods as are required to keep our Stock well assorted. Our system of doing business now is the same as it has been heretofore, adopting for our motto, not as much as we can get, but as little as we can take. We therefore mark every article in plain figures, from which no abatement can be made. Our Goods are equal in point of quality to any in the market; and as we buy on the most advantageous terms we cannot be undersold by any house in the Province. Thankfully acknowledging past favours we shall endeavour, by the extent and variety of our Stock, as well as by the quality and value of every article sold, to make the VICTORIA HOUSE as popular as possible, and respectfully solicit a continuance of that support which we have hitherto received.
