Religious

Intelligencer,

CIETY, MISSIONANY, MILAGEAR

McLEOD, Editor.

ersal

for

pur-

tor

has

tered

ctory

mal

, tor

Сом-

DE-

EAD-

please

s for

Cele-

and

ed by

Pitts-

ce no

arious

pur-

nifuge

arison

Lane's

'S,

EST

GH, PA.

rietors

AGE.

That God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ.—Peter.

OOLLAB A YEAR, IN ADVANCE

IV---N(). 45.

WHOLE NO. 201

ing and Living Again.

many. May the blessed Jesus con- ashamed.

ion to be through grace, and yet seemto forget that Jesus alone could save a G sp. 1, I trust to Him a'one. I often made application to him with and begged [lis assistance over and] rust my all to Him, but my poor self- (Heb. vi. 17, 18, 19, 20.) us soul, wanting something in me to me to Him, poring on my own feelur's promise. I went on comfortless always, ever seeking, and seemnever able to find. Trusting to nothat my own feelings, I thought that he ched man that I am! but still I never ter to believe. t so far as to thank God for Christ's sake. † have I sincerely pitied many a dear d of God going on thus, always engaged is own feelings, but never trusting to Him

We cry up evidences of religion. Would k ourselves poor and guilty, we think back till we pray, confess, repent, and we can come forward, and if we happen into sin on the way, we turn right orn till we wipe away our crime; then and coldness, or into hen I feel a good ev dence, I have not

nom. vii. 14, compare with viii. 5-8.

and the life which I now live in the compared my heart and life, and compared Christians collected, and worshipping with prived. We have been led to these remarks He found him free as ever to converse uplive by the fath of the Son of God, again and again-and Scripture where marks their native pastors in the simplicity of Gos- by having recently seen the operation on a on his soul. After a few moments, he said oved me and gave himself for me." are g von, and all books, and my own know- pel truth. I have seen their schools, and large scale, and on a small scale, that is, in to him, "Shall I pray with you?" He ap-Christ is a ho'y, happy, operative ledge of what Christians ought to feel. I left their Bible efforts, and entered into an exami-; comparatively few Christians nothing untried but one thing, and that nation of their work. And the deep convicwhat such a life is. The following let | was the main thing. At length I read the tion of my soul is, that of all the wonderful by the aid of God's Spirit, opened the Scrip ares, "He that believeth shall not be results of that great institution, the American only lived by faith, sinners would see tidings with pleasure and surprise. I never able. s, are seed on Christ, even by his own dear peo- I love His name, I love His cross, I love His sult. om the first moment I have any reason know I shall never be ashamed, and I know tions of Constantinople and its envirous. eve I felt religion. I spent twelve this b cause He has said so. Now, my sis- They meet at stated times for consultation. t r, if any ask me the reason of my hope, I But the simplicity of their abodes and styles ched self-righteousness, firmly believing answer, because I have believed on the Lord of living are a perfect example of apostolic J. s. is. I have consented to the offer in the contentment and separation from the world.

His faithful word in my hand pointing ed, with His blood, and sworn by Himself .- for Christ's sake. Never have I so seen the am asked what Christ has done for me, He get. How freely and how much they have has fulfilled the law, died, rose, and makes sacrificed for Christ! They have gone intercession for me. And as to what He has through every class of opposition. They done in me, He has shown me that I am a have brought their converts through immense poor, imperfect, lost sinner in myself, that I persecution. And now they reap their rebave a wicked, wretched, deceitful, hard, ward of unfainting labors. Large congreand unbelieving heart in me, that I have gations of Protestant Christians are gathered a prey to every remaining lust that daily need of His pardoning blood and sanc- to honor them. And their printing establishin me. For my life I could not keep tifying spirit. He makes me hate myself ment, constantly at work, hardly furnishes sinning, and every sin destroyed my more and more, and long for deliverance adequate intellectual and spiritual food for All my dependence was in a holy from ALL sin and corruption; and enables the families they have gathered. Here is a -but alas! I found I was carnel, sold me to look to Him for all I n. ed, and all I work of triumph-wonderful triumph for sin." This made me often cry, Oh, hope to enjoy. May God help my dear sis Christ. And the Churches of the Lord will

Rev. Dr. Tyng in Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 8, 1857.

side of you. You stretch forth into the wide - ED. INT. spread sea of Mormora again, covered with its many islands. You draw up again into When Sewing Machines were first sugthe narrow opening of the Bosphorus, and gested it was feared that they would be a sore met me on my journey. The rule of the house and thus maintaining themselves comfortably, is almost a payment for the sight of every- and laying up something for a winter's day.

Board of Commissioners for Foreign Mis-His blessings to the reader. If Chris- My poor burtheued soul met the joyful sions, this enterprise is the most remark- who has not seen it, and we will not attempt into the presence of God; and God touched that God requires of them, and would before, at least with any degree of confidence. So extensively is the spirit of inquiry we in the Lord Jesus Christ and be saved. saw Christ offered in the Gospel. I took Him awakened, that the two Bible Depositories a. Nothing. Nothing but the right tal Saviour, with no hing but sin. I believed busy, and bo h are crowned with wonderful less of Christ can entitle us to one of Him to be fai hful and able, and, therefore, I success. I have been delighted in attending purposes and materials. lessings of the covenant of grace. This committed all into His hands, and looked to their Bible Committee and their branch of does our at achinent to the coven- soul. All this was done in five minutes .- the Church of England and of Scotland, the machine in operation; on the plate and hearts .- Am. Mes. works contradict our faith, bear the I felt easy, happy, and humble; ashamed of missionaries of the Gospel Propagation Suhearts and inward sentiments, my former ways, and thankful to God for ciety, and the Chaplain of the British Embas- ling, she places her work, and steadily but clace our own feelings and graces be- His most gracious deliverance. The next sy, together with all the American missionous in place of Christ, and thus make Sabbath I preached that sermon at M aries, were assembled, under the presidency it, interweaving two threads, an upper and religion as fickle as our frames, and leave on faith, which I hope you will remember as of Count De Zielin, the Ambassador from lower one, so heatly that the thread lies even lower one, so heatly that the thread l even when he is carrying on his own since b en my darling theme in the pulpit. is the American Ambassador, Mr. Spence. smooth and handsome.

> Here are talent and learning and wisdom, M rever, I say He is able, willing, true, such as the world looks upon with wonder, faithful; He has said, promised, signed, seal- housed in the simplest and narrowest style moral grandeur of the missionary work. It Thus I glory in the cross of Christ. If I has been a lesson which I hope never to forunite to honor it, the more it is seen and they had opened. Not an obstacle intervened, At Douglas & Sherwood's establishment, for investment. until I was safely at home in the Hotel d'An- the manufacture of hooped skirts, we saw a gleterre, in Pera, the most extravagant of all family of three persons, earning eighteen dolthe louses of entertainm ne which have yet lars a week, by working nine hours a day, hand, and often I thought I had nothing. thing which they choose to place before you. But it is far from being true that sewing looked not to Christ to support my hope But the beauty of the prospect from my win-machines are for the poor only. Tens of needing myself to Him, and trusting lio Point, and carries gently on its bosom, using the sewing machine very ungenteel; persevere. recommendation, and not to Jesus .- without the aid of human effort hundreds of as if sewing with a needle were an accom-

> > WANDERER.

SEWING MACHINES.

OF FAITH, or, The Art of Dy- Sabbath, awful apprehensions of eternity, a great and commanding fact in the state of look on to see the work. The introduction force, I have never prayed with him. True, conscious that I knew nothing of the Gospel, this empire. These are seen and acknow- of sewing machines into the manufacturing I have often prayed for him, but have I ever almost in despair, searching the Scriptures ledged with amazement by every class of establishments, where many women are em-TRATED IN THE LETTER OF A CLERGYMAN to know what I was, and what would become intelligent travellers. I have met these ployed, and their use in the family; will cer- ing by his side, asked God, in his presence, is sister, written in the Year of ine, it pleased God to bring me out of an brethren and worshipped with them with tainly introduce a new era in the history of to convert his soul? No, never. Starting describes the great Bank Panic in that city abyss of darkness into the blaze of assurance. great deligh : I have attended their social womankind, improving their physical health immediately in search of his friend, with car-La ways thought that by evidences I was to and their business meetings. I have been in and comfort, and affording them hours for nest prayer in his heart for a divine blessing says, "I a crucified with Christ; no- know whether I was to be saved or not, and their well-arranged and furnished chapels, mental and moral improvement, of which to attend his feeble efforts, he hastened to his ss I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth took my Bible, read over John's first epistle, and seen their congregations of Protestant thousands of the sex have been hitherto de-neighbor's home.

the manufactory and in the parlor, of the peared surprised and somewhat agitated, as Wheeler & Wilson Family Sewing Machine. he had never been asked this question before, It is quite impossible to give such a des- and for a moment was silent. The question cription of the construction of one of these being repeated, he replied in the affirmative. instruments as will make it intelligible to one He was thus taken more directly than ever unsatisfactory to the reader. at His word, gave up myseit to Him, and cannot supply the demand for the Scriptures 1. Elegance and simplicity of construction, giveness for my sins, and acceptance with and the South Ferry boats ran up to Williamsplaced my hopes alone in Him. I clearly which the influence of this Mission has crea- and consequent freedom from derangement God. I never saw my heart, and now God is saw that I had all along been trusting to my ted. A large depository is open on the and need of repairs, 2. Durability. 3. Un- showing it to me."

beneath the needle that is now rising and fal-else she may have on hand. beauty. You hardly drop your anchor be- with the multiplication of the machines, there tion of Wheeler & Wilson's machines under by a sudden death. - Family Paper. fore you are encompassed with every shape has come an increased demand for women to the most favorable circumstances for forming of boats, from the airy and dangerous little work them, and the poor get better pay for an intelligent judgment, and we do not hesicaique to the large luggage boats which offer lighter work than they did before. The great tate to say, that families purchasing them to take your goods and yourself with ease. difficulty to get a machine has to be over. may be sure that they will give entire sails a mechanical explanation, which would be his heart, and he was melted to tears. Oh, the influence of prayer! Said he, " I cannot Among the advantages of this machine are, rise from my knees until I have sought for. Peck Slip ran down to the Atlantic Dock, own feelings, duties, repentance, etc., but I main street at Pera, the Foreign quarter; exampled ease and rapidity of operation. 4. He arose evidently a changed man He ar Sister: - There is nothing of more cast them all behind my back, and counted and another still larger in the very centre of Noiseless movement. 5. Beauty of stitch, went his way rejoicing with joy unspeakeanance than for us to be prepared for them as dang, and came to a precious, faith the business of Stamboul. Both are kept and firmness of seam. 6. Economy of ble, and continued to glorify God, who had thread. 7, Applicability to a variety of thus rescued him from eternal ruin.

Christians, can any of you say, "I have A lady sits down before a handsome work. done all I can do?" Let us seek to reply as ment generally believed; but alas! His fai hful word for the salvation of my the Evangelical Alliance, where ministers of table, with a gentle motion of her foot, sets in the presence of the great Searcher of despond and fear lest we have no Sa- long as you live. Faith in Christ has ever Holtand. The President of the Bible Society with the cloth, and on both sides it is equally July, when a woman called upon me, who now lies. ak how shamefully little dependence is the my only hold. Jesus is a faithful Saviour. but a small part of the indications of the reessential to satisfaction in the use of such an I asked. 'He is very ill,' said the woman. sinking of the moneyed Empire State, and I have sometimes taken a view of my- vord, and my whole hope is in Him, and I These brethren live apart, in different porupon linen, cotton, silk and woollen goods .-- 'If you please, sir,' said the woman; 'we We have the most satisfactory evidence that think his time will not be long.' In a few opened. In all the circles of business the exit will accomplish all this, for we have seen minures I stood in the room where lay the citement was intense, and the financial atmosthe neatest and the most beautiful work done dying man. It was one of those apartments by the machine on all these different kinds of that unmistakably bespeak the character of read the storm and the earthquake in the chacloth, and we know that it will answer the the inmates. The naked and dingy walls, racter of the air, so men seemed to be full of purpose, in every desired case. Even the the scanty, broken, and threadbare furniture, most delicate fabrics, such as are used for the faded and soiled drapery of the bed, and infant's clothing, are wrought with exquisite the thick, choking atmosphere, told very finish, and with wonderful rapidity, securing plainly that it was the home of the drunkard. an elegance that the finger needle cannot pro- As I entered, the father and mother stood in duce, and yet turning it out in a space of time a ministering attitude by the dying, and two lars in the bank drew it out; and laboring so brief as to be almost incredible. At the miserable children sat playing themselves in men who had funds in the Savings Bank, Fair of the American Institute, is now exhibited a dark corner of the room -the remains of a ted a complete dress for a child, trimmed with blasted, poisoned, murdered family. A look "Business was not suspended, for it did costly lace, with numerous rows of insertion, at the dying sufficed to show that he was very not begin at all. No one seemed ready to and a prodigious amount of fine stitching near his end. He had been taken very sud- do anything. No one could be found in their expended upon it, the whole being done by dealy ill but two days before, when at his emplaces of business. But Wall street presentone of these machines. And we have seen ployment, and now he was in the last stage of ed an unusual sight from the early part of coarse cloths and leather wrought with equal inflamation, accompanied with mortification. the day till dark. The walks were crowded. success, demonstrating the ability of the ma- His eye protruded, and looked no whither, in It was difficult to get along; and with the the frightful glare of death; his mouth was opening of the doors of the banks, at ten It strikes the most of persons, when they open, and his breathing quick, laboured, and o'clock, the run commenced. And with the first sit down to one of the machines, that it irregular. His whole frame seemed in a feis so complicated, they will never be able to ver of agitation, and hastening with fearful ment increased. And as one bank after learn its operation; but a single day's use of rapidity to dissolution. 'Would you wish me another gave way, the crowd and the exciteit, with the instruction that is easily obtained, to pray for him? I asked the father, though ment increased. The idea of breaking the will enable any lady to make a good begin- he was too far gone in the valley to be comning, and a few days' practice will make it a municated with by those on this side. 'If crowd. It was one of our oldest banks, and pleasant imployment. Of course, in this, as you please, sir,' said the father eagerly. We stood all crisises and changes. But it was in any other work, practice is needful to stood round, and I briefly engaged in prayer one of the earliest to succumb to the temmetropolis of Turkey. Can any view on that machines tor the performance of needle in the formation of the desired in the desired in the formation of the desired in metropolis of Turkey. Can any view on that machines tor the performance of needle earth exceel the many which surround this work are becoming extensively used in some glo i use control? The voyage from Smyrna control the United States. We transfer the glo i a c nire? The voyage from Smyrna parts of the United States. We transfer the few weeks' use of the sewing machine will there lay the young man who, but a minute York. Men crowded the sidewalks-stood is full of interest. You pass the narrow passage between the island of Tendos and the street full, so that draws and and and in Troy. You enter the Strait of the Dardanelles, where beautiful banks are on either readers, and the particular benefit of the ladies. with far more success than with her needle, which I had never before felt in such a class. and leave her plenty of time for everything which I had never before felt in such a place, and as I began to recover myself-still stand-We are aware, that as our paper reaches ing with fixed gaze upon the countenance of the most distant and secluded parts of the the dead -- I thought of the unspeakable folly sweeping by the water front of Stamboul, injury to the poor women who live by their sweeping of the water front of Stambout, and round the Seruglio's Point, you anchor needle. When they became common it beand round the Serigino's rount, you anchor amids hundreds of crafts of every size, and gan to be said that soon there would be no machine by our commendation, we are as-

A Sudden Death.

Pity the Drunkard.

I pray you do not bate the crunkard; he Scarce had we dropped our anchor before come by the economy and industry of the should call at 242 Broadens under the should call at 242 Broadens and clerks, judge and lawyer, all jostling and the runners of an English hotel had taken party, or by the aid of friends, and then a in operation. Our friends, and then a possession of me and my luggage, and I had means of hvelihood is at once furnished to any possession of me and my juggage, and I had means of them is a safe may rived but will never rend his chains. Lend a kind hand to pluck him from the mire. With a strong hand shat'er that bowl make a speech. It was a bravado speech .--M-had been laboring in many ways remove the temptations which, while he hates, He spoke for himself and other banks. He for the conversion of one particular soul. he cannot resist. Hate, abhor, tremble at his gave the crowd to understand that the bank He had made him the subject of continued sin. And for pity's sake, for God's sake, for was ready for anything-could stand any prayer, and oftentimes urged him to seek the Christ's sake, for humanity's sake, rouse yourdows, as I gaze over the hartour of Stamboul, thousands of ladies do their own sewing, and compensates for heavy payments. Scutari, any woman of sense, no matter how well off and the promises of God; had told han of Saviour, as the only refuge for the perishing. self for the question, What can be done? tended. The people were glad to hear that with its xtensive hospitals, the fruit of that she may be, is in the habit of doing more or his duty to God, and his own soul, but with low or whether they stay-rushing down to metal of the concern, and get the gold if it st nu longer, then I have confidence in with its ready to ask, the beach, throw yourself into the boat, push was to be had. And then the rush was more work and her children. Out avail. And he was ready to ask, the beach, throw yourself into the boat, push was to be had. And then the rush was more work avail. And he was ready to ask, the beach, throw yourself into the boat, push was to be had. And then the rush was more work avail. And he was ready to ask, the beach, throw yourself into the boat, push was to be had. And then the rush was more work and the rush was ready to ask, the beach, throw yourself into the boat, push was to be had. And then the rush was more work and the rush was ready to ask, the beach, throw yourself into the boat, push was to be had. intense. The crowd came faster and more away, and bend on the oar, like a man to the before me across the water. The soft curbended from the only pillar of my hope, and I am still there was mercy with God, he resolved to the Bosphorus sweeps around Serag- thought sewing to be genteel enough, but there was mercy with God, he resolved to the before me across the water. The soft curbended to think that many have the dial hand of Old Trinible or the Bosphorus sweeps around Serag- thought sewing to be genteel enough, but there was mercy with God, he resolved to the before me across the water. The soft curbended to think that many have the came faster and more away, and bend on the oar, like a man to the earnest. And as the dial hand of Old Trinible or the Bosphorus sweeps around Serag- thought sewing to be genteel enough, but there was mercy with God, he resolved to the before me across the water. rent of the Bosphorus sweeps around Serag- thought sewing to be genteel enough, but there was mercy with God, he resolved to wreck. Say, I wil not stand by and see my ty, that looked down calmly on the excited He brought his case to the prayer-meeting, fellow-creatures perish. They are perishing. and turbulent crowd below, indicated that the boats. The full moon has illuminated the plishment or a pastime, but sewing with a and there requested the earnest prayers of To save them I will do anything. What luxnightly scene with inexpressible grandeur. machine a slav sh employment. It will be God's people in his behalf. Now, thought ury will I not give up? What indulgences close, was near—and when the mass outside The week has been one of the great fetes of seen, on a moment's consideration, that just he, this will be the last effort on my part; will I not abstain from? What customs, money before banking hours were over, the Thus far, twelve yea s' experience taught in our own exercises.

Thus far, twelve yea s' experience taught in our own exercises.

Thus far, twelve yea s' experience taught in our own exercises.

Thus far, twelve yea s' experience taught in our own exercises.

Thus far, twelve yea s' experience taught in our own exercises.

Thus far, twelve yea s' experience taught in our own exercises.

Thus far, twelve yea s' experience taught in every season of the great fetes of seein, on a moment's consideration, that just the reverse is true. It is a real drudgery to these prayers, if offered from the heart, will not be the last effort on my part of the reverse is true. It is a real drudgery to the reverse is true. It is a real drudgery to the true the reverse After two years' anxiety, preaching every But there is a glory here which excelleth. But there is a glory here which excelleth. So this But there is a giory here which excenets, no latight, and becomes a source of enterthe wonderful attainments and success of the family, and becomes a source of enterthe American missionaries here have become ta nment to those who operate, and those who operate, and those who thought came home to him with exceeding height of this evil demands.—Dr. Guthrie.

So this morning all have suspended, and in precious promises of God. Soddenly the and sustained, and self-denying efforts, the law not a bank exists in New York, except the American missionaries here have become ta nment to those who operate, and those who operate, and those who operate the law home to him with exceeding height of this evil demands.—Dr. Guthrie.

The Bank Panic in New-York.

A correspondent of the Boston Journal writing from New York on the 14th inst.,

"Yesterday was a day such as never was equalled in this city, and I hope may not be equalled again. The very lightning itself cannot tell you the intense excitement of our people. The day opened with one of thick, dense fogs, that cover the city like a mantle. None of our suburban neighbours could be seen. Had Brooklyn, Williamsburg, Jersey City, Hoboken, Staten Island, all been sunk, they could not have been more completely hidden from our view. "Ferry boats landed their passengers in all conceivable places but the right one. Staten Island boat ran into a vessel and sunk. The Island Belle, on the Hudson river, ran into the Arrow and jeopardized many lives. The Commodore ran into the Metamora. doing great damage and exposing the passengers to much peril; and finally, several gentlemen who left New York for Boston on Monday night, suddenly appeared in our that the Empire State, of the Fall River line, ren on a rock at Hurlgate, stove in her bot-I shall never lose the impression made upon tom, filled the craft with water, and finally

> "And all this was a fitting prelude to the moral and hnancial log; the collision of me

"The real panic began before the banks foreboding No confidence seemed to exist: had it in his pocket. The first step was to passage of each hour, the crowd and excite-Russia were expected along soon. The windows of the offices, stores, saloons and broshape, in the Golden Holm. Every view is a need of women at all. Both apprehensions suming some responsibility in presenting his Son? If not, how hapless indeed will be down, on the steps, columns, and pilasters of the columns, and pilasters of the columns. snape, in the Golden flows. Every view is a need of women state of women and phasters of the Exchange, and men of all classes and new aspect in the succession of surpassing have already proved to be groundless, and these facts. But we have seen the operation of surpassing have already proved to be groundless, and these facts. But we have seen the operation of surpassing have already proved to be groundless, and the exchange, and men of all classes and the exchange of the ex dress of his trade on him, and the late millionare from University place, the apple woman from Chatham Square and Park Row, and the merchant from Park Place, news boys David Leavitt, late President of the American thing-would pay specie till the last bill was