

world was not their home, and had sought refuge in Jesus—had drunk of His life-giving water of life: and found Him to be the "Bread of Life."