The Books of the Bible.

In Genesis the world was made by God's creative hand;
In Exodus the Hebrews march'd to gain the Promis'd Land:
Leviticus contains the Law, holy, and just, and good.
Numbers records the tribes enroll'd—all sons of Abraham's blood.
Moses, in Deuteronomy, recounts God's mighty deeds.
Brave Joshua, into Canaan's land, the host of Israel leads.
In Judges their rebellion oft provokes the Lord to smite,
But Ruth records the faith of one well pleasing in his sight.
In first and second Samuel, of Jesse's son we read,
Ten Tribes, in first and second Kings, revolted from his seed.
The first and second Chronicles, see Judah captive made;
But Ezra leads a remnant back by princely Cyrus' aid.
The city walls of Zion, Nehemiah builds again,
Whilst Esther saves her people from plots of wicked men.
In Job we read how faith will live beneath afflictions' rod,
And David's Psalms are precious songs to every child of God.
The Proverbs like a goodly string of choicest pearls appear.
Ecclesiastes teaches man how vain are all things here.
The mystic Song of Solomon exalts sweet Sharon's Rose;
Whilst Christ, the Saviour and the King, the "rapt Isaiah" shows.
The warning Jeremiah, apostate Israel scorns;
His plaintive Lamentations their awful downfall mourns.
Ezekiel tells, in wondrous words, of dazzling mysteries;
Whilst kings and empires yet to come, Daniel in vision sees.
Of judgment and of mercy, Hosea loves to tell;
Joel describes the blessed days when God with man shall dwell.
Among Tekoa's herdsmen, Amos received his call;
Whilst Obadiah prophesies of Edom's final fall
Jonah enshrines a wondrous type of Christ, our risen Lord.
Micah pronounces Judah lost, lost, but again restored.
Nahum declares on Nineveh just judgment shall be poured.
A view of Chaldea's coming doom, Habakkuk's visions give,
Next Zephaniah warns the Jews to turn, repent, and live.
Haggai wrote to those who saw the temple built again,
And Zechariah prophesied of Christ's triumphant reign.
Malachi was the last who touch'd the high prophetic chord,
Its final notes sublimely show the coming of the Lord.

Matthew, and Mark, and Luke, and John the holy Gospels wrote,
Describing how the Saviour died, his life, and all he taught,
Acts prove how God the Apostles own'd with signs in every place,
St. Paul, in Romans, teaches us how man is saved by Grace,
The Apostle, in Corinthians, instructs, exhorts, reproves,
Galatians shows that faith in Christ alone the Father loves,
Ephesians and Philippians tell what Christians ought to be:
Colossians bids us live to God and for eternity.
In Thessalonians we are taught the Lord will come from heaven;
In Timothy and Titus a bishop's rule is given,
Philemon marks a Christian's love, which only Christians know,
Hebrews reveals the Gospel pre-figured by the law,
James teaches, without holiness faith is but vain and dead,
St. Peter points the narrow way in which the Saints are led.
John, in his three Epistles, on love delights to dwell,
St. Jude gives awful warning of judgment, wrath, and hell,
The Revelation prophesies of that tremendous day
When Christ, and Christ alone, shall be the trembling sinner's stay.

The Reviewer Reviewed.

For the Religious Intelligencer.

MR. EDITOR,—In your valuable paper of the 10th inst., in an article headed "Rum versus Tobacco," the writer, referring to an article in a previous number of your paper, says he was "startled to see the RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER 'polluted' with an article so diametrically opposite to truth." Now, Mr. Editor, previously to my reading Mr Jones' article, I was not aware that you published in the columns of the Intelligencer anything "diametrically," or indirectly "opposite to truth." But, thankful as I am for the information, I must say, as a constant reader of the Intelligencer, that I can much more easily forgive the "pollution" spoken of than I can the practice of many of our fellow beings who daily burn incense at the shrine of Tobacco, and "pollute" themselves by chewing that which even brutes detest.

Mr Jones states that he "verily believes that for every soul or body destroyed by Tobacco. There are nine hundred and ninety nine destroyed by alcoholic beverages."

Now, learned and celebrated Physicians tell us that every habitual user of Tobacco is cutting off on an average from fifty to twenty per cent. of his natural existence. And as the use of Tobacco is more extensive and general than that of Rum, we must conclude notwithstanding Mr. Jones's comparison, that Tobacco is sending more human beings to the grave than any other vice. And now, while every nerve of the Christian community is strained to destroy the monster intemperance and christianize the heathen, there are millions even in civilized America, who have enshrined Tobacco as their god, and worship it more unceasingly than the pagan devotee worships his idols of wood and stone. The Christian Churches in America are expending five times as much in the support of this heathen abomination as they are for the support of the Gospel, and yet there are but very few to cry out against the monstrous evil. It is estimated that the city of Havana expends $10,000 daily for Tobacco. Who can calculate the amount of evil, to the bodies and souls of the inhabitants of that city, accruing from the thousand dollars expended in this suicidal and idolatrous practice? Can Mr. Jones point to one isolated spot in the wide world, where so much evil is done by alcoholic liquors in a place of the same extent, as is done in Havana by the daily consumption of ten thousand dollars worth of this narcotic poison? Let him consider that there are millions held in object slavery by this soul-destroying curse, who would sacrifice health, peace and happiness for the gratification of this lust of Tobacco—and he will see the fallacy of his comparison.

Mr. Trask, in his communication states, that "Rum and Tobacco are twin demons," and yet his reviewer thinks that he is "one of the best advocates of Yankee white eye and other such drinks of the devil, that he was ever heard or read of!"—Verily consistency is a jewel.

Far be it from me to take anything from the dark picture of intemperance, as delineated by Mr. Jones. Tongue cannot tell, no pen portray the evil effects of intemperance, neither can the diabolical fruits of the use of Tobacco ever be told. Its bands are stronger than those of alcohol, and its effects are only evil.

The writer last referred to, speaks of our jails, penitentiaries, lunatic asylums, &c., as containing many of the victims of intemperance. This is true; but let him also reflect that two thirds of the inmates of our jails and Penitentiaries have been habitual users of tobacco, and that many of the inmates of the Lunatic Asylum, are those whom the excessive use of tobacco has deprived of their intellectual powers.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I would say that I hope the advocates of Temperance will never find it necessary to depreciate the criminality of other vices in order to make intemperance appear blacker by comparision.

Upper Sussex, April 20th 1857. VIDI.

Remember that God sent you into the world for religion. We are but to pass through our pleasant fields, or our hard labors; but to lodge a little while in our fair palaces, or meaner cottages, but to bait in the way of our full tables, or to spare diet. But then man does his proper employment, when he prays and does charity, and mortifies his unruly appetites, and restrains his violent passions, and becomes like to God, and imitates his only Son. Then he is dressing himself for eternity, where he must dwell or abide, either in an excellent, beautiful country, or in prison of amazement and eternal horror.—Jeremy Taylor.

MR. GRIP.

"Mr. Grip's aid to the Gospel," is the title of the following story in an exchange. Is there not more than one Mr. Grip in the world?

Mr. Grip is one of our best known citizens. Mr. Grip is a worshipper of money, and never allows a half dollar to pass out of his hand without giving the "eagle a squeeze that makes him hiss like a gander." Mr. Grip is a church member, who attends divine worship with becoming punctuality.—Although Mr. Grip is a man of wealth he "makes it a point" never to put over five cents on the plate, even for the benefit of Central Africa. This piece of coin he puts in the right hand pocket of his vest on Saturday evening, so as to prevent "mistakes."

A few Sundays since, Mr. Grip, in dressing got on the wrong vest. He did not discover his error till the "man with the plate" started around, and then he commenced chasing up that five cent piece. It was no go, however, he had the wrong vest on, while the smallest piece of money he had in his pantaloons pocket was a half dollar. He of course could not think of throwing away funds in that manner. He applied to his wife:—

"Mary, have you got any change?"
"Not a cent."
He then turned to his son.
"Got any small change, George?"
"Nothing but a shilling—that one with pillars you gave me last night."
"Havn't you got a smooth one?"
"No sir."
"Well, hand it here, and give me your knife, I will stick him on four cents any way."

Saying this, Mr. Grip took his son George's knife and drew it across his son George's shilling. By this means Mr. Grip reduced its value and felt better for the next two days.

Mr. Grip is a character. To do another out of four cents, affords him as much pleasure as to make two shillings in any legitimate manner. The plate carrier who gets ahead of Grip has got to start early, that's all.

OBITUARY.

MRS. MARGESON, wife of Mr. John Margeson, who resides at Black Rock, West Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, was taken suddenly ill on the 12th of March 1856, and continued for the most part under the most extreme suffering until she died on the 17th of October following. Her internal disease baffled the skill of Physicians, and no alleviation could be afforded until the welcome messenger came which afforded a final release from all her sufferings, in the 66th year of her age. She left a husband and ten children (seven sons and three daughters) and thirty-four grand children, and what was very remarkable, her death was the first and only breach which was made upon this numerous family circle. * * * * * * *

Sister Margeson was a subject of deep seriousness for a considerable number of years, but never publicly professed an attachment to the Lord Jesus Christ. The writer of this notice being satisfied in reference to her deep exercise of mind from the solemn countenance and the falling tear, while sitting under the sound of the Gospel, and her manifestation of regard for the people of God and anxiety for prayer when visited by them. Endeavours were repeatedly made to obtain from her some communications that would more fully manifest her interest in Christ, but in vain. She carefully avoided every word that would give evidence that she thought herself a true Christian or would lead any one else to think so. Lo, satan and unbelief had bound this daughter of Abraham in chains and she went from year to year mourning over her sins, and longing for some manifestation that would set her soul at rest. But although sister Margeson had lived so long in disobedience, and had hid her light under a bushel, yet it pleased a merciful and gracious God to sanctify her affliction. Soon after she became prostrate, she felt sure that her sickness would terminate in death, and now her thoughts more fully turned to her departure. She now felt that there was no time for delay; that she needed a pardon of her numerous sins, in order to an acceptance with God, and as all true penitents will feel, that she had no righteousness of her own to recommend her to the Divine favour. On the contrary, that God would be just if he now cast her off; hence, her only plea was the merits of Christ's death; his blood alone could cleanse her guilty soul; his righteousness alone could clothe and justify her before God. To Him she lifted up her voice in prayer for mercy in Christ, and she called not in vain;

"The mount of danger was the place,
Where she found surprising grace."

A God of infinite goodness at a very early period of her illness manifested himself to her; broke the cords of unbelief and afforded her satisfactory evidence that her peace was made with him. Her peace flowed like a river, and her soul was happy in Christ's love from this time until her death; there was no abatement; no hiding of God's countenance; there was uninterrupted solace in his love, and Heavenly submission to his will. She desired to depart and be with Christ. The writer had the unspeakable pleasure of visiting her quite frequently, and was constrained to bless God that his former hopes were so fully realized, and that there was such entire satisfaction in reference to her future bliss. But few cases have come under his notice which afford more pleasing evidence of true piety. There appeared to him no want of true repentance for past sins; no want of true humility. Her hope in Christ was firm and unshaken; there was no undue excitement of mind; she was calm, composed, and submissive to God's will. Sometimes she expressed a fear that she might be impatient to be with Jesus, but often begged of God to grant her patience to wait till her appointed time till her change came. Often would she say, "My sufferings, however great, are all right; I fully deserve it all; I am a poor sinful creature—my sufferings bear no comparison with the sufferings of Him who bore my sins, and carried my sorrows. O how good God is—He cannot err,—He has dealt with me in much mercy and love, in affording me such unspeakable comfort; I trust I shall soon be with him where sin nor sorrow will never enter." Finally she fell sweetly asleep in Jesus. The occasion was improved by the writer, at her own request, from Phil. 4th 21st, "For to me to live is Christ and to die is gain." A large and attentive congregation manifested their respect to the memory of the departed.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
IT HAS WORKED MIRACLES!

THAT ALL THE BALD AND GRAY CAN BE RESTORED PERFECTLY to original growth, and color so far as their locks are concerned does not admit of doubt; besides, it will cure every possible disease of the scalp, whether it be what is denominated itching or in the shape of cutaneous eruptions—even scald-head—and in no possible case will it fail of curing as if by magic, nervous or periodical head-ache, and if used twice a week by the young regularly, it will preserve the color, and keep the hair from falling, to any imaginable age. Read and judge.

Milford, Worchester Co., Mass., Nov. 1856.
PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir; I take pleasure in bearing voluntary testimony to the magic effects of your wonderful Hair Restorative. On the back of my head my hair commenced falling off, and the top of my scalp became bald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall for a great many years, notwithstanding I have used many celebrated preparations for restoration. Seeing your advertisement I was induced to give your article a trial, and to my utter astonishment, found, after a few applications, that my hair became firmly set, and assumed a glossy and beautiful appearance; and by the time I had used a quart bottle, my bald head was covered over with a young and vigorous growth of hair, which is now from one to two inches in length, and growing fast.
Yours, truly, HENRY GOODRICH.

CHARLESTOWN, MASS., Aug. 9, 1856.
Gents:—Nothing but a duty and sympathy that I feel to communicate to others that are afflicted as I have been, would induce me to give this public acknowledgement of the benefit I have received from Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. When I first commenced using it, my hair was quite gray, and in spots entirely bald. I have now used the Restorative about five months, and my hair is entirely changed to its original color, brown, and the new hair is over three inches in length on the spots where it was bald. I have also been much gratified at the healthy moisture and vigor of the hair, which before was dry, and it has ceased to come out as formerly. Respectfully yours, &c., MRS. E. A. STODDARD.

From Mrs. Ingalls, a well known nurse in Boston
Boston Oct. 18th, 1856
GENTS:—At your request, and being so highly pleased with the effects of the Restorative, I am free to state that my hair had become quite thin, and entirely white. I have for the last few years been in the habit of using dye, but hearing of the extraordinary effects of this article, I was induced to try it. My hair has been restored to its original thickness, and also to its former color, which is light brown.
Yours respectfully, MRS. INGALLS.

The following is from the Pastor of the Orthodox Church, Brookfield.
BROOKFIELD, Mass., Jan. 12, 1856.
Prof. WOOD—Dear Sir—Having made trial as your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effects have been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff, and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood, and has also restored the hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article, with anything like the same pleasure and profit. Yours, truly, J. S. DRAGG.
(From the Jersey City Telegraph.)
WHAT IS IT FOR—THE WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE?—Is a question asked daily by hundreds. We answer without hesitation or fear of contradiction, that it is the only article known which will do all it promises for the human hair. It will renew its growth—it will stop its falling—it will restore its natural color! It is not a Hair Dye, but a speedy and efficacious Restorative.

VICTORIA HOUSE
SPECIAL NOTICE.

ENCOURAGED by the liberal share of patronage received during the past five years, and particularly since our removal to Prince Wm. Street, we have made arrangements to extend our retail trade. In addition to our regular Spring and Fall Supplies per Packet Ships, we shall during the winter as well as in the summer months import per steamers via Halifax, such Goods as are required to keep our Stock well assorted. Our system of doing business now is the same as it has been heretofore, adopting for our motto, not as much as we can get, but as little as we can make. We therefore mark every article in plain figures, from which no abatement can be made. Our Goods are equal in point of quality to any in the market; and as we buy on the most advantageous terms we cannot be undersold by any house in the Province. Thankfully acknowledging past favours we shall endeavour, by the extent and variety of our Stock, as well as by the quality and value of every article sold, to make the VICTORIA HOUSE as popular as possible, and respectfully solicit a continuance of that support which we have hitherto received.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, Mass., has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOUR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two, (both thunder humour). He has now in his possession two hundred certificates of its virtue, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples in the face.
Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker mouth, and stomach.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humour of the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and worms among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.
Two to three bottles warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.
Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three to four bottles are warranted to cure the asthma.
Five to 8 bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.
Reader, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this valuable medicine in the city of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case, and a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two ingredients about this herb that compose the new surprising principle; first, it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and second, its value has never been known until I discovered it. This is the secret, that it should cure all kinds of humour.
In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1856, I peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day: in April, 1857, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.
Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in the business twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the line of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.
In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humour, but since its introduction as a general family medicine, its mild and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never expected.
Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. What a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady—there are but few who have seen more than I have.
I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged persons, cured within the last seven months by the use of this medicine. Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in disorders of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done more good than any medicine ever known.
No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get and enough of it.
DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Adults, one table spoonful per dose. Children over ten years a dessert spoonful. Children from five to eight years, a tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.
The PRINCIPAL OFFICE for the STATE OF MAINE and BRITISH PROVINCES is at the Drug and Medicine Establishment of H. H. HAY, 30 and 32 Market Square, Portland, to whom all orders should be addressed. Sold by respectable druggists throughout the United States and British Provinces. Price, $1.

Peters, Charles Esterbrooks, Canning, Burpee & Co., Sheffield, P. Yeomans, Canning, Daniel Briggs, Salmon River, C. Burpie, Chipman, H. & E. Babbit, Coal Mines, Theo. Davis, Chipman, John Wiggins, Jr., Young's Cove, N. Wilbur, Cambridge, J. Black, Cambridge, J. Washademoak, Y. A. Crandall, Springfield, J. S. Smith, Springfield, Samuel Foster, Kingston, and John Taylor, Gagetown; Justus Earle, Hampton; James E. White, Hampton; J. C. Jones, Salisbury; M. D. Harris, Moncton; J. Bulmer, Dorchester; G. C. Chapers, Westmoreland; L. Anderson, Sackville.

CELEBRATED
AND LIVER PILLS.
Two of the best Preparations of the Age

They are not recommended as Universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports.

The VERMIFUGE, for expelling Worms from the human system, has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various animals subject to Worms.

The LIVER PILLS, for the cure of LIVER COMPLAINT, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEADACHE, &c.

Purchasers will please be particular to ask for Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated VERMIFUGE and LIVER PILLS, prepared by

Fleming Bro's

SOLE PROPRIETORS, Pittsburgh, Pa., and take no other, as there are various other preparations now before the public, purporting to be Vermifuge and Liver Pills. All others, in comparison with Dr. McLANE's, are worthless.

The GENUINE McLane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores.
