Mr. Cobden recommends the Ballot Associaon to "tack on" to any series of resolutions wed at Reform meetings, one in favour of that asure, for it, I think, a majority of the elecs are prepared. A petition to Lord Palmerston s been signed by many eminent persons, askg him that a clause in his Reform Bill may offer the franchise on men of recognised eduttional attainments.

The Leviathan. Levethian (our modern one) refuses with most pergetic obstinacy to take to the element for hich she is constructed,—yet progress is making ad in a few days further, the difficilis descansus Thaniu will probably be effected. Mr. Robert phenson has examined the works and is said have approved of all that has been done. He ould have a tenderness, no doubt, for Mr. Brunnel's feelings, or else, as the Times has said, ne numerous mishaps are anything but creditale to our engineering science; and one cannot help thinking that Mr. Stephenson, the elder, rould have gone to bed weeks ago, (as was his wont when perplexed.) and would have risen, prepared to vanquish the difficulties which have en of a formidiable nature. The cost of the ceedings, hitherto, were said to amount to only one half of the rumoured expenses, which were set down at £70,000. Crimes.

The records of crime are long drawn out. The inter's assizes have been held, and have brought light some deeds of terrible attrecity. Mr. H. . Bright, the Hull merchant, has been senteneat, and the ced to ten years penal servitude for forgery,nd Mr. Monk, of Preston, an alderinan, cou magistrate, and Mayor in 1852, is accused of orging a bill to secure to himself a paltry sum, conviction is certain. A horrible catastrophe has occured near Croydon;—the circumstances tending to show that a young man, a Bank of England clerk, receiving £200 yearly, poisoned is mother, younger brother, and himself. He ad speculated in the Stock Exchange, and lost, and having recourse to brandy, was primed for every deadly work. Later still, a murder has en committed near Euston Square, in this city. The Waterloo Bridge mystery is not dissipated but the murdered person is now supposed to have been a secret agent of the French Police. This njecture agrees with the foreign make of the clothes, and the large carpet bag which such an andividual would be likely to carry with him. Rather amusing, in one light, is the discovery made of the use to which the robbery of the Countess of Elsmere's robeing and jewelry was out, by the too fortunate thieves articles of the value of £15,000, being sold for about as many pence. The receiver of the property, an old offender, is also in custody, and prison. Courts and Duties.

It is but slowly that the machinery of the law gets freed from the superfluous complications to which the fears or follies of our ancestors gave existence. As a little insight into the pecuniary features of our commercial life, I may notice that the duty paid by the London Omnibuses in 1856, was £74,270, by the London Cabs, £82,110. The Customs and Excise duties on tobacco and snuff, in the year ending March 31st, 1857, realized £5,210,116, and on spirits £11,435,881. This attening of the exchequer will prevent the government ever being too forward in matters of temperance and prohibition. The hydraulic pressure must be put on, and even Levethian will at last give way. it into which Lord Shattsbury's Bill for giving the Bishops power to override refractory incumbents, could not be got through Parliament in the ten day's Bazaar in the Surrey Gardens Hall, next week, for the benefit of the monster Tabernacle fund. The Bishop of London has gone and preached to the people of pleblian Bethnal Green, and all parties are so well pleased, that he renews his visit on Wednesday next. Du. Sevn W. Fowle. Dear Sir,—For two years past I have been mora of less troubled with a cough. During the past year, I was taken with a severe pain in the left side, accompanied by a very bad cough, and a raising of blood, probably a quart or more. In addition to this, I sweat profusely at night, which induced me to apply to a physician, but received no permanent benefit. I then procured a bottle of Wistar's Balsain of Wild Cherry, which seemed to have the desired effect. I continue to use it, ind my appetite, which had been very poor, returned, and with it my strength was restored. After taking four bottles I was completely cured, and have enjoyed good health ever since.

Dean Sin:—In consequence of taking cold after a bad at-DEAR SIR:—In consequence of taking cold after a had attack of the measies, some eleven years since, I have from that time suffered greatly with a disordered liver and stomach. I have been at times so bad that my life was deapaired of. I was induced some time ago, through the persuasion of a friend, Mr. Henry Shafer, to try a hotbe of Hoofland's German Bitters thinking if it done no good it could do me no harm, and knowing Mr. Shafer to be a gentleman who would not recommend any thing to me, that he did not have confidence in. Before I had taken one third of the bottle, my bowels became regular and I had a fine appetite. When I had used two-thirds of it I considered my health as good as ever it was, and could eat anything, without its disagreeing with me in the least. I now keep a bottle of the Bitters in the house continually, and in case I take cold, or I feel unwell. I take one or two doses, and it makes a change in my bowels which is all I need, wherefore, for the past eleven years, my doctor bill has been from $10 to $25 per year, besides los time and severe illness.

Yours, truly.

LONG REACH, NOV. 17, 1857. Mr. T. A. Templenan, Dear sir.—I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit your Pills have been to me. I was afflicted with what the physicians call billiousness, for tiree years; I tried all the medicines which are recommended for hpt disease, and employed several of our emment physirians, sometimes having three to attend me at once, but nei-ther the medicine nor the skill of the physicians had any efther the medicine nor the skill of the physicians had any effect on my disease, and I was pronounced past recovery, and indeed at times my friends supposed I was dying; my life was entrely despaired of; but as a last remedy I was persuaded to try your Indian Pills. I commenced using them according to directions, and after taking a few doses was much relieved; and finding my twength increasing, continued using them until I had taken about two boxes, when I was perfectly cured, since which time I have had good health. I shall always remember your Indian Pills as having been the means of sparing my life.

THOMAS TEMPLEMAN, Long Reach. A SUPERIOR AND GENUINE VEGETABLE COUGH CANBY E H. Y. MACER'S Vegetable COUGH CANDY, for curing Caughs, Colds, Croup, Irritation of the Throat, A thma, and is particularly calculated to relieve the Whooping Cough, and all complaints tending to Con-It is particularly recommended to the attention of Public spoakers, singers, and all persons who use the voice freely. Its efficacy for Clearing the Voice is truly astonishing! There has been so much practiced under the pretence of furnishing the public with superior medicines that the in-venter of a GENUINE ARTICLE only begs that each one would try for himself, for society demands that Good Medicines should be made public. Even those which do possess some virtue are held at such exorbitant prices that they do not come within reach of the poor; while they, above all, are the most liable to suffer from the consequence of neglect and Do not the poor suffer daily? It is true they do, for the want of a medicine which they are unable to purchase.—

The proprietor of the Vegetable Cough Candy has obviated this difficulty by laventing a Medicine compounded of twenty-nine different ingredients, extracted from the Vegetable Kingdom, and sold at a price which will place it within the reach of all. It is well known that many ingredients when used singly are inefficacious, but when combined with others are highly salutary.

Macer's Vegetable Cough Candy contains the most essential ingredients of which other Cough Candies are composed, with several additional kind, the combined power of which is sufficient to heal, in part, every malady to which the human system is liable (which does not require the aid of a surgeon,) if attended to The numerous ingredients composing this Candy have been recommended by many physicians of eminence, some of whom are among the most celebrated in the United States. The pleasantness of this medicine gives it an advantage over others, while it is nunceessary to use any persuasion to induce children to use it. Gr Sold by Druggists generally throughout the City and County. General Agent F. A. COSGROVE & CO., St. John, Dec. 18, 1857. iv 75 Prince Wm. St.
