Poetry:

The following beautiful lines were sung with much power and effect in the revivals in New York and elsewhere:

JUST AS I AM! Just as I am, without one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me, And that thou bid'st me come to thee, O! Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am and waiting not To rid my soul of one dark blot, To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot O! Lamb of God I come.

Just as I am, though toss'd about With many a conflict, many a doubt, With fears within and wars without, O! Lamb of God, I come.

Just as 1 am-poor, wrecthed, blind, Sight, riches, healing of the mind; Yea, all I need, in thee to find, O! Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am thou wilt receive, Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve; Because thy promise I believe, O! Lamb of God. I come.

Just as I am-thy love unknown Has broken every barrier down: Now to be thine, yea thine alone, O! Lamb of God, I come.

"JUST AS I AM," has been much blessed in the revivals in this city : perhaps this form of invitation may carry peace to some soul, with the Holy Spirit's blessing :

JUST AS THOU ART Counterpart of the beautiful hymn, "Just as I am." Just as thou art-without one trace Of love, or joy, or inward grace, Or meetness for the heavenly place, O! guil'y sinner come.

Thy sins I bore on Calvary's tree; The stripes, thy, due were laid on m That peace and pardon might be free-O! wreched sunner come.

exposure Do not the poor suffer daily? It is true they do, for the want of a medicine which they are unable to purchase.— The proprietor of the Vegetable Cough Candy has obviated this difficulty by inventing a Medicine compounded of twenty-nine different ingredients, extracted from the Vege-table Kingdom, and sold at a price which will place it with in the reach of all. It is well known that many ingredients when used ingredients. when used singly are inefficacions, but when combined with others are highly salutary. Macer's Vegetable Cough Candy

A Little Boy's Faith.

A TRUE STORY.

The following is a true story about a little boy in Germany :- This little boy, whom we will call Flank, was only six years old; he had lost his father, and was by this sad event deprived of the means of continuing his education. Now this was a great grief to Frank, for he was not like some cl.ildren, who are quite pleased to be idle, and very glad when the master is away and cannot teach them. Frank knew he was ignorant and had much to learn before he could become a good or us ful man; and his greatest desire was, that he might be admitted in a school founded by those pious Christians called Moravians, where children are taught to know and love Jesus Christ, and many things besides, which it is necessary for them to learn in order to gain their living. His poor mo her wished it as much a she did; but without money, without friends, poor and unknown, he had but little to expect in this world. Happily for our young orphan, he had heard of Him " who is rich in mercy" to all who call upon him ; and of Jesus who has said, " Suffer little children, and forbid them not to come unto me; for of such is the king-* dom of heaven."

This poor little boy trusted simply and entirely in this good Savior ; and was most anxious to make his distresses known to him. " But how can I go to Jesus ?" said he, " I shield of this monster wrong. will write to him and tell him everything." This he immediately set about doing, and wrote nearly the following words : " My Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, I have lost my fathea; we are very poor! but I know that thou tellest us in thy word that whatever we shall ask God in thy name, he will give it to us. I believe what thou sayest, Lord Jesus. pray then, unto God, in the name of Jesus, like so much to continue to be taught. pray unto thee, good Jesus, to do this. I love thee already, but I will love thee still more. Give me also wisdom, and everything that is good." He then folded up the letter, directed it, and looking v r sail all the time, but yet very h ppy, (for he felt sure his Savior would answer it,) he carried it to the post office. Now you may perhaps think that Frank was very foolish, and may wonder that a boy who knew Jesus Christ, and was uo doubt, in the habit of saying his prayers every day, should be ignorant that the way to ask anything of God is to pray to him ; and that he can hear the sofisst whisper, or was in the condemned cell, he owned to the know our thoughts and wishes, even when we do not put them into words. However, you must not be in too great a haste to blame ing and Intemperance had been his ruin. the little boy.
