COBOURG, 30th July 1858. The most important event of the week in the litical world is, the ministry has resigned! It was beaten on the seat of Government question. The Lower Canada members deserted the ministry on the vote to accept the Queen's appointments. Yesterday morning the resignations were presented and accepted; and George Brown was sent for to form a new ministry. The fall has come at last-like death to a consumptive patient, whose death has been protracted beyond expectation. unexpectedly, and suddenly, in the end. And we are to have from George Brown as the new Prime Ministerocean George Brown, the best abused man in Canaat one da. May he prove equal to the task assigned rated. him! I have my fears that some of the princito Vaples for which, as an oppositionist, he has manon for fully and eloquently contended, will be held e day, would in abeyance; and that Conservatism, the great 0 stanecessity of every government, will be carried at the farther than we have a right to expect from egraph Mr. Brown. I shall look with some interest to y; for the forthcoming issues of the Globe, and shall he wabe happily disappointed, if there be no trimcable ming of the sails to catch propitious breezes non at My faith in the character of the public mind in Canada is not sufficiently showy to lead me eceived to the conclusion that a really honest governhe mament, will be upheld in the country. O, that rked in I may be in error! Most joyfully will I reas not e time cord my mistaken opinion, and retract it. d. The Bowmanville Coal question is set at rest le are after much excitement. I never sold a bottle of it but that sold another after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appears to me surprising; first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known antil I discovered it in 1840 - second, that it should cure all kinds of humor. In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and gres opularity of the discovery. I will state that in April, 1853, J peddled it, and sold about six bottles per day : in April, 1854 I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it. snit. Mr. Adcock in the Commons and Lord Palmerston in the Peers have taken the office of nediators in the Church State controversy, but I to no effect. Simple abolition only will atisfy the majority in ene House, and this desire the majority of the other House will not gratify. The chief argument on the contra side , that the amount thus taken off property would be laid on the rents, and that only landlords would be benefitted by the repeal. This objecdon coming from the landlords' House is remarkable; and so regarding the matter, as a sort of mere secularization scheme, I do not wonder at its meeting with opposition from those who concientiously hold by the notion of an Established Church. An attempt to get an Act passed this Nession for allowing new trials in criminal cases has failed, but the idea is so favorally viewed as to afford expectation of early success. It is easing to note that the efforts to ameliorate our criminal code so courageously entered upon by Sur S. Romitly are vigorously continued.
