

News of the Week.

ANOTHER MURDER.—A Coroner's Inquest was held yesterday in the City Court-room on the body of a man named Bartholomew Cuisack, who, it appears, came to his death by injuries received on Wednesday evening, the 19th inst., in a house in York Point, kept by a man named Patrick Walsh. The deceased was a resident of Carleton, and came over to this side on that evening in company with one Discoll, and both went to Walsh's in York Point, where a number of others were drinking. Considerable discrepancy appeared in the evidence of those who were in the house at the time of the murder. Some swearing that there was no quarrel, no scolding, and some said that the deceased struck at Walsh across the counter, and others stated that the deceased was so drunk that he fell with his head against the stove, and knocked down the stove-pipe. Walsh, the landlord, swore distinctly that he saw a man named McCarty, take up a deal end in both hands, and strike deceased on the head so hard a blow that it might be heard by all in the house, and that some cried out "don't kill the man." Dr. Ward made a post mortem examination, and discovered fractures in the skull, made by a blow of something with a broad flat surface, which he had no doubt was the cause of his death. The deceased was taken over to Carleton, and survived until Tuesday. The jury, after a few moments deliberation, returned a verdict of "wilful murder" against McCarty, who has been taken into custody. —Globe.

UPHAM BRANCH BIBLE SOCIETY.—A very interesting meeting of the above Society was held at Barnesville on the evening of Tuesday the 18th inst. The Rev. J. R. Lawson, in whose Church the meeting was convened presided on the occasion. Interesting and instructive addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Albrighton, (Wesleyan Methodist), Ferrie, (Free Church), Staveland, (Reformed Presbyterian), Samuel Henderson Esq., and Mr. William Tweeddale. A collection was taken in aid of the funds of the Society. Subscriptions were reported to the amount of about Twenty Pounds. The proceedings were enlivened by several Missionary Anthems sung by the choir. We sincerely congratulate the inhabitants of the very prosperous village of Barnesville on the formation of such a promising branch of the Bible Society, and wish them every success in their works of faith and labour of love. —Presbyterian.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A St. George Correspondent, informs us of the sudden death on Monday last, of an elderly man named Alexander Arnold, living at Bucks Harbor, Penfield. It appears that the deceased had just left the dinner table where he had eaten a hearty meal, when he complained of a pain in his side and shoulder, and called for his wife, who having come to him, he clasped her in his arms and immediately expired. It is thought his death was caused, or at least hastened, by a tumor on his shoulder with which he had been for many years afflicted. —ib.

A very interesting lecture was delivered at the Mechanic's Institute on Monday evening, by W. R. M. Burris Esq. Subject—"The future of the British North American Possessions, considered in connection with the projected Pacific Railway." —ib.

A fire broke out last night about half-past eight o'clock, on the premises of Mr. Young, on Charlotte Street—considerable damage was done to a barn of Mr. Young's, and some hay was destroyed. —ib.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.—The Paris correspondence of the Times on the point of these topics is quite interesting under date of 4th, we have the following: "I have just heard that during the eve of day, the Emperor told the Austrian Minister, Hubner, that he regretted their relations were so bad, but that his personal sentiments for the Emperor of Austria were the same as ever."

I may add that a rumor circulates, but for the truth of which I do not vouch, that Marshal Vaillant, Minister of War, went up subsequently to Hubner and said to him, "I suppose I must not give you my hand after that."

The same correspondent, writing on the following day, says: "The few words addressed by the Emperor to M. Hubner, the Austrian Minister, during the reception of yesterday, and which I communicated in a postscript, are, find, literally correct. They were spoken with a more emphatic tone of voice and animated gesture than the Emperor usually employs, and reminded some of the listeners of a scene between the First Consul and the English Ambassador of that day, previous to the rupture of the treaty of Amiens. They are commented upon in various ways in all circles where politics are the topic, and I learn that in the higher financial regions where they are known they have produced an effect which it is difficult to exaggerate."

SPAIN.—The Madrid despatch of the 1st instant, to the London 'News,' says:—"The Ministry declare that Spain will never sell Cuba, and protest against the insulting hypothesis to the contrary implied in the American President's Message. Glazgra has brought forward a motion supporting the Ministerial declaration, which is unanimously approved."

ITALY.—The Paris correspondent of the London 'Globe' says that the news from every part of Italy is pregnant with alarm. The state of public feeling in Austria-Italy continued very unsatisfactory, and the army in the Lombardo-Venetian kingdom had been reinforced by four regiments, and all the men who were on leave of absence had returned to their posts.

The Turin correspondent of the London 'Times' states that a mixed commission, composed of military and police, had been established in Lombardy for the prompt and summary judgment, without regard to the ordinary forms of procedure, of rioters, insurgents and seditious persons. This is almost tantamount to the inauguration of a state of siege.

A letter from Rome dated December 17th thus describes the state of the Jews there:—"I fear that I cannot do anything here in behalf of the Mortara case, because, as I learn the Pope is very indignant at the public censure made by the public press on this subject, and thinks the Jews are the authors, though no steps appear to be taken (openly) by the Papal government against the Jews, nevertheless, there is indirectly plainly discernible the commencement of a very severe system of persecution. The recent search of Jewish houses for Christian servants was executed suddenly, and the fines were imposed without any justification or witness, or opportunity for defence. I know the Pope had given positive orders that the instructions on this point shall be carried out with the greatest rigor. A young man, an Israelite, who has been lately examined as a physician, and who passed his examination, and was found fully competent to receive a license to practise his profession has been refused the license simply on account of his religion, nor could he even procure permission to act in the capacity of an assistant in an apothecary's shop."

In several towns in the provinces your brethren cannot stop at all, whether for business or otherwise, without being subject to fine or imprisonment. Indeed, my good friend, persecutions against the Israelites in the dominions of the Pope are again rearing their heads, I regret to say, to the infamy of the Latin church, and to the disgrace and shame of the age in which we live. When will the so-called Christian nations act for themselves, and with or against others in accordance with their high pretensions?

The following synopsis contains the gist of the news per "Europa":—"The despotism caused by Napoleon's menace to the Austrian Minister continued. The panic continued on the Paris Bourse, the decline at one time being 2 1/4 per cent, since New Year's."

On the 7th, the Monitor published the following paragraph:—"For several days public opinion has been agitated by alarming reports, which it is the duty of government to put a stop to by declaring that nothing, in diplomatic relations, authorizes the fears which those reports tend to provoke." This caused a slight improvement in the funds in Paris and London, but was only temporary, and all improvement was subsequently lost.

It is reported that France has sent a very threatening note to Austria, warning her of the consequence of Austrian troops crossing the Serbian frontier.

Accounts from Italy continue very alarming. Austria is sending strong reinforcements to Lombardy, where her garrisons are on a war footing.

An outbreak was anticipated at Milan. It was rumored, but not confirmed, that the city was in a state of siege.

Great agitation existed likewise at Cremona, Modena, and elsewhere.

A scuffle is reported to have taken place between Austrian and Hungarian soldiers at Cremona.

Further details of the debate in the Spanish Chambers on Buchanan's message show that O'Donnell expressed great surprise at the proposition in regard to Cuba, and declared the government disposed to demand satisfaction for such an insult. He declared emphatically that Spain would never cede any of her territory.

Austria has abandoned the project of concentrating an imposing force on the Serbian frontier.

Great depression prevailed at Vienna. The object of the conspiracy at Cracow was to recover the independence of the Republic.

It is rumored, but not credited, that Russia had succeeded in negotiating a loan of several millions sterling with Rothschilds, London.

IRELAND.—Ireland no longer worships one great agitator and raises a tribute for his support, but she seems to be returning towards the type of the last century—the Defenders and the United Irishmen—who believed that the only way to promote the benefit of their country was to make her either a democratic republic or into two or three departments of the French empire.

A misdirected national spirit, the natural hatred of the priesthood for a heretical government, an entire miscalculation of the power of Great Britain, a narrow and provincial arrogance, and a wonderful ignorance of the resources, position and views of France and America, so far from being diminished by the recent increase of prosperity and wealth, seem actually to have been increased by it. We must not assume that in all cases prosperity brings forth the better parts of a character. There are races and there are nations where this is actually the reverse. It seems hardly creditable that people should seriously contemplate such schemes of political regeneration as that broached by the Phoenix Society; but rightly considered, such a feeling is not more inexplicable than the avowed sympathy with the Russians in the Crimean war, the joy over the Sepoy massacres, or the hearty wish for the success of the Indian mutiny.

The antipathy of Celt against Saxon is by no means worn out. Recent prosperity has restored some of the confidence which adversity had shaken, and we enter once more on the era of secret societies and treasonable plots.

INSURRECTION IN SYRIA.—Advices have been received from Lebanon to the 25th November. Notwithstanding the death of several of the insurrectional chiefs and the submission of the Syrian tribes, disagreement and disorder increase continually, and the inhabitants of Syria implore the protection of the European powers. A fight had taken place near Damascus with a horrible slaughter of the Mutuals (a Syrian tribe), by the Nomades.

It is proposed to ask the intervention of France and England to put an end to this horrible state of things. It is indeed deplorable that this beautiful region of the earth should be nominally under the rule of the Turk, but literally in a state of anarchy, life and property unsafe, and no man able to calculate with any approach to certainty what may be the next movement in the country.

CONVERTS AMONG THE JEWS.—At one of the prayer meetings in Boston recently, Rev. Dr. Jenks stated that he had learned from a Jewish convert with whom he had been conversing that upwards of thirty Jews had become Christians within a short period at New York. He said a spirit of inquiry had sprung up among the synagogues, in this city which was leading to more tolerant views of the New Testament, and to a more thorough examination of the prophecies in regard to the Messiah.

The converted Jew, to whom Dr. Jenks alluded, subsequently spoke in corroboration of what he had stated. He affirmed that there were now six hundred converted Jews ministering as missionaries in this and foreign lands. He hoped the brethren would not overlook the claims of the Jews. Business intercourse must afford frequent opportunities of conversing with them, and of calling their attention to the Gospel of Christ. Does it not seem that the set time has come.

MARRIED.

At Woodstock on the 31st ult., at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. C. E. Bell, Mr. R. M. Shaw, of the Parish of Wakefield, to Miss Elizabeth Jones, of Woodstock, both of Carleton County.

At Upper Brighton, on the 30th inst., by the same, Mr. Allan C. Tomkins, to Miss Debra Ann Tilley, both of the Parish of Brighton, Carleton County.

At the same place, by the same, Mr. James Brooken, of the Parish of Brighton, to Miss Catherine Dawport, of the Parish of Kent both of Carleton County.

At the Wesleyan Parsonage, Woodstock, on Wednesday, the 19th inst., by the Rev. J. Prince Mr. Henry Sharp, to Miss Eliza Faulkner, both of Wakefield.

DIED.

On Wednesday morning, after a long and tedious illness which she bore with Christian fortitude, Isabella M., wife of James R. McLean, and daughter of the late Capt. John Brown, aged 28 years. Funeral from her late residence, Sea Side, on Saturday, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

On Monday, 24th inst., after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude, Mrs. Eliza Miller, aged 43 years, wife of Mr. S. D. Miller, of this City, deceased has left a husband and eleven children to mourn her loss.

On the 17th inst., at the residence of his father—with a hope blooming with immortality and eternal life.—Joseph W., son of Joshua and Sarah Snow, in the 22nd year of his age.

He sleeps in Jesus—peaceful rest!—His name is written with the blessed.

On the 9th inst., Sarah Esther, daughter of Nathaniel and Jerusha Fletcher, aged 8 years and 6 months.

At the residence of their father, Lower Woodstock, on the 1st inst., Fannie, aged 16 years and 7 months. And on the 9th inst., Maria, aged 14 years and 7 months, beloved daughters of George and Francis Trafton. They evinced, during their sickness and death, a truly pious resignation to the will of God, and left the most pleasing evidence that they had not forgotten to prepare for another and better world.

Of Scarlat Fever, at Wakefield, C. C., on the 13th inst., Edgar Frank, the only child of Wm. Benjamin and Louisa Shaw, aged 4 years and 9 months. How true that our days are as a shadow that appeareth for a moment, and then vanisheth away. He was a promising youth. At the age of six months, his father pressed him to his bosom and gave him a farewell kiss, and returned him to his affectionate wife, and went in pursuit of the golden mines in California, forgetting himself with the hope of meeting them again after he had received the desired treasure. Mrs. Shaw, for the last four years, has been deprived of the society of her husband; and as days and months rolled tediously around, she has often been cheered by the features of her little son, and the happy time when they should meet again. But alas! how soon that pledge of comfort has been taken away.

Stem Death has been a lovely flower, In all his youthful bloom, and in his sweet smile, And caused the friends who loved him well, To shroud him in the tomb.

A brilliant star was here a while, Unto our pathway given; But now, he shines upon us, The golden paths of Heaven.

God called sweet Edgar home, Some holy place to fill, On Zion's holy hill.

Within the pearly gates, He waits for each of you to come; High Heaven a sweet re-union grant, In thy celestial home.

The funeral took place on Sabbath morning, at the Meeting House, Victoria corner. Sermon preached by the Rev. C. E. Bell, to a large concourse of people, from John, 11th ch., 25th verse. "The Master is come, and calleth for thee."

REV. S. W. BRUNSON.—J. Harding's paper will go until the end of 1859. The 2s 6d only to be sent us. FOR LIQUIDATION OF CONFERENCE DEBT.

Those Brethren and friends who feel interested in the Liquidation of our Conference debt, will not doubt be glad to see the response that is being made to the affectionate appeal made to them by the Conference held in October last, as appears by the amounts subscribed in this days paper. We have also heard from a number of others, that the only cause of their delay is the present scarcity of money, and that they will in a short time remit their contributions. Those who have thus come forward with their timely aid for the relief of the parties who by Conference appointment have been placed under the burden, may rest assured that in addition to the approval of conscience they feel, they will also be held in ever grateful remembrance by those thus relieved.

CURTIS & PERKINS. Cramp and Pain Killer. It is idle to dispute the efficacy of CURTIS & PERKINS' CRAMP AND PAIN KILLER; it stands the test better than any other medicine ever introduced to the public. All other Pain Killers sink into insignificance in comparison with it. Try it. Be sure and ask for Curtis & Perkins' Cramp and Pain Killer. For sale generally throughout the Province.

Mothers! Mothers! Mothers!!! AN OLD NURSE FOR CHILDREN.—Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It is no equal on Earth. No mother who has ever used it can fail to be satisfied. It is a safe and reliable remedy for all the distressing and critical period of teething, without the aid of this valuable preparation. If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold. Millions of babies are yearly sent into the United States. It is an old and well-tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE. "None genuine unless the name—Curtis & Perkins, New York, is on the outside wrapper."

TESTIMONIALS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES.—A pleasing travelling companion, and one that no person should be without is Perry Davis' Pain Killer. A sudden attack of diarrhoea, dysentery, or cholera morbus can be effectually and instantaneously relieved by it. It is equally effective in curing scalds, burns, &c.

Thomas S. Ranney, writing from Rangoon, Burma, December 19, 1855, says:—"It is becoming more popular, and in several instances I am assured that cholera has been arrested and life preserved by its use. The late prevalence of cholera here has swept off about all the Pain Killers I had, and purchases looking to me for a supply will be disappointed in my ability to supply them. Please send me an invoice of $150 worth by the first opportunity."

Messrs. P. Davis & Son—Dear Sirs: The Pain Killer, we are happy to say, is getting in good repute here, and its good qualities are being appreciated. We have a great demand for the article, and confidently anticipate a large trade in the Pain Killer.
