For the Religious Intelligencer. BY GEORDIE LUMAN.

The Gospel of our gracious Lord, Is like the dow of morn; That comes from Heaven, in copious showers, The Christian to adorn.

It to the weary soul bestowes A balm that gives it rest; It heals the hearts of weary ones, And makes the wretched blest,

It tells us how our Saviour King For us poor sinners bled: Who on the cross, was crucified, With thorns around his head,

It despels those angry feelings That brings us many woes: It allays our angry passions, And joy, and peace restores

A PRAYER.

"O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come."-PSALM ixv. 2.

Father divine! to thee. In this, the holy, solemn, autumn time, My soul, anew, would consecrated be; My aims, my hopes, my wishes, all be thine.

Let every storm be stayed; Each throb of selfish care forgotten be; My heart, no more of earthly ills afraid, Resigns its all to thee !

Calm dawn of peace, O bless my soul once more, a welcome guest; Bid each rude chord of worldly passion cease, And sorrow bring no more its dark unrest.

Thou! before whom The purest angel veils his radiant face; To thee, the High, the Holy One, I come, Pleading for strength, for mercy, and for grace.

Thou! who dost see The agony a human heart can bear; in lowliness I yield to thy decree, In loneliness beseech thy hand to spare.

Weary of life, the wounded spirit faints.

Yet bows in confidence beneath thy rod; The hour will come, when, freed from earth's restraints, My soul shall know thee nearer, oh my God! A little way

Still reaches onward in this human strife;

Shall consummate the close of mortal life. Imperfect though my prayer, My heart its future state resigns to thee; If but thy favor I may seek to share,

Press on, my soul, for an eternal day

My lot, whilst here, can never hopeless be. Faint not, nor weary be; All sorrow ceases when the goal is won; I would, with joy, be what thou makest me;

Fainer, in earth, as heaven, thy will be done. Lodi, N. J. Little Bettie.

" Hand me some water, buddy, wont you."

" In a minute, Bettie." And Bettie's fevered cheeks were pressed again to the pillow; and little Harry's hand went on as busily as ever with the trap he was making, and, at length, he entirely forgot the request.

"Please get it now, buddy," he at last heard, and scattering knife, triggers, and strings in his haste, he was soon holding a cup to her crimson lips. But she turned her head languidly " Not this please; but some fresh and cold from the well," she said.

"O don't be so particular, Bettie; this is fresh; and I'm so busy I can't go now; won't this do ?"

She no longer refused, but quietly took the cup which he offered; and it was the last, last time she ever called upon her brother for an act of kindness; ere another day had passed, she stood beside the river of life, and drank its cool waters, never to thirst again. And all who wept over that little brown coffin, as it lay on the table before the pulpit, there were none who shed more bitter tears than the little boy who decould not forget that he had refused the last request of his little sister.

Little children, are you kind to one another, or are you cross selfish, and fretful? Remember, then, the time will come when they will be beyond your reach; and then, O how gladly would you give all you possess to have them back again! You might gather all your books and toys; everything for which you are now so willing to contend, but all you could do with them would be to place them on the grave of one you had wronged. It would not bring them back. Henry ST. JOHN LIVERY STABLES, South side King's Square, St. John N. "O, mother!" he would say, "If I had only brought that water for her I could bear it but now she is where I can never, never wait on her again."

Think of this when you are tempted to quarrel, to be selfish, or unkind; for do you know if one of you should die, the rest would remember every set of unkindness, every bitter word which had fallen from their lips. But then it would be too late to recall it, too late to ask forgiveness. -N. C. Presbyterian.

There are two things about this herb that appears to me surprising; first, that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1840 -second, that it should cure all kinds of humor.
In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and grea pularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I eddled it, and sold about six bottles per day: in April, 1854 sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

applied to this disease failed to give relief, and that having heard of Dr. Leury's Anglo Saxon Medicines, he purchased a supply and that in one month they had performed a most wonderful cure. TAny person wishing to be fully informed regarding the cure can obtain all the particulars on application to Mr. Denton, who wishes all who may be similarly affected to give the Anglo Saxon Medicines a Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia Cured. Mr. Christoph r Vail of Bellisle, King's County,

New Brunswick, writes to Dr. Leary and says, that he had been troubled with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for 3 years which produced great General De-bility and loss of flesh; he was reduced to a mere skeleton so that last January he weighed only 75 pounds! By the advice of his neighbours he was induced to purchase some of Dr. Leary's Anglo Sexon Medicines which in two months produced a most salutary effect, as in March he had increased in weight to 122 pounds, and by continuing the use of these medicines on the 10th August he weighed 146 pounds. He says that his neighbours who were aware of his should be made public. Even those which do possess some virtue are held at such exorbitant prices that they do not come within reach of the poor; while they, above all, are the most liable to suffer from the consequence of neglect and exposure

Do not the poor suffer daily? It is true they do, for the want of a medicine which they are unable to purchase.
The proprietor of the Vegetable Cough Candy has obviated this difficulty by inventing a Medicine compounded of twenty-nine different ingredients, extracted from the Vegetable Kingdom, and sold at a price which will place it within the reach of all. It is well known that many ingredients with used singly are inefficacious, but when combined with others are highly salutary.

Macer's Vegetable Cough Candy centains the most essential ingredients of which other contains the most essential ingredients of which other Cough Candies are composed, with several additional kinds, the combined power of which is sufficient to heal, in part, every malady to which the human system is liable (which does not require the aid of a surgeon,) if attended to The numerous ingredients composing this Candy have been recommended by many physicians of eminence, some of whom are among the most celebrated in the United States. The pleasantness of this medicine gives it an advantage over others, while it is unnecessary to use any persuasion to induce children to use it.

F. A. COSGROVE & CO., iv 75 Prince Wm. St THE GREAT WONDER OF THE NINETBENTH CENLURY,

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no enconiums, nor useless puffery

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.; GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white my whiskers were of same character. Some three white my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I produced a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that wheever will rightly use, as

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that wheever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly everyon here and adjoining towns. Any use you make of the abeve with my name attached, is at you seruice, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly, yours,

WOOD'S HAIR RESTOKATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune. lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the ye low fever, in New Orleans in 1854. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glessy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

The undersigned Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and paster of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Brookfield, January 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Hav ag made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

The Restorrtive is put up in Bottles of 3 sizes, viz. large medium and small; the small holds & a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent, more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent, more in proportion and realize for $3 a bottle.
