PRAYER NEETING IN BOSTON .- The daily noon menced in Globe Hall during the recent religious interest in this city, have been continued through the summer months. The attendance in the evening is quite large, and marked by much interest. The "Watchman and Reflector" says: "Conversions have been occurring from week to week. Among these have been some cases, as heretofore, in which brands ap. pear to have been plucked from the burning. On the fourth of Jaly-our nation's birthdaythe mate of a ship, a noble son of the ocean, ex perienced the new birth in Christ Jesus, and goes on his way rejoicing. Other examples of conversion give encouragement to continued effort and prayer."-[Buston Journal.

News of the Week.

It has seldom fallen to our lot to chronicle a more melancholy occurrence than that which happened off this karbour on Saturday last.

A company of young persons, eleven in number, left Reed's Point on the morning of that day, intending to spend a few hours in the vicimty of Red Head. When within about a mile of there, a squall struck the boat, rendering her unmanageable. She quickly filled and sunk, only two persons out of the company leing saved. Those lost were a Miss Wayne, the Misses M'Gaher, daughters of widow M'Gahey, of this city; two Miss Wilson's, and their brother; William, aged 13 years, and Charles, aged 9 years, sons of Captain Petch, residing at Reed's Point, and Mr. Charles E. M'Gee, (native of Dublin,) a boarder in Captain Petche's kouse. The only persons saved were Messrs. Hicks and | Committee of Management-any five of whom N. B.

A letter published in the Wesleyan from a member of the British Wesleyan Conference, recently held in Manchester, says that the increase of that body during the last year has been in round numbers 15,000, and on trial upwards of 25,000. Eighty-four young men offered themselves for the work of the ministry, and was accepted. Thirty-two ministers had died during last year, and thirteen have become supernumeraries.

A great political pic-nic was held at Kentville N. S. a few days since, by the party in favour of On motion of J. R. Ruel, Esq.,the present government of that Province. Some rascels-of what nationality we know not-have recent ly been making peregrinations through the courtry, appropriating, without leave or license, all the yarn which they could lay their hands upon. They succeeded in making off with a very large quantity from different farms in Jacksontown. Being pursued, however, they dropped their vehicle and the booty and succeeded in escaping themselves. One of their party, a few days since, called at Mr. E. A. Cunliffe's and left a horse there to pasture, and a little further on stole another (this latter has been recovered). Mr. Cunliffe subsequently ascertained that the horse left with him had been painted, so as to after his apearance, and the supposition is that all would have been taken, for on going on deck oner, S. JOHN A. MACE, Carleton, St. John, N. B., July 20, 1859.

DR. LEARY Deal Sir. -- In bringing my name before the public, I do it cheerfully, so that suffering humanity may derive benefit from the Anglo saxon Medicine, as I am happy to say I have. After trying the most skillful physicians in the United States and this Province, as also the most celebrated remedies, Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy for Affisma included.
The great difference between your remedy and all other remedies I have tried previous are as follows. The former medicines pailiate the disease; the Anglo Saxon endicates
it. I wish all who may be suffering from Asthma would avail themselves of so great a blessing. I remain, sir, with high esteem, yours, very truly.

Dr. Leary—
Dear sir:—This is to certify that I have for some time been afflicted with a hacking cough, and a difficulty in expectorating of phiegm. I have tried all the remedies so highly recommended in Lung complaints, but to no effect in my case. I purchased one bottle of your Albion Liniment, and one bottle of cough mixture. The former I rubbed to my neck and chest, the latter I took thirty drops in a little sugar; three doses I am happy to say, removed all my trouble. I am now in good health. For the benefit of the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish this certificate. Believe me, sir, I shall always feel grateful for the benefit derived from the Anglo-saxon Medicine. Yours respectfully, Vis, Pr & Al-1y] DR. LEABY-
