(To the Editors of the Religious Intelligencer.) With the waning year let me breathe to yourselt and to the readers of your newspaper a salutation of peace, and an exhortation to prayer. Is not prayer the pathway to peace? How much of human selfistness and sorrow have blurred the records of this year, only one mind knows,-but that mind divine has also taken cognizance of EALED TH exthe thoughts and efforts consecrated to His service. With all its faults and excesses we may nd y that improvement has been written on 1858. LIQUIDATION OF CONFERENCE DEBT.

Several shareholders said that such matters could not be entertained by the meeting, and the Chairman said that pending negotiations with the Government, the proposition ought not to be discussed.

In regard to the recent arrests in Ireland of members of the Phœnix Club, the Cork Constitution says, treason was carried much farther than suspected; there were daily and nightly drillings, pikes were manufactur-ed, arms imported from America, and the use of them taught .--- The Government was not a minute too carly in interfering. A body of military and militia had been distributed through the Western portion of the County Cort to prevent an insurrection.

The Balfast Mercury says there is little ducht that the Phoenix Club is entirely seditious, and made up of Young Irelandismseventeen persons had been arrested at falfast in addition to those at Cork. Government was expected to issue a special com-mission for immediate trial of the prisoners.
