The Ark of God.

What vessel are you sailing in? Pray tell to me its name; Our vessel is the "Ark of God," And Christ our captain's name.

Hoist every sail to catch the gale, Each sailor ply his oar; The night begins to wear away ; We soon shall reach the shore.

And what's the port your sailing to? Now tell me that straightway. The New Jerusalem's the port, The realms of endless day. Chorus.- Hoist every sail. &c.

> Our compass is the sacred word, Our anchor, blooming hope; The love of God the main-top sail, And faith our cable-ropc. Chorus .-- Hoist every sail, &c.

How many have you now on board The noble ship divine? Ten thousand thousand happy souls, And numbers none can tell. Chorus .- Hoist every sail, &c.

But are you not afraid some storm Your bark will overwhelm? We need not fear, the Lord is near, Our Father's at the helm. Chorus .- Hoist every sail, &c.

We've looked astern, and many a storm The Lord has brought us through ; We're looking now abroad and lo! The land appears in view. Chorus .- Hoist every sail &c.

The sun is up, the clouds are gone, The heavens above are clear; The city bright appears in sight, We're getting round the pier. Chorus.-Hoist every sail, &c.

> Heave out your boat, I'll go along, If you can find me room; We've room for you, for all the world, Maks no delay to come. Chorus.- Hoist every sail, &c.

And when we are all landed safe On that celestial plain, Worthy the Lamb, shall be our song, For rebel sinner slain. Cherus.-Hoist every sail, &c.

The afternoon was very fine, and as I slowly followed the serpent-like windings of the rail road, conversation very naturally turned to the scenes and incidents of our walk,-the gayly plumed songsters, the chattering squirrel, our attention.

Becoming wearied, at length, we sat ourselves down on a grassy knoll by the side of the rail-road, about two hundred vards below where a sharp angle occurs, hiding it from view. Our little boy was higher up on the bank, busily plucking the blue-bells and dandelions, that grew in profusion around, and we soon lost sight of him altogether.

My wife was engaged in perusing a copy of "Baxter's Saint's Rest," while I had cast myself on the grass beside her, enwrapt in the beauty of the landscape spread to view. There a field of tasselling corn gently waved to and fro, whele here a field of sweet-scented clover shed its grateful fragrance on the air. Perate case of rhuematism.

Three to four bottles are warranted to the salt rhuem.

Five to 5 hottles will cure the worst case of scorfula.

A benefit i always experienced from the first bottle and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken Dear Madam,—The reputation of the Medical Discovery in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established by the unanimous voice of all who hase ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skilful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its cureative powers, in releiving all and curing most of these diseases to which you are nufortugately so liable. That most excruciating disease in affectionate mother.

NURSING SORE MOUTH. is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restore to its natural sweet oss, and your babe from a short at fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medic

Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husbar In the more advanced stages of it extends to the stomach, rausing DYSPEPSIA, CANKER which is nothing but cauker on intestines and KIDNEYS, creates a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even t the cares of your family. Your stomach is RAW AND INFLAMED, your food distressed you, and you can only take certa kinds and even of that your system does not get helf the nourisament it contains, as the acrimonous fluid of of the canker eats it up then your complexion looses its bloom and becomes shallow and greenish and your best day igone. For want of nourishment your syste Lecome loose and dabby and the fibers of your body become relax ed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Media Discovery is peculiarly adayted to. CURE; Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine, and small of the back, pain of the hip joint whe you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also the most experience.

PILES. How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pin ng away a miserable life, and their next door neighby does not know the cause wish a impress on your mind that good old proverb, "An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A compound remedy in which we have bored to produce the most effectual altern tive that can be made. It is a concentrat extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alter lative power as to afford an effective and dote for the dise is a Sarsaparilla is repute to cure. It is believed to at such a remed is wanted by those who suffer from Strum and that one which will accomplish the is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove an immence service to this large class of our afflicted fellow citizens. How completly this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cas sto be found in the following complaints.
Scorfula and Scrofilous cemplaints, Eruptions, and Eruptive Diseases, Uleers, Pimples, Blotches, Tomors, Salt Rheum Scald Head, Syph his and y hitic Affections, Mercural Disease, Dropsey, Neuralgia or Tic Doulourous, Debitity, Dyspepsia, and indigestion, Eryspelas, Rose of St. Anthony's fire and indiced the whole class of complaints arising from impurity of the blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of tine year by the timeity expulsion of many of them rankling d sorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can by the aid of this remedy spare thems ives frem the endurance of foul eruptions and spare thems lves frem the endurance of font eruptions a ulcerous sores through which the system will strive to itse'f of corruptions, if but ass' sted to so through the na al channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cle out the vitivated blood whenever you find its impuri out the vitivated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, ernptions, or sorest clease it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the vains; clease it whenever it is foul and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is fell people enjoy better health and lives longer for clesing the blood. Keep the blood healthy and miles well; but with this palbum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong and the great machinary of life disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has and deserves in the reputation, of accomplishing those ends. But the world has been eggienely deceived by preparations of it, partily because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, protending to be concern. more because many preparations, protending to be concerned extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sar trated extracts of it contain but little of the virtue of Sars parilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by lar hettles, pretending to give a quart of extract of Sursaparil for one dollar. Most of those have been frauds upon it sick, for they uot only contain little if any Sarsaparill but often no curative proportions whatever. Hense bitt and painful disappointment has followed the use of twarious extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the marks until the name of itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call the compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedia schall rescue the name from the load of oblique which trests upon it. And we think we have ground for heleiving thas virtues which are irresistables by the ordidary for the large of the surface of the large of the same from the load of the legical trests upon it. And we think we have ground for heleiving the surface of the large of the same from the load of the legical trests upon it.

t has virtues which are irresistables by the ordidary of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to see their complete eradication from the system, the renshould be judiciously taken according to the direction DR. J. C. AYER & CO.
