THE ONLY PRIMPAR

THE FULTON STREET PRAYER MEETING -For some weeks past there has been a growing spiritual interest in the Fulton street player meeting. It manifests itself in the increased fer-vor of the prayers of christians, in their deeper humility, in their open confession of more ear-nest desires after higher attainments and usefulness in divine life, and in their anxieties for the conversation of the impenitent.

The meeting is so crowded, even in these hot days, and in this dull season when few come to the city and multitudes leave it, that two lecture rooms have to be occupied, and two meetings are going forward at the same time.

The presence and power of the Holy Spirit is manifest from the fact that nearly every day some impenitent young men, of their own accord, rise and ask an interest in the prayers of the meet-ing, or rise to speak of the Saviour they have found.

The spirit of the meeting is a still, tender, melting spirit, and the conviction is fasiened on all minds that the Holy Spirit is here in his great and mys erious power, subduing all hearts to himself. The character of the meeti g is the same as in 1858: and some who has attended from the beginning, think that there has never been a deeper interest, at any time, than at present. 14. Y. Observer.

Gov. Sir A. Bannerman met His Royal Highness on Quren's Wharf, and conducted him to carriage, drove from thence through triumphal arches to Government House.

Procession consisted of Masonic body, S:. Andrew's, St. George's, British, Mechanics, Temperance, Native and Irish Societies, and Volunteer Fire Company. Guard of Honour Royal Newfoundland Corps, and first, second, third and fourth Volunteer Rifle Corps.

At I o'clock, Prince held levee at Government House, and dined with Governor this evening. Immense concourse of speciators, and great enthusiasm prevailed.

ADDRESSES AND REPLY.

Several Addresses were presented to His Royal Highness on Wednesday to which he replied :--

"I sincerely thank you for the addresses presented to me, and for the hearty welcome received trom all on landing on the shore of this the earliest Colonial possession of the British Crown. I trust you will not think me regardless of your zealous loyalty if I acknowledge these addresses collectively. It will afford me the greatest satisfaction to report to the Queen your devotion to her crown and person, unmistakably evinced by your reception of her son, eloquently expressed in addresses from various Bodies in this Town and Harbour Grace.

"I am charged by the Queen to convey to you the assurance of the deep concern ever felt for this interesting portion of her dominions, I shall carry back lively recollections of this day's proceedings,-of kindness to myself personal y, but above all, of those hearty demonstrations of patriotism which prove your deep-rooted attachment to the great and free country of which we all glory to be called the sons."
