Sharing smiles and tears together, Lengthened years have come and gone, And their changes, often bitter, We in mutual love have borne. But should life its sorrows double, All its pleasures blasted be, In the darkest hour of trouble, Sister, I'll remember thee.

Should the Saviour call thee homeward, First in glory bright to rise, First, to join those dearest loved ones, Who have left us for the skies; Then, a spirit bright, oft lingering Round my home, methinks I see, As my watchful, guardian angel, Sister, then I'll think of thee.

Then I'll linger where you'r sleeping, Listening close to hear you call, While thy spirit's gentle breathings, On my heart in music falls, And thy sweet, angelic whispering-O, how cheering then to me, In this sweet and blest assurance, Sister, I'll remember thee.

But that whisper-something tells me, Of the rapid flight of time, And it speaks of my departure, Even nearer still than thine. Should the Savior sooner call me, And from earth my spirit free, In that home of light or glory, Sister, I'll remember thee.

Fare-thee-well; perchance we never, Never here may meet again-But can time or distance sever, Deathless love's cemented chain? No! our hearts in sweetest union, Mingling still where'er we be, Bound in friendship's sweet communion, Sister I'll remember thee.

E ven death shall not divide us, For, in Jesus we are one, And we'll praise Him there together, Midst that bright aud shining throng, In that sweet and heavenly union, Where the ransomed all agree, Spirit there with spirit mingling, Sister I'll remember thee,

The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjeining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statzment; I give i to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You could sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining deal of your han counties if you have the proper agents, Yours, &c.,

The MSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood,—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quit efficacious as well as agreeable.

The Restorative is putup in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds 1-2 a pint, and retails medium, and small; the small holds 1-2 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3.

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of Dr. Eaton's INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? because it never faits to afford lastentaneous relief when given in time. 't acts as it by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It

NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the suf-ferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sens bil-ities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for Children Teething, Diarrnoea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Cold in the Head, and Cronp, also, for softening the goms, reducing inflamation, regulating the Bowers, and releaving pain, it has no equal—being an auti spasmodic it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Conversion or other Firs. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and highting consequences which are certain for solt from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for infantile Complaints are composed, take none but Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate in fant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions accompany each CHURCH & DUPONT,
