Rollin represents Hannibal as saying to his | feet. soldiers on the eve of one of his great battles-" It is not words we want, but actions." His soldiers acted, and as the result above seventy thousand Romans fell on the battle-field. I have some where read of Demosthenes that when asked What is the first part of an orator? he replied, Action ;-What the second? Action; and what the third?-Action;-so we may say the first, second and third part of a Christian is, Action.

Up! warriors, up! the night is dark,
The contest fiercer grows;
Press onward, upward to the mark, And fearless face your foes.

Sleep not upon enchanted ground, But bravely play the man
If you would at the last be found As soldiers in the van.

Trust not in native strength, and vaunt To sing the victor's song: It is not words, but deeds we want To shew where we belong.

While devils now surround our path As messengers of light, But they are full of hate and wrath To Christians, truth and right.

The devil knows his time is short And dreads the final hour, And therefore, as a last resort, Has sought religious power.

In olden time he used the sword, The fagot and the flame, To kill the servants of the Lord. And extirpate their name.

But now he thinks that men may have A name to live while dead, If they will not in Christ believe And own Him as their Head: They may have form without the power,-

Religion as a cloak-Serve Christ in word, but every hour Wear Satan's galling yoke. A state of things like this proclaims

And robed in glorious majesty Our Saviour will descend. Then, soldiers up! the night is dark The contest fiercer grows: Press onward—upward to the mark,

And bravely face your fees.

The warfare soon will end,

Things to Talk About.

(NO. I.) THE TIPSY MAN'S QUESTION.

Returning to town one evening, I met a man partially intoxicated. He carried a small bundle homeward with but indifferent success. His unsteady gait, his flushed and flurried face, and his troubled eye, told only too plainly his unhappy condition. As I passed him, he said, with a Before I could decide what to reply, the oppora text for a short sermon.

2. CHARACTER IS EVERYTHING.

Reputation is nothing in comparison. Human homes they had left. breath makes our reputation, but we make our own characters. The one is what we are in the sight of men, the other is what we are in the sight of God. A fair reputation may consist with a foul character. The reverse is equally true. Christ made himself of no reputation. In character he was lovely, harmless, undefiled. "Thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil;" this was his reputation. "My beloved son, in whom I am well pleased." This told his character. Let it be our chief concern to build u p a good char-

3. SELF-DENIAL IS INSEPERABLE FROM A GOOD

We must deny our appetites, and passions, and preferences. We must crucify self. We must resist temptation. We must watch and pray. A good character requires a good foundation, good material, disligence, care, time. It is not built in a day. It must rest upon THE ROCK.

4. INTEMPERANCE DESTROYS CHARACTER. Intemperance is a moral pestilence. It is a wild tornado. It is a scorching sirocco. It is a cruel tyrant. It is a ruthless monster. It blights and blasts, withers and curses the fairest, the most intellectual, young and old, rich and poor. Let it perish from the land. Dethrone the tyrant! Destroy the monster! Brand the traffic in strong drink! Outlaw it. Let good men wash their hands of it. Let the pure refuse to touch it. Let the pulpit denounce it. Let the pew re-echo the denunciation. No character can withstand it. "Look not upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder."

oak Grove, S. C., June 24th, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative is repidly gaming popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrific blow; causing a great deal of inflation, which communitated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my bar was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its fotal disappearance, I employed everything I could possibly think or, being a professional man myself, and, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to belive, produced a very happy result: two menths afte the first application, I had as heautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence which I flatter mysel to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours v ry respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Yours v ry respectfully,

Office of the Jeffersonian, Philippi, Va., Dec. 12th, 1858

Dear Sir—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induce to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsom head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You could sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents.

Yours, &c., THOMSON SURGHNOR.

Dr. Wood.—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations.

Dr. Wood,—Dear Sir—Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival In the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the appl cation of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quit efficacians as well as agreeable.

S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz large medium, and small; the small holds 1-2 a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bot le; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

SCHOFULA, OR KING'S EVIL 1: a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vi tiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrotuone which it may not destroy. The scrolulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unaealthy food, impure air, filth, and filthy kabits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is bereditary in the constitution, descending
"from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" it deed, it seems so be the rod of flim who says,
"I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and in ternal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand ous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand ous complaints, but they have far less power to winstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Mostof the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scro ulous contamiuntion; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys. brain, and indeed of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the
