literati and thinkers. Some criminal cases have caused considerable excitement. Hopley, the good or evil will come out of this condign punishment. The question of physical correction is not to be judged by a case so extreme ; and too many attempts by the worse class of boys to evade well-deserved chastisement are likely to result. It is well, however, that all teachers of youth should learn the lesson thus taught, that their advantages of strength and anthority cannot be abused without legal responsibility. The murder of the little boy at Road, near France, is a tragedy unpar illeled of its kind. The arrest of his eldest hatf-sisters has only deepened the horror without (at psesent) dissipating the mystery. That in a respectable family a child should be removed from b d and bru ally s'aughtered, in silence, by an inmate of the house, without trace of the offinder, is a startling event, Two police detectives from London have taken up the case alter the failure of the local authorities. In Ecclesiastical circles there is little novelty. St. George's in the East has a prospect of res its from mob law and Pusevite invasion, the rector having gone for a year's continental tour, leaving his parish to the oversight of a low or Broad Church Minister. The trial of the Rev. G. Bronwell in the Eccl si stual court for grossly immoral conduct is proceeding, and the aspect of his case d es not brighten under judicial enquiry. Mr. Spurgeon isstill on the continent. The Wesleyan Conference is now in Session in this city. The Rev. W. W. Stamp is the President elect, and for about a month lager tho ministers in attendance will be engaged with the duties of their anniversary. It is intended to hold a meeting on temperance and prohibition, in the Tabernacle chapel (Wh tholds) Tabernacle walk, adjoining the chapel where Conference meets, and to have i. addressed if possible by Wesleyan ministers only or chiefly. This is, of course, not a conference scheme-I wish it were but one corceived by the friends of the United Kingdom Alliance. It is not here as it is in Ascerica, that the Wesleyan methodists are foremost among the allies of temperance. THE DEFENCES OF ENGLAND-SPEECH OF LORD PALMERSTON. Lord Palmerston has made his speech in Parthe defences of England against invasion, ten million of which is to be spent the present year. That portion of his remarks which caused con- think advisable of my letter. siderable excitement and had some effect upon the Funds both in Loudon and Paris, we extract as follows : "It was impossible for any one to say that the future, charged as the horizon was with clouds, was free from danger. We had recently contracted with our immediate neighbor across the Channel a commercial treaty, and experience had proved that commercial intercourse between na-tions contributed to the preservation of peace, and he hoped much from this treaty. But the treaty along proved that commercial intercourse between na-Biver, Vt., owned by D. F. Murphy, Esq., where a l the hand labor used about a shoe is in lastand he hoped much from this treaty. But the treaty alone would be a frail scentrity for a great nation like this, so open to attack. France had an army of 600,000 men, 400,000 actually in arms, a far greater force than France required for the purpose of defence. He did not mean to say that her arms was raised for the deliberate pur-pose of aggression, but we ought not to rely upon the forbearance of any power, and France was not strenthening herself upon land alone; the ut-most exertions had been made and alone; the ut-most exertions had been made and alone; the ut-most exertions had been made and alone; the utnot strenthening herself upon land alone; the ut-most exertions had been made and kers making to make a navy nearly equal to our own, which could not be required for the defence of France, but which turnished the means of transporting in a few hours a large military force to our shores. He pointed out the dangers to which this coun-try would be exposed by such an attempt; larger try would be exposed by such an attempt ; larger, a Pain Killer.

intervention may involve the Eastern question, but on the other hand, I do not see how to resist public opinion in my country, which will never understand that we can leave unpanished, not only the massacre of Christians, but the burning liament in favor of the project of the Defence Commission, previously appointed, to expend the vast sum of fifty-five million deltars in adding to I have told you all I think, without disguising
