Things to Think About.

BY ALIQUIS. NUMBER XII. THE FIRST PSALM.

The book of Psalms as a precious portion of the inspired velume. If it were obluerated from the memories of God's children, and erased from the pages of the Bible, a want of appulling magnitude would be created. Probably no part of the Scriptures is more frequently read, and more thoroughly incorporated in Christian devotions, The R formed Church prescribed its reading twelve times in each year, while the Gospels were read thrice. The first Psalm is a fitting introduction to the Book of Psalms. It deals in contrast from begioning to end-the contrast presented in the preferences, character and destiny of the godly and the ungodly. There are only two classes of men, whatever varieties they may embrace. There are only two roads to travel-the broad and the narrow. There are only two future states -heaven and hell. Only two sentences will be heard in the day of Judgment, "Come, ye blessed," and "Depart, ye cursed." The whole of Revelation goes upon this principle, and this Psulm contrasts the two classes of

But in contrasting the character, this punishment? a-ked the teacher. part is reversed. The character of the godly is presented under the figure of a tree-well plented-abounding in fruit-beautiful-prosperous; the character of the wicked is given in her. The school was dismissed; and the boys one brief sentence, "He is like the chaff, which the paid him in admiration and praise for all he had wind driveth away." Prof. O. J. Wood—Denr Sir—Your Hair Restorative is repidly an ning popularity in this community. I have had occasion to key preludice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown that a rock wear the rounded. During the year 1854, i was so untertained as to be thrown from my solky against a rock mear the rondeside, from which my head received a latest territe blow; causing a great deal of irribation, which communitate to the brain and external auriance of also head, from the effects of which my har was finally destrayed over the entire uriance of the head. From the time of its total discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I coupleyed everything it could possibly timb of, being a professional main myself and, as i mought, understanding the masse of the discussion was smally defended in ever preactiphen advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced are to resont to your worthy thair destorative, which i have every reason to belive, produced a very happy result; two months after the first application. I had as beautiful a head of your ghair as I ever saw, for I certainly one you my most sincere thanks. Rest assumed, dear sit, I shall steemed your remedy to all inquirers rimoreover, I shall steem, and your remedy to all inquirers rimoreover, I shall steemed your remedy to all inquirers rimoreover, I shall steem and your remedy to all inquirers rimoreover, I shall see my influence which I flatter or goth to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think intoper.

Yours a sy tespectfully,

Dr. Wood, Bent Sir-Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hart to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States E was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Minis Restorative? It more recovered its original har. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful investion, quit emacians as well as agreeable.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds 1-2 a pant, and retribe for one shalar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty for one shalar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty for cent. more in reportion than the small, retaile for twe dollars per bot le; the large holds a quart. 40 per cent. more in proportion and setalls for $2.
