We have had under consideration the Memorandum of Your Excellency of the nineteenth instant, accompanied with the Letter from the Postmaster General, resigning his Office and his Seat in the Council, wi h the reasons he has assigned therefor.

Knowing from the discussions with Mr. Connell that he was prepared to retain his offi e and seat in the Council, if an Order was made to issue the Stamps procured by him, including the Stamp bearing the likeness of the Head of the Department, we are therefore justified in concluding that the Minute of Council of the 8th instant, in which Your Excellency was advised to approve and order to be distributed the one cent, ten cent, and twelve and a hilf cent General, and to order a new five cent Postage Stamp to be struck, bearing the itkeness of the Queen, instead of the five cent Stamp already procured by the Postmaster General is, notwithstanding the other reasons assigned Until means are adopted for the most searching inby him, the real ground of his resignation. Without entering into the discussion of the powers of the different llea.s of Derartments, we observe, that we have no desire to limit or circumscribe the legitimate from the Nor h a fire broke out in Golding St. in authority of the Postmaster General, or of a house belonging to the estate of the late Mr. the Head of any other Public Department. McKee, and occupied by his widow and Mr. Mcand in advising Your Excellency upon this question, we have not desired nor attempted to do so, as by the Act relating to the Post with the adjoining house, and so violently did it Office the approval of the Governor in Council is required to the issue of Postage Stamps.

Your Excellency is aware that no Order was made by Your Excelley in Council authad the consent of his colleagues to obtain Decimal Stamps, but they were procured and being distributed before they were subknown to the Council and submitted it was the opinion of the Council that the five cent

The reference to the expenditure of the Board of Works does not sustain the position Mr Connell assumes, as it was for the payment of balances due for services of 1859,

We cannot discarn how the Revenue of the Post Office Department will be affected by the action of the Government; that must depend upon the extent of individual correspondence, and we do, not believe that there will be a single Letter less written in consequence of such action.

As Mr. Connell has obtained Your Excellency's permission to publish his Letter to Your Excellency, we respectfully request Your Excelency will authorize the publication of this our reply. (Signed)

Our city seems almost doomed to be destroyed Postage Stamps procured by the Postmaster by fires. The large number of alarms, and the numerous buildings which have been consumed during the present season afford unquestionable evidence that incendiarianism is quite common-

DEATH OF THE REV DR. KNIGHT .--- Many of our readers will be surprised to hear of the sudden death of this venerable and widely known Wesleyan Minister. He left home (in Sheffield.) we learn a few days since for Sackvil e, to be present at the examination of the pupils in the Academy at the close of the term. He was taken sick while there, and after a few days illness closed his mortal career. Dr. Knight was one of the most highly respected minister in the count y, and an incompromising friend of the Temperance cause. His death will be deeply felt and deplored by his own people and many others.

We learn that the Rev. D. M. Graham took passage for Liverpool in the Steamship City of Washington which left New York on the 12th inst. He is to attend the Annual Association of the General Baptists in England. Our readers will remember that brother Graham's church, in New York City, recently erected a new place of worship, at a cost of over $30,000. In a letter from him to the Star just before leaving for England he says :--

DR. KNIGHT.

BY JOHN A. MACE.

Weep Christians, we have lost our Knight,

He's passed into a glorious day;

And left us but a transient ray :

He's took the road his Saviour trod,

Yes, yes, he sleeps in Christ our King,

The suffering form is freed from pain :

The immortal spirit is on the wing,

Now with exulting shouts of praise,

And think upon his future home ;

That happy home beyond the vail,

The pure in heart alone can claim,

Who live in Christ and in him die:

There lives our dear beloved Knight,

Who's passed forever from our sight.

MARRIED.

Forget the trials that are passed,

And glory that he's safe at last.

We cannot sean by mortal eye,

Carleton, May 24th.

They bid him welcome near the throne :

To join with them their heavenly lays

Big with immensity of light,

To live forever with his God.

It will the port of glory gain :

To join that mighty host above,

And ever sing redeeming love.

Last Saturday and Sabbath will long be remembered " along shore" for the fires that devastated the forests, and t ireatened the houses in whole districts with destruction. Vast qualities of cordwood, leagues of fences, lumber of all the Railway from Shediao to Sa at John was sorts, were destroyed in every direction In many instances the whole winter's wood has been swept away by the devouring element. The inhabitants in all directions were compelled to be hard at work day and night in attempts to save their homes, churches, school houses, stores &c. Government, it was being prosecuted with as In some cases houses have been burnt down in spite of every effort to save them. Saw Mills with large quantities of lumber, have been destroyed to the Westard. Country congregations numbered only a very small proportion of the usual attendance on Sabbath-and that proportion was alexclusively made up of parties who were unable to fight against the fires. Barrens in all parts of this country have been scorched, thus destroying the prospect of abundance of blue and other berries for this season. What will become of our population? NEW Post MASTER GENERAL.—We have plea- sure in announcing that James Steadman, Esq., of Moneton has been appointed to the office of P. M. G. vacated by the resignation of the Hon. C. Connell. Mr Steadman is a highly deserving gentleman, and we presume will discharge the daties of the office he has been elevated to with credit to himself and the Government. The at tention which the late head of that Department gave to it has put it in such a train, that with but little care to follow out these arrangements, our postal department may be most efficient and sa- factory.
