A BEAUTIFUL POEM.

The Philadelphia Christian Observer introducing to its readers the following sublime ode translated from the Russian, remarks :--" It was written by one of their most distinguished poets Derhaven -The ode is said to have been translated into the Chinese and Tartar languages, written on a rich silk, and suspended in the imperial palace at Pekin. The Emperor of Japan had it translated into the Japanese, embroidered with gold, and hung up in the temple of Jedda. We believe that no man, however powerful his intellect or sublime his imagination, unacquainted with Holy Writ, ever did or ever will compose so exalted a poem. It abounds in Scriptural allusions .- The finest parts of the ode were written when the soul of the author, perhaps unconsciously, was wrapt in the contemplation of pas-sages in the Bible. One of the most exquisite verses in the poem is that where the poet fleeing from the nothingness of humanity, takes shelter in the gloriously consoling idea that the divine spirit shines in his spirit, 'As shines the sunbeam in a drop of dew.' Immediately ofterward follow the words, ' In thee I live and breathe, and dwell. It is manifest that the whole of this sublimely beautiful passage is borrowed from Acts, chapter xvii. verse 28, ' In him we live and move and have our being.'" GOD.

O Thou Eternal One ! whose presence bright All space doth occupy-all motion guide ; Unchanged through time's all devastating flight Thou only God ! there is no God beside, Being above all beings, mighty One ! Whom none can comprehend and none explore Who fills existence with thyself alone, Embracing all-supporting-ruling o'er ; Being whom we call God-and know no more

In its sublime research, philosophy May measure out the ocean deep-may coun The sands, or the sun's rays-but God ! fo Thee There is no weight nor measure, none on mount

Up to Thy mysteries. Reason's bright spark, Tho' kindled by Thy light in vain would try To trace Thy counsels, infinite and dark ; And thought is lost ere thought can soar so high Even like past moments in eternity.

INFANTILE CORDIAL, Thousands and why? because it never fails to afford histantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It

NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the suf-ferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sens bil-ities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reli able preparation now known for Children Teething, Diarrnoea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Cold in the Head, and Croup, also, for softening the In the Head, and Croup, also, for softening the gums, reducing inflamation, regulating the Bowers, and releiving pain, it has no equal-being an anti spasmodic it is used with unfailing success in all cases of Conversion or other Firs. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blight-ing consequences which are certain to r snit from the use of narcotics of which other remedies for infantile Com-plaints are composed, take none but Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial, this you can rely upon. It i perfectly harmless and cannot injure the most delicate in fant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions accompany each bottle. Frepared only by CHURCH & DUPONT.

the air was rather chilly. It seemed almost too late in the season to assemble for worship under the broad canopy of heaven, and some misgivings about the success of the meetings were indulged and expressed. At the outskirts of the encampment a booth met the cye, evidently arranged for the sale of groceries ; and a subsequent peep behind the counter revealed cheese formidable row of bottles, suggestive of thirst of water from his calabash. You told me he and a great number of the thirsty. Leaving this selves on the desired spot, not one whit too soon for comfort. It was well selected. A magnifieent forest-growth threw its sheltering boughs at two points. All the roofs sloped outwards, and preachers' stand was erected, a smaller camp, elevated from three to four feet above the
