The Love of Christ. SY MRS. SIGOURNEY.

"' Unto Him who loved us, and gave himself for us,

How hath he loved us? Ask the star That on its wondorous mission sped Hung trembling o'er that manger scene, Where the Messiah bow'd his head : He who of earth doth seal the doom, Found in her lowliest inn-no room.

Judea's mountains lift your voice, With legends of the Saviour fraught Speak, favor'd Olivet, so oft At midnight's prayerful vigil sought: And Kedron's brook, whose ripling wave Frequent his weary feet did lave.

How hath he loved us? Ask the band That fled his foes with breathless haste Ask the week friend's denial tone. Scarce by his bitterest tears effaced; Ask of the traitor's kiss; and see What Jesus hath endured for thee.

Ask of Gethsemane, whose dews Shrunk from that moisture, strangely red Which in that unwatch'd hour of pain. His agonizing temples shed! The scourge, the thorn, whose anguish sore

Like the unanswering lamb he bore !

How hath he olved us? Ask the cross, The Roman sphere, the shrouded sky ! Ask of the sheeted dead, who burst Their corements at his fearful cry ! O ask no more; but bow thy pride, And yield thy heart to him who died!

Dear Madam,—The reputation of the Medical Discovery in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established by the inaulmous voice of all who ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are number ones in its praise. mous in its praise.

In paetenting the Medical Discovery 10 your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curiative powers, in relieving all and curing most of these diseases to which you are nufortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease in affectionate matter.

NURSING SORE MOUTH. is cared as if by a mericle; veneous teamer is restored to its natural sweetness, and your hard ort and fretful naps to calm and sweet s'umber is sedical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessing, to your husband and household. In the more advanced stages of CANKER your food distressed you, and you can only take certain kinds and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonous fluid of of the canker eats it up: then your complexion looses its bloom and becomes shallow and greenish and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your syste becomes loose and diabby and he fibers of your body become rolaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adayted to.

palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the sPine, and small of the back, pain of the hip joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also the most excruciating of diseases, the How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "An ounce o prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

you have both the preventative and the cure, with his great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an lujury. cumstances, do you an jujary. Yours truety Collis C
