Chevalier, the distinguished free-trader, in in course of a speech at Montpelier, in which he held up France as the champion of social and political progress, regretted that amongst those the had evinced hatred and distrust of the Emperor were some members of the British governnent, towards which the Emperor had loyally made advances honorable to both parties, and which merited a more sympathetic response. The Paris Bourse on the 4th was firmer, and

The Confederate army does not seem inclined to march on Washington as was feared, and it is reported that ten thousand troops have left Virginia for the protection of North Carolina,

The capture of Fort Hatteras is of considerable importance to the North, and will materially asalso in maintaining the blockade. Already four vessels from the British Provinces, ignorant of the capture of Hatteras, have been seized.

Kentucky is advancing from its position of neutrality.

The House of Representatives has adopted a resolution directing the Governor to issue a procl mation ordering the Confederate troops, now encamped in this State, to evacuate the soil of Kentucky. The vote on the passage of the resoution stood 71 in favor to 26 against.

The House then refused to suspend the rules, in order to allow the introduction of a resolution ordering the Governor to issue a proclamation ordering both the federal and Confederate troops to evacuate the State,

This vote was vetoed by Gov. McGoffin, but was re-affirmed by the Legislature. Rebel troops have in consequence been ordered to leave the

From Missouri we learn that Gen. Freemont is carrying out his proclamation in manumitting the slaves of Secessionisti in that state. The following proclamation has been issued by the Provost Marshall.

"The Major-General commanding the Western Department having satisfactory evidence that active part with the enemies of the United States in the present insurrectionary movement against the Government, and the Military Commission, result of deliberation, the Major General commanding has executed and ordered to be published the following deeds of manumission : Here follows two deeds, declaring, by authoriv of law course, will not be responsible if properly and power invested in the Commanding General, Frank Lewis and Hiram Reed, heretofore held to service or labor by the said Thomas L Smead, to be free, and forever discharged from labor or service as to them may seem proper, without any accountability whatever to said Thos. L. Smead, or any one to claim by, through, or under him."

The Secessionists are inaugurating a new and horrible mode of warfare, rail cars are run off the track and railway bridges burned. The "St. Louis Democrat" describes, as follows, the plunge made by the railroad train on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, caused by secessionists burning a bridge over Platte River: "Before proceeding to narrate incidents of the the incendiary had been applied underneath the bridge, burning the timbers below the track.—

HATS and CAPS. THE Subscriber will sell the Balance of his Stock L of Summer Hats and Caps at a great Reduction in price, in order to make room for one of the largest Stocks of Ladies and Gents Furs, ever exhibited in this City; the materials of which were purchased by the Subscriber in person, under the most advantageous terms, in the leading Houses of the Trade in Great Britain and the United States. The Stock was purchased in the raw state, and dressed and manufactured here in a manner equal, if not superior to those Imported, and thereby saving the duty paid on Manufactured Articles. Every person who has the welfare of this Country at heart, will patronize Domestic Manufacture, more especially when they can get a better article for the price, than they can get of Imported Stock. To satisfy the most incredu-lous, I would most respectfully request them to call and examine my Stock of Furs, which will be complete and ready for inspection by the 20th of September. Wholesale Dealers in this City and the Country, will be supplied on reasonable terms. A catalogue of the different articles and the prices, will be distributed early next month
