The Little One. MATT. Xix. 13, 15. And is it true what I am told That there are lambs within the fold Of God's beloved Son .---That Jesus Christ, with tender care, Will in his arms most gently bear He bless'd the "little one?"

O yes! I've heard my mother say He never sent a child away, That scarce could walk or run ; For when the parent's love besought? That he would touch the child she brought, He bless'd the "little one."

And I. a little straying lamb, May come to Jesus as I am, Though goodness I have none; May now be folded to his breast, As birds within the parent's nest, And be his " little one."

And he can do all this for me, Because in sorrow on the tree He once for sinners hung; And having washed their sins away. He now rejoices, day by day, To cleanse the " little one."

Others there are who love me too; But who, with all their love can do What Jesus Christ hath done ? Then if he teaches me to pray, I'll surely go to him and say, Lord, bless thy "little one."

Thus by this gracious Shepherd fed, And by his mercy gently led Where living waters run, My greatest pleasure will be this, That I'm a little lamb of His, Who loves the "little one."

Let me help you in thinking about this. Or rather, I may say, Let King David help you, now. For I am going to speak to you about some words of his. Most of you have read them to-day in class already, from the nineteenth Psalm. And you know that this Psalm begins about the sun, moon, and stars, and ends about the Bible. I have often wondered when David wrote it. Was it after he became a Kingstanding, perhaps, at his palace window, with a mission house, half a dozen carrying each box, passage is, the more desirable will the haven be. golden crown upon his head, dressed in his beautiful robes, with his harp beside him, as he looked out there upon the rising sun, and thought to himself that God had set a glory in the hea- day :-vens far more bright and beautiful than all which the greatest king upon earth could show? Perhaps it was then. Or it may have been when he was a shepherd-boy, after a night's silent watching beneath the open sky in the fields of Bethlehem. All night long he had been thinking, How beautiful are the stars ! and again and again had tried to count them, until one by one they all faded away. The morning star was last; but even that kept growing dimmer and dimmer, until it was gone, like the rest. But then the eastern sky was all filled with rosy light; here and there a little crimson cloud, with a fringe like fire, swam slowly up into the pale blue overhead and at last, over the edge of the distant mountains, came one burning, dazzling point. Soon that point grew to a globe; and so the world was filled with the glory of the sun. " How beautiful !" thought David ; " How great is He who made all this ! The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge." But as he mused on this, his mind turned to look upon something more wonderful than sun or stars -more beautiful, and bright, and pure. This was the word of God. And then to show that God's word was thus better, he tells us what it can do, and what it had done for him.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS. A re you sick, feeblc. and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prejude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors-purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstruc-tions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding or-gans, producing general aggravation, suffering and dis-ease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derange ments, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the patural actions of the system and while it the burgers the natural actions of the system, and with it the buoyan feeling of lealth again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common com, laint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same pur-gative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will are the purchase of the same of the set of the same of the neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure. Statements from leading physicians to some of the prin cipal cities, and from other well known public persons. FROM A FORWARDING MERCHANT OF ST. LOUIS, FEB. 4, 1856.
