toms of a storm which, if once let locse, will crush and overwhelm Austria. Everywhere, and in everything we detect th se unmistakable signs which preceded the rupture in 1841. The chanses against Austria are incalculably increased, those against Hungary, incalculably diminished. Concession to the uttermost fraction is what the Hungarians demand, and what they are refused they will endeavour by force to obtain.

A Turin journal states that so determined are the Italians to have Venetia included in the new kingdom, that no government could stand a single day which would leave Venice in the hands of the Austrians.

FRANCE.

QUITE in keeping with the reforms announced on the 24th November, the Emperor of the French has decreed the abolition of the noxious passport system as far as it relates to England. English tourists will no longer be tantalized by the prying of custom house officers when they land in France, nor will they need repair to the magistrate and to the consul i. London, before taking a trip to Paris.

GAETA. - Reports relative to the state of affairs at Gaeta continues contradictory. A dispatch from Gaeta of Dec. 22d says :

" The bombardment of the city continues with vigor. The Spanish Ambassador had left his palace on account of its being riddled with bullets ; two officers were struck while standing near the King.

The new Sardinian batteries are evidently ready to take part in the bombardment. A deputation arrived here from Calabria promised to raise the insurrection in favor of the King."

CHINV .- The following are the principle clauses in the treaty of Tien Tsin. The Emperor apologizes for the affair of Peiho, a British minister to reside in Pekin. Kowlon ceded to the British Crown. The treaty to go immediately into operation.

The sum of £100,000 has been exacted for the benefit of the families of the British officers who were murdered.

The summer palace of the Emperor has been burned by the British, in revenge for the murders committed by the Chinese.

General Muntobon cont adicts the report that the palace of the Emperor was plundered by the French.
