O World! thou art a sorceress That does a witching power possess, With which thou dost allure the crowd To thy forbidden paths. The proud, The gay, ambilious, envious, vain, And avricious form thy train Of soul-deluded devotees, The victims of thy sorceries! Ah. World! what numbers thou has sunk In death! Ev'n anchorite and monk Have felt the influence of thy spell, Within the cloister, and the cell; And holiest men with grief have own'd Thou hast thy coils around them wound.

What myriad souls hast thou deceiv'd, Who thy fair promises believ'd, That thou would'st give them happiness, Which thou thyself dost not possess, Nor canst supply. Through all thy round, True happiness is nowhere found. 'Tis contrary to Nature's laws, Oppos'd to heaven's sublimest cause (As we experience from our birth), To find true happiness on earth, The wise in heart, and faithful, flee, O World! with hasty steps from thee; They seek that safe and narrow road That leads to Peace, to Life, and God. Heaven opens to them sublimer charms, And there they press with outstretch'd arms. They see their Saviour on his throne! He sweetly smiles, and becks them on, Ten thosand times more dear to them, Each smile of his, than costlest gem; Or all the world can yield or hold, Of fame, or praise, or power, or gold. Oh, then, blest Saviour, may I flee From this dread sorceress to thee; Renounce her throughly, all beside— Be wholly to thyself allied. And be thou my sole portion as I through this mortal valley pass; With thee, life's direst storms I'll brave, And boldly breast its roughest wave,— Meet death with joy, smile on the grave. With thee, life yields a thousand charms, A peace that sweetens, joy that warms; But oh! without thee, Jesus, I Care not to live, and dread to die. Without thee life is dark and drear, No light to radiate and cheer; A round of trouble, toil, and grief, To which death only brings relief. Think all will finish at that gaol! More sad delusion, if it be Launched on the great eternal sea, Without supporting faith, without A hope, abandon'd wrapt in deubt. Oh, who can tell that spirit's state, When it discovers Christ too late? W. B GRAHAM.

YOUNG VOICES ASKING FOR PRAYER. Many from among the young have asked for prayer at the Fulton-Street meeting personally and also by letter. Nothing so stirs the sympathy of the meetings as these young voices asking for prayer. They come from our own city and surroundings, and they come from distant places north and south. The following is an

We are in deep affiiction. A beloved son 14 years old, has been taken from us, in a most sudden and mysterious manner. He retired to rest, as was supposed, in his usual health, and was found dead in his bed in the morning. He was a very religious child, and it gives us great comfort to look over the evidences he gave us of a sanctified heart in his early childhood. The same day a letter was read from a mother in Baltimore, in which she says that she has lately buried a son 19 years old, the light of her eyes and the joy of her heart, who had devoted himself to the gospel ministry. She now asks prayer for the conversion of a son 13 years old, that he may take his brother's place. He feels the necessity of a change of heart, and beseeches us to join in praying that he may be converted. bered in prayer. She closes the letter with saying; "With great joy I read every week of the answers to prayer in your midst. May tle Lord continue to answer."

A young lady writes from Lexington, Ky. asking the meeting to pray for her scholars, nearly thirty in number, most of whom are in the prime of their youth, that all of them may be ceived the same system of worship and have reconverted. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS. Are you sick, and complaining. Are you all of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the preinde to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They simulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the declarge ments, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural actions of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of I calth again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common come laint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions gative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure. Statements from leading physicians to some of the pria cipal cities, and from other well known public persons.

Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cired her.

Dear Bro. Ayer. I cannot answer you what compiaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Dr. J. C. Aver. Sir: I have been repeatedly cared of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of they cleanse at once. Yours with great respect, Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theadore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their pose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my pract ce proved more effectual for the cure of bilions complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a putgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

Department of the Interior, {
 Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856. }

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot he sitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed I have seldom found a case of bilions disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

From Dr. J P. Vaughn Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot te said of your Pills for the cure of castiveness. If others of our traternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join the in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although had enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the live, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.
