A PRESENT JESUS,

"Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."-Matt. xxviii. 20. From lone retreat to crowded thoroughfare, From poverty's abode to costly halls, Through every grade of man, from high to low-Twining a gold cord of mutual love And interest around the hearts of all-The gentle Jesus glides on wings of light, And feet that halt not, but to leave behind The impress of his own pure spotless soul. From home to home, from heart to heart, a smile Of love complacent, giving here and there A look of melting tenderness, which, sure, No eye can meet without its melting too,

To him, whose cup is filled with daily toil; Whose brow, in truth, points back to Adam' curse:

But who, in poverty of spirit, too, Submits that all is well, since God bestows The lot, the Saviour comes, with riches, far Surpassing earthly good—the riches of His grace; and on that brow of care, he puts A coronet of light, adorned with gems Of faith, and patient hope, humility, And love; to be exchanged for a crown Of glory, in the blissful world above.

But not confined are his minist'rings To homes of penury, or hearts upheld By faith slone, to toil for present good, And leave the time to come, with all its cares. Infirmities, old age, and ling'ring death To him who feeds the ravens; and who clothes The grass. He comes, as well, to him whos thoughts

Are pregnant with the good or ill-the weal Or woe of states and kings: before whose sight In clear perspective, lie the movements of Earth's potentates: himself a King, upon Whose edict turns (to human eye) the peace Or dire confusion of to-morrow's world. To such an one the Prince of Peace vouchsafes A call, and lays upon his arm a hand Of firm restraint; or, othe rwise, upon His heart the melting touch of light Divine, Producing fear of God, and love to man, Where only self and selfish ends, erst while, Supremely reigned.

Thicker, and yet thicker, come the snow-flakes dancing in the blasts, while higher, and yet higher, mount the drifts, until great white mountains are piled up on every side .-Yonder, I see from my window a little boy whose hat the wind has eaught in his unseen hand, and tossed it high up in the air. The little fellow looks first this way, then that, to discover whither it has flown. He sees it descending, and on he speeds towards tt; down it comes right on the very peak of a great snow mountain, and up, up, the little fellow climbs, puffing and blowing, sometimes almost buried beneath the yielding snow. Now he has gained the summit-but the wind, as if determined to test Charley's temper, caethes up a lot of snow and dashes it right in my little hero's face and eyes. Nothing daunts ed, however, but with half-frozen hands he brush es it away again for another onset. Meanwhile, the old strong veteran hurls the hat to the bottom of the snow bank, but down, down, head over heels, follows Charley, determined not to be outdone by such a foeman; out he reaches his hand again to grasp the prize, when his antagonist catches it up suddenly in his funny hands. and gives it another pitch and toss away across

Now where is it gone ? Where shall my little soldier direct his next effort? Aha, old wind, I hear him cry and shout, you've done your best! Yes, the wind is now satisfied with its morning frolic, and hangs the hat on a splinter of a fence rail, and there leaves it, saying, there, poor little tired boy, there's your hat. And the little fellow is just now taking it down and pounding it with his mitten, perhaps to knock the snow out of it, or perhaps to ch astise it for its disobedience in leaving his head without permission. Just as some little boys leave home and go out in the streets and get amongst bad boys, without the consent of their father or mother. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS. re you sick, feeblc. and complaining? Are you out or order, with your system deranged, and your feelings comfortable? These symptoms are often the presude to A order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prejude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purity the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derange ments, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural actions of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of I ealth again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians to some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

FROM A FORWARDING MERCHANT OF ST. LOUIS, FEB. 4, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cored my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellen qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild but very certain and effectual in their action on the weels which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach

Headache. Sick Headache. Foul Stomach

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

Dear Bro. Ayer. I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Pittsburg, Pa., May I, 1856.

Dr. J. C. Aver. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills, It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. Yours with great respect,

Ed. W. Preble. Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theadore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their pose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my pract ce proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

Department of the Internov, Washington, D. C., The Feb., 1856.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. I noeed I have seldom found a ca e of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

From Dr. J. G. Green. of Chicago.
Your Pitts have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhea. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children. Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

Dear Sir: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood. JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D. CONSTIPATION, COSTIVENESS, SUPPRESSION, RHEU MATISM GOUT, NEURALGIA, DROPSY, PARALYSIS FITS, ETC

From Dr. J.P. Vaughn Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pill for the cure of costiveness. If others of our traternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progen tor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease. From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.
I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the Latural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church Polaski House, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

Honored Sir. I should be ungrateful for the relief you skill has brought me if I d d not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating nearilgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baitmore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but suie. By persevering In the use of them, I am now entirely well.

Dewr Madam,—The reputation of the Medical Discovery in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established by the unaulmous voice or all who ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are nuanimous in its praise.
