

and carry them in his bosom."-These gentle words of prophecy relate to the Lord Jesus ; and grace, and scorned his lowly ways. At Capernaum the disciples asked the Lord, set him in the midst of them, and said Verily I earth ; and more, there was ' joy in heaven'- gloritying God in prayer and praise. Christians ! say unto you, except ye be converted, and bes 'jov in the presence of the angels of God '-the give the Bible whenever you can, with the prayer come as little children, ye shall not enter into joy of the Good Shepherd who has sought and the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore found his lost and neglected sheep ; and who feel the importance of this gift very strongly. shall humble himself as this liftle child, the had, together with them, gathered with his arm My own heart was converted by the gift of a same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And and into his bosom, a perishing lamb, which he B ble as a New Year's present." whose shall receive one such little child in my alone could rescue and preserve. And it was name, receiveth me. But whose shal! offend- then, and still is, an occasion of thanksgiving that is cause to stumble or engage-one of to God that my little one was drawn to Jesus in these little ones which believe in me, it were such company-in the midst of such monuments better for him that a millstone were hanged of mercy, and mitacles of grace, and illustrious bout his neck, and that he were drowned in the instances of the virtue of his precious blood The original word here rendered dittle child,' would ever serve to remind him that the grace you, for I felt my own soul gladdened and reincludes the idea of a docile, subject one-a which saved him, can save the vilest sinner upon the midst of a group of rescued sinners, this A ROMAN CATHOLIC CONVERTED BY A BIBLE. A young man addressed the meeting and said : -the DIVINE and ONLY Saviour of his soul. "I was called upon to get a Bible for a young in him they were fulfilled. His ways of gentle- There stood the harlot, and the infidel, and the Catholic girl. I did so, at first a small one. She ness and love engaged the hearts of " little grayheaded sinner, and in the midst of them this took it ; could not read very well, and therefore ones ;" and many such believed on him, while little one of seven years old ; confessing the made slow progress. She liked her Bible very reasoning and selfrighteous men despised his grace by which they were, alike and equally, much, but came to me one day and said that she wanted a larger one. I got her one, and she was greatly pleased. She learned the christian hymns, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" forever, washed away. That was indeed a hap- and enjoyed; them, and, as a result, after a time she "And Jesus called a little child unto him, and py day. There was joy and thanksgiving on gave her heart to the Saviour, and was now that God's blessing may accompany the gift. I

PRAVER THROUGHOUT THE LAND.

A gentleman, whose face is not often seen in these meetings for prayer, but whose heart is always in unison with the praying, christian world, arose and said : " I spent an hour in these to cleanse from all and every sin :-because it meetings last summer, and was glad to be with freshed by communion with you, and now to-addition as follows :-- ' Resolved that I will pray companies. In temporal things we all live by once each day for each member of my class by faith on somebody. The question is between name, and agonize in prayer.' On looking still trusting in God or man, things visible or invisifurther into the journal, the same resolution is ble, things transient or things durable. The prefound re-written, and re-adopted, with another sent trouble of us all should do us good. When slight addition, as follows :- ' Resolved, that I the nest is broken up, the young bird learns to will pray once each day for each member of my class by name, and agonize in prayer, and expect fly. , Our nest is deeply stirred now ; perhaps it a blessing.' '

FOR NEW BRUNSWICK

Foreign Missions.

operation, and a large amount of statistical information. There are in Great Britain 16 Missionary Societies, employing 1,487 missionaries. catechists and teachers and 3,258 native and other assistants. Three Societies report 53,006 communicants, and four report 83,683 pupils at of its missionaries are employed in the Colonies. and it is difficult to get at the statistics of its lews to Christianity.

ign Missionary Societies, with 918 missionaries is, or will be, torn to pieces. If we love God, " News" of last week have brought out before we know that no evil can come upon us ; and if he permits us to suffer, suffering will prove a , who resided some time in St. John, which shows The British Standard, in a recent number, gave good. Let us strive to co-operate with him, a list of Missionary Societies, with their fields of loosen our ties to earth, and cry in our souls :--

Hetellige neer.

" Nearer, my God, to thee."

following from the Rev. Wm. Arnot's new The lady referred to, was the daughter of a work :- ' The writer remembers the days when, dergyman in Scotland-was married to a clergyas the dinner-hour was announced, and all glads man, but previous to the birth of her third child boarding and day schools. The Wesleyan Mis- [ly threw their work aside, he satisfied a fresh became a widow, her irregular life being suppossionary Society is not included above, as many appetite during the first five minutes, and ed to be the cause of the death of her husband. stretched beneath the shade of a tree, occupied Subsequent drunkenness and bad conduct instrictly foreign operations. Two of the above Cæsar, and the songs of Virgil, in the language the influence of friends she afterwards came to ocjeties aim exclusively at the conversion of the of ancient Rome. It made his afternoon's toil this city, and had charge of the African school at In the United States there are 12 strictly for- what is more, young men, it made him respect the schulars and her own irregularities, she was and assistants, and 845 native assistants. Nine ticers did not so frequently assail him ; and he qualifications are said to have been of the highest of these Societies report a membership among was supplied with an auxiliary means of defence. order, and she was accordingly discharged. She the heathen of 48,551, and eight Societies report There are many branches of useful knowledge, subsequently became a common vagrant wander-

A MINISTER'S SINS OF OMISSION,-The fol-

Some correspondents in the "Globe" and the public the melancholy history of a lady. the terrible depths of degradation, shame, and beggary to which the love of drink reduces its victims. We only refer to this melancholy case because of its relation to intemperance, and to A WORD TO YOUNG MEN .- We quote the set it forth as a bacon of warning to others. the remaining fifty-five reading the wars of duced her own father to discard her. Through lighter. It made his neighbors respect him; and Lower Cove. But from the insubordination of himself. In virtue of that employment the en- found incompetent,-although her educational an attendance at schools of 18,985 pupils. The ensily accessible, from which you may choose; ing in a state of drunkenness about the street hurch members and school children in the Sand- each according to his taste. We earnestly for which she was sent to jail. Here, a benevowich Islands are not included in the above. In counsel young men to scour up, and keep in use | lent lady, of this city, sought her out-brought these Islands, at a recent date, there were 23 all the powers of understanding and memory her to her own home, and acted to her the part churches, with 14,413 members. Since the which God has given them. It will sweeten your of a good Samaritan. One or two of her chilchurches were formed, 16,352 members have labour. It will be something softer to lean on dren was, during this time, in the Orphan died. The number of scholars is about 18,000, between your flesh and the iron instruments of Asylum of St. John. Being without home and In addition to the above societies there is a toil. How great the privileges of youth in this without character here, she afterwards directed Mission to Jews in America, a Society for send- country, and at the present day. How great is her way to Boston, taking one of her children ing the Gospel to North American Indians, and the waste, if the museums, libraries, and public with her. Of her course of life there, we are not so well informed, but fear it was not improved. A few months only elapsed and this poor unfortunate and lost woman,-the victim of wine and strong drink-was in a pauper's grave, lowing appear in the " Christian Advocate and " Nova Scotia has a Missionary with several Journal," a Methodist paper. Perhaps ministers in a land of strangers, unlamented over, and native assistants in the New Hebrides, and the of all denominations may take some portion of unwept for. A correspondence was subsequently opened by the lady in St. John who had shown kindness to the lost one, with her father in Scotland, with consent, she proceeded to Boston, sought out the helpless babe there, and brought it with her ; then by great perseverence obtained contributions from the benevolent of this city to defray the expenses of the three children home to the mother's brief outlines of the sad and terrible history of one born to viriue, to usefulness, and happiness, but reduced BY THE LOVE OF DRINK, (if we are correctly informed,) to the lowest degree of vagrancy and prostitutior. The history of this unfortunate woman is but one of thousands of similar ones. And are there not lessons in them P Are they not beacons of warning ? Does not the voice of wisdom cry from the narratives of those runned and lost ones, to BEWARE OF THE WINE CUP. In this connection we are reminded of an inrived, they did not dine with the ther passengers but partook in the saloon of a lunch which they had provided themselves with, previous to comwere both quite young-could not partake of tion of it was gone. What remained was incident might convey nothing worthy of notice

spannets and bear

NGELIGAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER,

That God in all things may be glor ifled through Jesus Christ-PET

SAINT JOHN NEW BRUNSWICK, FRDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1861.

All fear is taken away, Papa ; and I am now | tend to him a helping hand. Let us press a warm waiting for Jesus to come from heaven.' Bles- christian heart to that generous heart of his, and sed Jesus ! 'Out of the mouths of babes and bear his case to a throne of grace. Oh ! rememsucklings thou hast perfected praise. ber him in your closets, and may the God of all " It was, in truth a touching sight, when in grace hear your prayers."

little one stood and confessed his faith in JESUS say ed from sin and death, and the precious blood in which their various sins were all, and

Goblets, Preserve wls, Salt Plates, Money, ON, RIETY nd Ame-

&c. er from ayy.

drams. icles in sonable land.

ING S.

ERS

UR.

y fro

ket and

e atten-

has now

unr.

ER

inge as-facture, x, Buff, i,' Calf ge Tops superior

street.

m Ner Napie

ILL.

a Kips,

Street.

ain, and

reakfas, st shapes ollowing

RS,

upply of e stock fully reof Iron test pat-

has dis-

from the as tried it cept in two within 10

ore mouth.

f pimple

es. canker iu

humorin

a the ears

errupt and twoss

huem.

Mass

most des

rfula. bottle and

itity is ta

Discovery

hed by the need not

are nuani-

otice, 1 do

h you are g disease

short and te Medical r husband

ON. assorted or ready H. R.

make him a sinner ; but they show that he is a knee, he sobbed as though his little heart would alcne.

Christ, his all in all rolad geotesone line tor ; al Inners Property were suddening and Christ.

hen to the ne e e certain et halfthe of of the est day is ess of the bint when e most ex and their i wish to nounceo

with his r any cir-ely NEDY. John. for sale b L. Tilley, Sheffield River, Gi ines, G. C ungs Cov, .T. Toole .S. Davis hn Taylor E White concion J.

riand.

ANY

Resident

onsistent

s only. Goods,

ries, Pub-

naurable

ELY.

LDON.

semry.

LIN.

And this is the Lord's own description of a of the Lord." person saved by his grace, and who shall there. and peace in Him.

We will let the father of that shild relate the imple tale in his own way. "When my child was about three years old,

I was talking with him of the Divine Saviour, and said to him, ' Johnny, the Lord Jesus came into the world to save sinners,-little sinners like you, as well as big sinners.' He looked up and said, ' What is a sinner, Papa ?'--' You are a sinner, Johnny.'- ' No, I am not, Papa :] don't know what a sinner is.' I described some of his little faults, but without applying the of religion might be renewed in their hearts. I absolutely good but God. If therefore any have description, and remarked that ' any little boy who does so is a sunner. These things do not sinner ; for if sin was not in him, it would not come out in this or any other way.' " With blashing face and flowing tears my little one came to me, and hiding his face on my break. Laying my hand gently on his head, I asked him with tenderness what was the cause of his grief ; but he only wept more loudly, and clung to me the more. I then asked, ' Have you found out who is a sinner ?--- 'Yes, Papa !' Who is a sinner ?"-I am a sinner, Papa.'-"Then the gospel is good news to you, Johnny; for it tells you of Jesus, the sinner's friend.' It . was my habit to direct his mind to Christ Jesus

"When my child was about seven years old, was occupied during a few months, in a large, village, in making known the gospel of the grace of God. Many, poor neglected sinners were there brought together to hearand about forty of them little child who believes without reasoning, lives earth ; the precious blood that washed his sins day I am again permitted to be with you, in the family without servile work, and is cheer- away can make the foulest sinner clean, and give have, after an absence of sixteen years, visited fully submissive and obedient to parental control- sweet peace and rest, and holy joy in presence once more, my own native State-the State of fore enter into the kingdom of heaven. An our Lord Jesus Chist ; and I know that his tes- find that all through the country there is a spirit instructive instance and illustration of this is timony is true. And the "little one" of whom of prayer. Meetings are being held all over the seen in the case of a little child, called by the he speaks is now a man, residing in the State grace of God into the knowledge and love of of New York, where he preaches faithfully the little child." I'll anadis falls wash sids masio i day of them wanted the last growth that has ever been brought to the notice of the of the Gespel of Jesus have gone downward and meeting came before it the other day. A very taken deep root in the hearts of the people." o'd gentleman arose and led the meeting in an earnest prayer. After prayer he said : " Some Fault Finding.

"One evening-after a meeting at which hearts of men.

> (From the New York Observer.) The Daily Prayer Meeting.

two years ago I sent a written request to this meeting for prayer for my family, that the power All things earthly are imperfect. No one i am the father of eight children-four sons and a fault finding disposition, they can find abundant four daughters. I am an old superannusted occupation on every side. They can find fault minister of the Gospel, now eighty-four years o with nature, with society, the State, the church, age. I feel that the work of Divine grace has magistrates, ministers, neighbors, their families, been renewed in the hearts of all my children and easiest of all, if they look where they should.

with the exception of one. They are all mem- with themselves. bers of the Church of Christ, and I expect to There are two ways of fault finding ; one bene meet them all in heaven, with the exception of evolent, the other selfish. It is impossible to his one. He might often attend these meetings find fault benevolently, for the purpose of rewithout great inconvenience to himself, yet I medying or guarding against it. We are not represume he has never entered these doors. He quired to be blind to the faults of our best s a man somewhat in public life. But, oh ! he friends, but look at them with candor and seek is unmoved as to the condition of his soul. I have to correct them. "Thou shalt in any wise r prayed for him many years, but I fear that he is buke thy brother, and not suffer sin upon him." a doomd man ; yet I cannot give him up. Oh ! " Faithful are the wounds of a friend." This is pray for him with me and may God grant that one of the brightest offices of friendship, and n answer to your prayers and mine he may be should be received as such.

All present seemed to be moved by a common viz. : Finding fault from o selfish and malevoimpulse to pray for the wandering one

IDLERS IN THE CHURCH OF CHAIST. A gent'eman arose and said : " Idlers ! how were led by grace to ' know the joyful sound. | many there are in the Church of Christ ! How Infidels and harlots and grav-headed sinners many of us would have to plead guilty to such a tion. Most fault-finders, however, have in their were of the number saved; and in the midst of charge ? If we imitated the example of our these was my own little one, confessing Jesus Saviour, we should all be workers in the vineyard of our Lord. I was reminded, while sitting base to the best degree, their influence is highly "A few of the particulars of his conversion here, of a little incident illustrative of how much may serve to show the simplicity of faith in good might result from a very small effort made pernicious, they should have no encouragement for the advancement of the cause of Christ in the Christ alone was exalted, and God's way of A young man gave a Testament to a friend. community, to keep a church in perpetusi comsaving sinners was plainly declared-my little That friend cared nothing for the Bible, and so motion, and do more evil than ten well disposed boy came to me, led by his mother, who said, handed it to a friend of his, This last young persons can correct, 'Papa, Johnny' wishes to say something to you.' man took it home with him to a somewhat desti-Distant water and the state of the state of the - Well, my dear,' said I, ' what is it you wish | mute part of our country. He there got a friend The Secret of Success. to say ?' He quietly replied, 'I b-lieve now, to read and study it with him. And as the re-Papa,'-' What do you believe ?' I inquired ; suit of the giving of that Testament, after a The Rev. J. P. Wright, in his Way to Retain have been the efforts put forth ! The total num- No nan can be uniformly a good preacher -to us it was full of meaning. It forced upon our Elder Scholars, cites the following case :---being careful not to anticipate, nor to suggest, time a church, composed of thirty or forty mem-" A pious young lady was requested to teach "I believe, with my heart, that Jesus is the Son bers, was organized." of God, and that he died on the crossfor sinners; A very interesting case, and, at the same time, a class of girls, in a Sabbath-school in News and God the Father raised him from the dead ; a very and one, was brought before the meeting York. She accepted the invitation, and engaged and he is now at the right hand of God in herven for prayer. A man, who is a member of the in the work. She was seen to be very earnest, ing of the millions of India and the still more accompanies you in walks, goes to bed with -Lord of all.' These were his precise words ; Christian Church, possessing all the qualties of faithful, and affectionate with her youthful and be added, . I do believe this, Papa, with all a refined and educated life, was advised by his charge. In a little while one scholar after another my heart.' Giving thands to God, I asked my physician to use some kind of liquer for the bene- became thoughtful, serious, and anxious until little one this question: 'Are your sins torgiven, fit of a bodily ailment. As a consequence, he every member of her class was converted to God. Johnny ?-- 'I don't know.' This was said just formed the taste and the habit of drinking, and She was then requested to give up her class, as a little child would speak ; and I added, 'Now went from one step to another, until he became and take another in which none of the scholars that you believe in the Lord Jesus, you can pray a drunkard and sauk to the lowest level. In this were pious, After Jue consideration she conto him, and to the Father in his name ; but he state he was visited, a short time ago, by a good sented : she had not been long in her new class fore you believed, you could not; for the Apostle christian, who took him to his own house, cloth- before similar effects were produced, and ulti-Paul says, " How shall they call upon him in ed and fed him, and talked and prayed with him. mately every member of the class cherished whom they have not believed ?" But you can He kept on feeding and clothing him, and was hope in Christ. She was finally induced to give now call upon the same of the Lord Jesus, and faithful to him in regard to his own wretched up this class also, and take another class of ask God the Father to let you know and feel, condition. The poor man felt that he was an children, who were unconverted ; she had not through faith, that your sins are forgiven, and outcast, that he had ruined himself. He was also labored long, when precisely the same results as that your soul is saved." brought to feel that he could rise again, and break before followed her labors. Every scholar in "Abont a week after, he came to me, with a off that terrible habit that had taken such a hold the class became pious. Her work was now placid countenance, and said, ' Papa, I believe on him. Said the speaker: " Last Saturday I done. She feliasleep in Jesus, and entered the more now,'-- ' What do you believe now, my wrote out a pledge for him. He read it over ; rest that remains for the people of God. After lear ?'- 'I believe with my heart, as I told thought it was a pretty severe one ; but resolved her death, her friends on examining her journal you last week, that Jesus is the Son of God, who that, by the grace of God, he would sign it and found the following resolution :--died on the cross tor sinners; and that God keep it. It was not a pledge with me, nor be- " Resolved, that I will pray once each day

Maine. I have been again permitted to look

Such is the father's testimony to the grace of upon the green hills of dear New England. land similar to the one held here, and the Spirit of God is moving upon the hearts of the people Christ ; and into conscious salvation, and rest grace by which he was brought to Jesus when a The praying men and women of Maine have told me to bear to this meeting their cordial greetings. The spires of the churches of the Pine State seem to me to reach higher and point more clearly toward Heaven than they did sixteen years ago, and I am sure that while the spires of One of the most affecting requests for prayer their churches have gone upward the principle sionary and a female assistant at Labrador. The " My conscience accuses me of the following churches in the British Colonies, as a rule, ap- things : pear to aid Missionary operations through British 1. GREAT NEGLIGENCE AS TO SECRET the design of procuring his care and protection or American Societies ; but it is probable that PRAYER. Little time, little fervency, little inter- for the orphan children. Having obtained his much less is done in this way for Missions than cession, little special prayer for my office or for

Society which directs its efforts to the conversion

Foreign countries.

of Roman Catholics in the United States and in would be done had we our own Missionaries my flock. among the Heathen. 2. GREAT NEGLECT OF THE SCRIPTURES, as Continental Europe has eleven Foreign Mis- to private or ministerial edification ; great absionary Societies, with 594 ordained and other sence of Scripture proof in my sermons; flimsy, Missionaries, and 240 native assistants. Five confused views ; no pains to ascertain their full father. They went home passengers in the Societies report 79,402 communicants and 12,122 meaning and connection, or to make them bear "Scotia" about two weeks since. Such are the scholars. Out of these the Moravians, who on heart or conscience.

commenced Missions at an early period of their 3. GREAT WASTE OF TIME, in my studies, in history, claim over 75,000 members and over sleep, in visits unnecessarily prolonged, in want 8,000 pupils. There are several small Mission- of unity in effort, in desultory reading, and in ary Societies not mentioned in the list under beginning discourses.

the American and Foreign Christian Union, a rooms be not turned to good account.

Canada Foreign Missionary Society has a Mis- it to themselves :

notice. The 39 Societies reported give 7,342 4. WANT OF CLOSE APPLICATION to my work, laborers; but only 17, or less than one-half, loitering about trifles, suffering anything to ingive the number of communicants. These 17 terrupt me, putting off what should be done imreport a membership of two hundred thousand. mediately, and not writing enough." The examination of such a table as that before us suggests several reflections. Firstly, it affords APHORISMS FOR PREACHERS .- The same encouragement to the friends of Missions. The truths uttered from the pulpit by different men, servants of the churches have not labored in vain. or by the same man in different states of feel- cident which came under our own notice a few The Divine blessing has rested upon their efforts; ing, will produce very different effects. Some weeks since, on board of one of the river steamand if the fruits are such as we find them to be, of these are far beyond what the bare convied ers, while on our way to Fredericton. Among what glorious results may we not expect, if there tiop of the truth, so uttered, would ordinarily the passengers were two young ladies, whom we be only enterprise and faith enough on the part produce. The whole mass of truth, by the supposed belonged to what is usually called the of the church. Secondly, the number of con- sudden passion of the speaker, is made RED- " upper" class. When the time for dinner arverts from Paganism and talse religions, is a suffi- nor, and burns its way.

cient enswer to the taunting inquiry often heard | It is impossible to close a sermon well, that from those opposed to Christian Missions :- is, warmly, unless the train of thought has been "What have Missions done ?" Seventeen so conducted as to bring the heart into a GLOW, ing on board. But these young ladies-for they Societies report 280,000 converts. The remain- which increases to the end, ing 22 Societies could, probably, report nearly Having chosen a subject, it is well to think their lunch without their WINE ! They were as many more; then add to these the thousands it over deeply, day and night, and to read on provided with a beautiful flask, containing, one of converts who have died, and we shall perhaps it carefully before putting pen to paper. Take should think, nearly a pint, and from this they not be far wroug in estimating the number of a few notes, but as far as may be, let the drank while eating until much the largest porconverts to Christianity, through Foreign Miss matter digest itsalf in the mind.

sionary efforts during the past sixty years, at To be worth much a sermon must begin like politely offered to, and are pted by, a gentleman a river, and flow, and widen, and roughen, and on board, who holds an important place in the nearly one million. The third reflection is, that the Church has deepen, until the one, and when it reaches highest Educational Institution in the Province. not yet girded itself to the great work of win- this end, IT IS HURT BY EVERY SYLLABLE THAT To wine-bibbers and moderate drinkers this ning the Heathen world to Christ, How feelde is ADDED, The an all how say and the

But the other class is much the more commo lent motive. A perverse heart feeds on and gloats over the faults of others. Some seem to think they can best bring themselves on a level with others, by depressing them to their posi-

There is no end to their mischie⁴. One them is enough to destroy the peace of a whole raised him from the dead ; and he is at the right tween him and his tellow men. It was a pledge for each of my class by name. On looking fur- in the solvency and honesty of his debtors. Cerhand of the Father, Lord of all. And I believe justween him and his Maker, and sole on indeed it the same re- tificates of stock represent the amount of faith. Where secrety or mystery begins, vice or that God has forgiven my sons for Jeans' sake. was, And now he is trying to tise, Let us ex. solution re-written, and re-adopted, with a slight we have put in States, or banks, or railroad reguery is not far off.-DE JOHNSON.

ber of Missionaries, Missionaries' wives, Teach- who is not habitually perusing the Scriptures ers, and Native Assistants, is less than eight as his book of delights. thousand. Supposing these were all ministers, Tho right text is the one which comes of the appetite once formed, who can tell the future the supply is not enough for Africa, to say noth- itself during reading and meditation ; which consequences ? The lady whose wretched hisdensely populated Chinese Empire. There is you, and rises with you. On such a text another lact which shows that the Church is not thoughts swarm and cluster, like bees upon a fully awake to the condition of the perishing branch. Heathen, and to her responsibilities in relation | Constant perusal and re-perusal of Scripture | taught her !

to the conversion of the world ; and, the fact is is the great proparation for preaching. You get the frequent appeals from Missionary Societies good even when you know it not. for increased contributions, or the painful alter- Where there is more voice, more emphasis,

Another reflection is suggested by the imperfect- [Dr. J. W. Alexander. ness of the statistics. In the reports of many Missionary and other Societies, s. atistical infor- Providence has gifted man with reason ; to mation is seldom given. Reports often contain his reason, therefore, is left the choice of his nearly everything but what most persons wish food and drink, and not to instinct, as among the MAY stop there- SHE DID NOT! The wisest of to have; and that is a brief summary of the lower animals ; it thus becomes his duty to apply Society's operations, and the results of its efforts. his reason to the regulation of his dist ; to shun a The same remarks applies to the letters of man, excess in quantity, and what is noxious in Missionaries, who fill pages of letter-press with quality ; to adhere, in short, to the simple and of eyes? They that tarry long at the wine ; they scarcely a fact of any interest .--- Montreal Wit- the natural ; among which the bounty of his that go to seek mixed wine. Look not then upon Maker has afforded him an ample selection : and beyond which, if he deviates, money or later, he

TRUST .- A merchant's wealth is only his faith will suffer the penalty .- PROUT.

us the conclusion that these ladies-young as they are-are already LOVERS OF WINE ! And tory we have sketched probably learned to sup her wine at her father's table-that father who afterwards discarded and cast her adrift upon the world for the very sin which he himself had

The difference between this latter, and those whom we saw on board the Steamer is simply this-they have not gone as far as she wentnative of withdrawing laborers from the work. or more gesture than there is feeling, there is this-they have not gone as far as she went-waste and worse, powder beyond the shot.- perhaps they never may, God forbid they should ; but one thing is curtain, they are on the same road that she once trod. She, too, was once a moderate drinker-loving to sup the wine at dinner only, or on convivial occasions. They men, writing by inspiration of God, has said.-"Who hath woe? Who hath sorrow? Who hath contentions? Who hath babblings? Who hath wounds without cause ? Who hath redness the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.-AT LAST IT BITETH LIKE A SERPENT, AND STING ETH LIKE AN ADDER."

The sad history of the wretched Mrs. ----- and thousand of others illustrate the truth of this inspired prediction.