UNITED STATES.

It appears that a general engagement was fought on Sunday, which resulted in the defeat of the Confederates with a loss of fifteen thousand men. It is also said that General Jackson was defeated in three battles, and that there was a perfect panic in the Confederate ranks; in fact, that there was a general pede to get back into Virginia. The Confederates the Potomac to the number of 70,000. left Frederick City, Maryland, last Saturday, either with the intention of enticing McClellan to follow them up the mountains, or to attack Hagerstown, an furiously. important position in Pennsylvania. In carrying out this movement they were attacked on Sunday by rate push towards Williamsport to recross the Generals Hooker and Reno, about four miles from Potomac. Middleton, and compelled to abandon their position Federal for with severe loss. Gen. McClellan telegraphs late on port bridge.

W. H. Halleck, Gen'l-in-Chief :---After a very severe engagement the corps of Gens. Hooker and Reno have carried the height commanding the Hagertown road by storm. The troops behaved magnificently. They never fought better. Gen. Franklin has been hotly engaged on the extreme left. I do not know the result, except that the firing indicated progress on his part. I do not think our loss is very severe. The corps sanguinary. of Gens. D. H. Hill and Longstreet were engaged with our right.

We have taken a considerable number of prisoners. The enemy disappeared during the night. Our troops are now advancing in pursuit. I do not know where he will next be found.

Five hours after, at 8 A. M., he again telegraphed : I have just returned from Gen.
