From the N. Y. Observer. "THE DISCIPLE AS HIS MASTER."

Shall I, a blood-bought sinner, dare Presume to shun my Master's lot? Shall I, whose guilt he deigned to bear,

Let His example be forgot? What though He trod a thorny path ! What though He met a cold world's frown! Enough be this; the servant hath His Master's lot-"No cross, no crown."

Christ had his work. His meat and drink Were just to do his Father's will. From pain, from toil, he would not shrink, But bore the cross unmurmuring still. Christ had his work: his work is ours: If in our hearts his spirit glows, We bear the cross, we task our powers,-

Christ had his trials: sore they pressed Like thorns upon his bleeding brow, Though he hath gained triumphant rest, He wears a blood-stained vesture now. Christ had his trials; and shall we, Who from his death derive our life,

We scorn to seek a base repose.

Repel the thought like him to be, To bleed, to suffer in the strife? Christ has his crown-of duty done-

Of victory over death and hell; Angels before his glorious throne In rapturous strains his triumph tell. Christ has his crown: and so hast thou, If thou his path of struggle tread; His foes and thine to thee shall bow, And thou shalt reign with Him that bled.

He will soon die; and then I will have money enough to last me all my life."

So Oscar commenced a new way of living, and for a whole year he did not spend a cent more than was right. His uncle could not say the first word of complaint against him. One of the men of whom he had formerly borrowed a sum of money, came to him and begged him to pay him back, as he had not enough to supply his family with bread. Oscar told him to be quiet, that his uncle was then sick, and would very soon die, and then he would pay him again, with a very large interest.

Both letters informed him of the death of his uncle by heart-disease, and that Oscar must hurry off to his mansion to take possession of all the property.

He was almost beside himself with joy. He hardly knew what to do, so perfectly carried away was he with his great good fortune. So he sat down and wrote to the executor these words-

"Make everything ready in the mansion for my reception. I shall have some of my intimate friends with me, and I want you to have six of the best carriages in the country at the depot to take us to my great estate. I want you also to have a dinner prepared for us that will be the richest and most costly ever known. The wine must cost ten dollars a bottle-not less than that-as much higher as you please. Travelling, you know, makes one hungry. Besides, I want you, by return of mail, to send me 16,000 francs. Attend to these matters promptly, and I will reward you as you will deserve."

After Oscar had sent the letter, he hastened to his comra's and informed them of his large fortune. He invited them to go with him and partake of his all the time. preparing such a magnificent dinner. It was a gay company at first, but when the rich wine was handed around, their happiness knew no bounds. They gave toasts to Oscar and to one another. Finally, Oscar himself rose up, and after drinking still another glass of wine, made a little speech to his com-

"My friends, as it is to-day in this house, it shall always be as long as we live. Now I am rich enough. You are all my guests; let us then be very happy! Say, now, don't you think my uncle a splendid old fellow to die just now? What a dunce he would have been to live a dozen years longer! Fill all your glasses again, and let us drink with the hone that he may rest in peace. This is my toast: Good rest to the old man who died at the right time!"

"I thank you!" said a trembling voice from a secret door in one corner of the dining-hall. All eyes were turned in the direction whence it came. Oscar let his glass fall from his hand, and he became as pale as death. Then the door opened, and out walked a tall pale old man, with his hands folded on his

"Yes I am your uncle," said the old man fiercely, and with his usual strong, manly voice. "But I am not dead, but living. This is the first time I have ever resorted to a stratagem, but I did it to test you. But I hope the Lord will forgive me. Now I am perfectly convinced that, notwithstanding all my kindness to you, you are still the same spendthrift as ever; and that, when you heard I was dead, you thought it the best news you had ever received. Chairman of the London Board.—Samuel Baker, Esq. Chairman in Liverpool.—Charles Turner, Esq. The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest Offices in the kingdom. At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following highly satisfactory results were shown FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom. The Premiums for the year 1855 being.....£130,060 While the Premiums for the year 1558 are 196,148 Showing an actual increase of 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years. The recent returns of duty made by Government for this atter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than naintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance LIFE DEPARTMENT. The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the nencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful others in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,354 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. Thus :-Years. No. of Policies. Sums Assured. New Premiums. £1,380 9 2,627 4 190 95,650 9 11 181,504 10 6 5,828 5 10 4,694 16 0 161,848 13 4 408

8,850 3 11 297,560 16 8 703 1856 887,752 6 8 12,354 3 4 The remarkable increase in the basiness of the last four years is mainly consequent upon the large bonus declared in 1855, which amounted to no less than £2 per cent. per annum on the sums assured, and averaged 80 per cent. upon

SARSAPARILLA. THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases. From Emery Edes, a well known merchant of Oxford, Main "I have sold large quantities of your Sarsaparilla, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin. From Rev. Robert Stratton, Bristol, England. "I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your Sarsaparilla. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure, until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months. From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well known and much esteemed lady, of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her." From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Noshua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse, until it disfigured my features, and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could, of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPA-

RILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect ealth, and, without a doubt, cwe it to your SABSAPABILLA." Erysipelas-General Debility-Purify the Blood. From Dr. Robert Sawin, Houston-st., New York. "DR. AYER-I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Mulignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the Sarsa-PARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio. "For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes. From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhannock Democrat, Pennsylvania. "Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide Z. G. GABEL begs respectfully to inform his of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we the store on the corner of Princess and Prince Wm. street, | had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had opposite Chubb's corner (lately occupied by Mr. Francis), come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as and will keep constantly on hand:

child must die." Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri. "I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have." From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass. who is a prominent member of the Legislature "DR. AYER-My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPA-RILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required." Mr. Charles S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could
