

Prison de l'Audencia, Granada, March 18, 1862.

"I repeat, my dear brethren, what I have already said: the satisfaction of telling you. My joy in Jesus cannot be greater; my tranquility is unbroken; my faith, tried in the furnace, is strong, and the inquisitorial violence displayed by the Spanish tribunals intimidates me not at all. Christ is my life, and to die is gain. I desire you, as much as I, to die to the Lord, to present our thanks, not only to our well-beloved brethren in France, but to all the journals which have asked justice to be done to us."

"Your humble brother in the Lord."

PARAGRAPHS.

REVIVAL.—We learn that a good religious interest is being awakened at Bear Island—under the labours of brother J. N. Barnes. Baptism was administered last Sabbath.

REVIVAL IN DIGBY.—The Rev. W. M. Carthy writes to the Provincial Wesleyan from Digby, N. S., that an extensive work of revival has taken place there. In five weeks, seventy persons have professed to find pardon. "It was no unusual sight," he says, "to witness from thirty to forty penitents at the same time bowed at the communion rail, seeking mercy." Many persons in a great measure gave up their work for the time, and in many instances walked a distance of eight or nine miles, although the roads at times were unfavourable—the meetings were so attractive that they could not stay at home. Other circuits within the bounds of the N. S. Conference have also been favoured with revivals.

BAPTISM OF A MUTE.—An interesting scene, says the Philadelphia Christian Chronicle, occurred at the Eleventh church on a late Sabbath evening, when the pastor, Rev. J. Hyatt Smith, baptized a young lady who was deaf and dumb, but was able, by signs and writing, to express distinctly the happy change Divine grace had wrought recently in her heart. Many were affected to tears at the sight.

DR. PRYOR, formerly of N. S., but for several years pastor of the Baptist Church in East Cambridge, Boston, has accepted the appointment of Professor in Acadia College, Wolfville, and has assumed the duties of his office.

GRANVILLE, N. S.—The Rev. Isaiah Wallace writes to the Christian Messenger, that the Baptist Church in Lower Granville has recently enjoyed some revival influence. A Bible class at Granville Ferry taught by Brother Wallace, lately presented him with several valuable books as a token of their esteem for him.

THE NEWS.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

LATEST INTELLIGENCE.
The Steamship Australasian arrived at New York last night.
Cotton firm and unchanged. Breadstuffs quiet and heavy. Provisions dull and drooping. Consols for money 93½ @ 93½.

UNITED STATES.

Another week of important success for the Federal arms. New Orleans is occupied by Gen. Butler; the port is to be opened, and the mills resumed. Immense quantities of cotton have been captured. Baton Rouge, the capital of Louisiana, in the heart of the cotton growing country, 120 miles above New Orleans, has also fallen into Federal hands, and the Mississippi fleet are moving up toward Memphis, where Beauregard according to the Richmond Enquirer, has taken up his position. The flight of Com. Foote is busy in the reduction of Fort Wright above Memphis with prospect of speedy success, so that with Com. Farragut's fleet from below and Halleck's large army pushing on via Corinth—there seems to be little doubt of the fate of Memphis, and also of the rebel army in its vicinity, which by the capture of New Orleans is shut off from its chief source of supplies, with the enemy advancing from the North, South and East. Southern newspapers are in despair.

The Rebels have evacuated Yorktown, leaving immense quantities of stores, and 50 cannon. General McClellan ordered a pursuit toward Williamsburg where a skirmish ensued and the Rebels driven off, leaving a large number of sick and wounded; their army is reported to be greatly demoralized.

Richmond papers have acknowledged that the fate of the Confederate Capital must be decided at Yorktown, and by way of providing against unpleasant emergencies the Confederate Congress has adjourned, and the members gone further South. Federal forces are within 30 miles of Richmond.

Gen. Burnside has captured Fort Macon, which gives the Government control of the fine harbour of Beaufort, N. C. Appalachicola, a cotton port in the Gulf, has also been taken so that the necessity for a blockade will soon be at an end. Gen. Banks has driven the enemy from the valley of the Shenandoah, and seems to be preparing to co-operate in the grand plan of the capture of Richmond; Norfolk is in a panic about the approach of Burnside, and Savannah though not taken, has lost her chief defence in the fall of Fort Pulaski. Several Federal victories have been gained in Arkansas, Texas, and New Mexico.

Congress is busy with bills for confiscation of rebel property. Senator Sumner has introduced a bill prohibiting the coastwise trade in slaves, which was formerly carried on by Slave States.

Secretary Chase estimates the expenses of the year up to July next at 600 millions. Interest Treasury notes command the same premium as gold.

BAYON, May 7.
Confederates made decisive stand at Williamsburg, opening on Gen. Hooker's divisions; action heavy, with considerable loss.

Enemy at all points.
On Monday afternoon Gen. Hancock's Brigade encountered several Confederate Regiments, latter advancing steadily within 200 yards, when a brilliant bayonet charge scattered them in a panic, leaving eighty dead, forty wounded and 200 prisoners. Hancock took two redoubts.

Enemy's works very formidable across the Peninsula, near Williamsburg.
Gen. Pope lured portion of Beauregard's army to take a battery, and made prisoners of whole force of 2,000.

Deserters represent great dissatisfaction in Beauregard's army.
Condition of roads prevented movement of Halleck's army.
McDowell occupies Fredericksburg. There was a large amount of stores seized.

McClellan telegraphed that Monday's battle influenced the enemy to evacuate Williamsburg the same night, leaving their sick and wounded. Three hundred unengaged prisoners, and 1000 wounded are in Federal hands. The enemy's loss in killed very heavy, Gen. Nickles among them. The pursuit is being followed up.

A large force has been sent to West Point to attack the enemy in the rear.

At New Orleans, the Confederates lost 11 gunboats.

Thirteen steamers passed the forts which did not surrender.

Burnside is organizing a Union regiment in North Carolina.

The French commenced hostilities in Mexico, and had taken Orizaba.

BANGOR, May 8.
Rumor from Yorktown that enemy crossed and destroyed Chickahominy Bridges, McClellan still pursuing.

Rumor of evacuation of Corinth is repeated by every arrival of despatches. There is no doubt that Beauregard, while holding his front in line of battle, is gradually falling back on Grand Junction.

A Federal war steamer reports capturing three Confederate steamers and sending them to Key West.

In New Orleans action the Confederate iron clad steamer Webster ran into Federal gunboat Verona, which responded with a volley of 8 guns so destructive that both sunk together. Fire rafts sent.

British minister reported as holding private interview with Doblada at Puebla.

Gen. Zaragoza would dispute the advance of French forces.

Gen. Franklin's division gone to Westport to cut off enemy's retreat.

Sedgwick's division to follow; some 50 steamers engaged in transportation.

Supposed enemy cannot escape except via James River to Richmond.

McClellan came up with enemy 8 miles beyond Williamsburg; after skirmish they retreated over Chickahominy, destroying all bridges behind them.

Prisoners represent them greatly demoralized and in great want.

In Monday's fight 700 Confederates left dead on the field; 300 Federals killed, 700 wounded.

Enemy burnt their gunboats at York River.

Beauregard's head quarters reported at Pocahontas.

DOMESTIC.

CHEAP FARE.—The Steamers Anna Augusta, and Heather Bell are at present carrying passengers between St. John and Fredericton, at the low fare of 50 cents each. They leave Indian Town on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays; Fredericton on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. The St. John, we understand, still charges $1.50.

MAYOR.—Thomas McAvity, Esq., re-elected Mayor of St. John on Thursday last, by a large majority over his opponent Mr. T. M. Reed. The News says, nearly a thousand votes were not cast.

GOLD FIELDS.—A large number of young men from different parts of the Province have recently left their homes for the gold fields. A few for the far-off land of British Columbia; but the great majority for Nova Scotia. It is only as might be expected that a great rush would be made for the diggings; and in at least seven cases out of every nine they will be disappointed, disheartened, and return with less gold than they took with them. Large numbers of persons from Maine have gone to N. S., and there is no doubt but a few will make their fortunes, or at least do well; but we learn from some parties who have just returned that the opportunities and facilities for obtaining the precious metal is by no means as good as people at a distance are led to suppose, and hence many that go to the diggings, soon leave again with disappointment. We must recommend honest and industrious toil at home on the farm, or at whatever business or trade the parties are best acquainted with, as the most successful and easy way of procuring gold. Labour is gold, if properly directed, no matter what business we follow.

RETRENCHMENT AND REFORM.—Much has been said and written lately about retrenchment and reform; and no doubt but room exists in many particulars for both. They are terms peculiarly adapted to catch the popular favour with; and it is not singular that they should now be made the watch word of parties (after being defeated in all their other tactics), who have always heretofore been notorious for extravagance and conservatism. We wish we could have the confidence we desire in the proposed measures. But we confess we have not—they probably have a purpose. They find advocates in a quarter which is calculated to strangle them, if they were genuine.

CONCERTS.—The following sums are acknowledged as received by the Benevolent Institutions of St. John, as the proceeds of concerts given by the Military Band for their benefit:—Ragged School Association, $217.20; Protestant Orphan Asylum, $221.65; Female Home, $235.00. Several sums for other benevolent objects were also raised, in, $994.34.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY.—A definite answer has been received from the British Government in relation to this proposed road. The length of railway necessary to complete the connection between Halifax and Quebec is estimated at 350 miles, and the cost, after deducting the right of way, is estimated at $2,000,000, stg. It was proposed that the British Government should guarantee half the interest (say $200,000 a year), and the three Provinces an equal sum (or £20,000 each a year). The Home Government refuses to do this, but offers to guarantee a loan to the Provinces for the necessary amount that will be required to construct the road. The money would probably be obtained at 3½ per cent. This would make the annual interest to be paid by the Provinces £40,000, stg., each, instead of half that amount. The Colonies would then, of course, own the whole road, and have all the proceeds. Differences of opinion will doubtless exist in relation to acceding to this proposal. It admits of serious considerations; but if the road is ever to be built, and these Colonies desire to advance and compare favorably with other Colonies, it is probable a better opportunity will never be afforded them to take the initiative step.

UNIVERSITY.—We omitted to state last week that the competitive examinations for the scholarships in the different classes of the Provincial University, were recently brought to a close. The "English Language" scholarship was won by Mr. Phinney, of Richibucto, but in consequence of his holding the University scholarship for the county of Kent, he could not hold another for the Institution. The next competitor, Mr. Milledge, of St. John, therefore received it. A third competitor for it was Mr. Brookfield, of St. John, whose marks were nearly to the others. The "Classical Scholarship" was gained by Mr. Allison, of St. John. The "Mathematical Scholarship" was contested by Mr. Matthew, of St. John, Mr. Atherton, of Fredericton, and Mr. Sharp, of Studholm. The relative standing of these young gentlemen is as follows: Mr. Matthew, 2455; Mr. Atherton, 2431; Mr. Sharp, 2045. Mr. M. of course received the prize, but with only a mere trifle in advance of Mr. A. This latter young gentleman is the son of Mr. John Atherton, City Hotel, Fredericton.

We believe this Institution is fast coming into a healthy and efficient state, and it affords us no little pleasure to see the young men of our Province availing themselves of its advantages.

In ignorance of the immediate cause how frequently must they err, and in treatment miscarry. Holloway's Pills sweep the bowels, cure of Dyspepsia and its consequences, headaches, &c.

Sister Briggs professed religion about eighteen months ago, under the labors of Elder Downey, and was baptized and united with the Free Will Baptist Church. She died in the full triumph of the religion she professed. She leaves a husband, one child, and a large circle of friends to mourn their loss. She was a great sufferer; but now

"Thou hast finished the conflict in peace;
The heaven-born spirit is fled;
Her wish is accomplished at last,
And now she's embold with the dead.
The months of affliction are o'er,
The days and the nights of distress;
We see her in anguish no more,
She's gained her happy release."
Com.

At Hillsburgh, Bear River, New Scotland, on Tuesday, the 22d April 1862, after a long and severe illness of lingering consumption, Mr. George Turbull, in the 55th year of his age, leaving a sorrowing widow and three children, besides numerous relatives and friends, died in the presence of his loving and affectionate wife, a kind and tender parent, and a beloved friend. The deceased was a son of Mr. Geo. Turbull, Sen., who emigrated from Edinburgh, Scotland, in the year 1790. During the last seven or eight years, the deceased has been a very great sufferer, especially for the last seven or eight months. His illness had been most distressing, but all was borne with patience, and a quiet disposition, he said but few words to the world, but made known his wants unto God in an "acceptable time." After the disease became acute, he gave himself up to God, and sought and found pardon through the merits of Jesus Christ. He frequently told his friends he felt that the Lord would have mercy on his soul; and again, he felt in his heart the change which his soul had made, and several weeks before his death, he could only converse in broken sentences. A short time before the spirit's departure, he told Mrs. T. he felt that he should not survive through the day. She said he had said "yes, all his last words." Soon after, he took his wife's hand into his, and raised his eyes to heaven, then folded his hands, closed his eyes, and fell asleep—yes.

"Adieu Jesus—blessed release,
From which none ever wake to weep."
This departed our beloved friend, and angels joyfully bore his happy spirit home to God. This tale of tears, so long his scene of suffering and sorrow, has been left behind, and he is now in the presence of his Father in heaven, and stands ready, with outstretched arms, to receive him, and to place upon his brow "a crown of life," and to hand him over to his Father's Father, his children, and also a twin brother, who was doubly dear to him; who, each in their turn, passed away before him, to the departed spirit, he was ready to do.

"On the day of interment, a sermon for the occasion was preached by the Rev. J. Taylor, from 2 Cor. v. 8, 9.
Oh! see the sacred bed,
Where lies the dying saint;
Though in the arms of death,
His aspect is serene,
He smiles in joyful hope;
He knows that arm on which he rests,
Is an unfailing prop.
His aspect is serene,
He knows that arm on which he rests,
Is an unfailing prop.
His aspect is serene,
He knows that arm on which he rests,
Is an unfailing prop.

His happy soul is washed.
In sin-staining blood,
Exulting in eternal love,
He sings his love to God.
