ARRIVAL OF THE "HIBERNIAN" AT PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, April 7.

The Hibernian arrived this afternoon. steamer Labuan in Mexican waters, meantime they sent a war vessel to Matamora.

A grand banquet was given to Garibaldi at Milan. The speeches indicated approaching movements. The Spanish Government ordered Prim not to ne gotiate until troops enter the city of Mexico. The Bank of France reduced discount from 4 to 31 per cent. Politics unimportant. Reported that the Emperor of France will not attend the Great Exhibition. Garibaldi is making a tour through Lombardy to

The original resolution, as moved by the Provincial Secretary, was then put and carried as follows :--

Yeas-Johnson, Watters, Tilley, Smith, McMillan, Steadman, Hatheway, Perley, Meahan, Stevens, Raymond, Landry, Young, Skinner, McClellan, Crocker, Lindsay, Munro, Montgomery, Dow, Cudlip, Jordan, Gillmor-23. Nays-17.

The Committee on Privileges have had under their consideration the case of the Hon. C. Perley, who refused to give evidence in the Carleton scrutiny case, and have reported to the House that they cannot recommend the House to take any action against Mr. Perley, as they entertain serious doubts of the power Council to be examined.

FREDERICTON, April 9.

Munro introduced a bill to amend cap. 5, title 111, Revised Statutes, of Territorial and Casual Revenue. This is another Lumber License Bill.

Smith introduced a bill relating to Gold Mines. It is to empower the Governor in Council to make regulations, &c., for mining and digging gold on ungranted lands.

The petition of Stephen Tracy, of Woodstock, relative to a claim of £49 on Canada Disputed Territory Fund, was referred to a Select Committee.

Progress made in W. J. Gilbert's bill making void promissory notes and other securities given to Attorneys for untaxed bills of cost.

House went into Committee on Desbrisay's resolution implying want of confidence in the Crown Land Department. The mover made a lengthy speech, referring to the Surveyer General as being engaged in certain lumbering transactions in violations of resolutions.

The Surveyor General repelled the charge. All afternoon spent discussing resolution and incident matters.

Progress reported at 6.10.

FREDERICTON, April 10. Lean Bill occupied House nearly all day. Anglin, Kerr, W. J. Gilbert and Williston spoke against it, on the grounds that it contemplated borrowing money on interest, thus making compound interest ; also loan would not be necessary.

Stevens spoke in favor of generally curtailing public expenditure, thought it not necessary to have Board of Works, Surveyor, Postmaster, or Solicitor Generals, on the floors of the House; he would sweep away Departmental Government.

Boyd advocated issue of Treasury Notes.

be brought, for a "final struggle." Bragg came up from Pensacola with his 10,000 troops, said to be the best in the Confederate army. Price and Van Dorn came up from Arkansas, and large numbers of raw troops were added by impress- ment; in short everything was done to ensure suc- cess in this desperate effort. It has failed, if we may rely on the despatches, and in that failure every man who desires to see an end of this bloody business may rejoice. No great events mark the history of the war in the Atlantic States, for the past week. In North Eastern Virginia the Confederate force under Gen. Jackson is principally composed of im- pressed men, who refuse to fight the United States forces, so Banks can have his own way with them.	the House divided as follows : Yeas-Messrs.
