When thine arms were twined about my neck. And mine eyes looked into thine, And the heart that throbbed for me alone, Was nestling close to mine! I see full many a smile, Mary,

On young lips beaming bright; And many an eye of light and love Is flashing in my sight :-But the smile is not for my poor heart, . And the eye is strange to me, And a loneliness comes o'er my soul, When its memory turns to thee!

I'm thinking on the night, Mary, The night of grief and shame, When with drunken ravings on my lips, To thee I homeward came :--Oh the tear was in thy earnest eye, And thy bosom wildly heaved,

Yet a smile of love was on thy cheek, Though the heart was sorely grieved! But the smile soon left thy lips, Mary, And thine eye grew dim and sad :

For the tempter lured my steps from thee, And the wine-cup drove me mad : From thy cheek the roses quickly fled, And thy ringing laugh was gone, Yet thy heart still fondly clung to me, And still kept trusting on.

Oh my words were harsh to thee, Mary, For the wine-cup made me wild; And I chid thee when thine eyes were sad, And I cursed thee when they smiled. God knows I loved thee, even then, But the fire was in my brain, And the curse of drink was in my heart,

To make my love a bane.

'Twas a pleasant home of ours, Mary, In the spring-time of our life, When I looked upon thy sunny face, And proudly called thee WIFE-And 'twas pleasant when our children played Before our cottage door;

But the children sleep with thee, Mary, I ne'er shall see them more ! Thou'rt resting in the church-yard now,

And no stone is at thy head; But the sexton knows a drunkard's wife Sleeps in that lowly bed ;-And he says the hand of God, Mary, Will fall with crushing weight On the wretch who brought thy gentle life To its untimely fate!

But he knows not of the broken heart I bear within my breast, Or the heavy load of vain remorse that will not let me rest; He knows not of the sleepless nights,

When, dreaming of thy love, I seem to see thine angel eyes Look coldly from above. I have raised the wine-cup in my hand,

And the wildest strains I've sung, Till with the laugh of drunken mirth The echoing air has rung ;-But a pale and sorrowing face look'd out From the glittering cup on me, And a trembling whisper I have heard, That I fancied was breathed by thee!

Thou art slumbering in the peaceful grave, And thy sleep is dreamless now, But the seal of an undying grief Is on thy mourner's brow; And my heart is chill as thine, Mary, For the joys of life have fled, And I long to lay my aching breast With the cold and silent dead!

"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid D. D. them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven. That afternoon, after school was excused, as I was locking my desk, Willie stole softly back. Climbing upon the desk, he put his arms around my neck, and kissed me, saying: "I love oo, tecer."

"What is love, Willie?" I asked.

He thought a moment, then replied earnestly "It's what makes us doed to folks." After a little pause, he added, "Tecer, who is K wist that best 'ittle children ?"

Before I could reply there came a knock on the door. I opened it, and a little girl handed me a billet, saying timidly:

"Mrs. Hamlin supposed it had been sent before." It contained an urgent invitation for me to spend the afternoon with a friend of mine. I knew that Willie was the child of irreligious parents, and that I ought to encourage this his first seeking after Divine truth; but the tempter whispered to-morrow will do as well, and I yielded to the voice. To-morrow! how many broken hopes, how many duties unfilled, come from too firm a reliance on its deceitful promises.

But the next day Willie's place was vacant. I missed the bright face and ringing laugh of my little pet, and after school had closed, I directed my steps towards his father's house. On my way I met his sister. Taking my hand, she said hurriedly : "Oh! teacher wont you come right down to our

He was tossing to and fro with restless pain, and they told me that scarlet fever was drying up the fountains of that young life.

Silently we watched beside him, till the ticking of the old clock in one corner seemed like a sombre interlude, weaving the moments of suspense together. An hour passed on. Then there was another convulsion. It was longer and harder than the last. At its close, he lay pale and exhausted. Suddenly he epened his eyes, and his lips unclosed. There was a strange, agonizing earnestness in his voice as he

"Pray for him, pray for him," sobbed the father, and I prayed then as I had never done before, that Christ would reveal himself to the dying child.

God heard the prayer, for as we watched him, an exultant look glanced across Willie's face. He lifted his head, and stretched his small white hands toward heaven. I shall never forget his last words: "There is Kwist that best'ittle children. I coming, I coming." And the golden head was buried in the pillows. The beating heart was hushed forever. Two days after, when the clouds were weeping raintears, we laid him down to sleep. And as the aged pastor told us Willie had gone to see Jesus Christ who blessed little children, there were eyes unused to tears, and hardened, sunburnt faces that were moistened with something else than the rain-drops that were falling thickly around us.

Brief was his life, beautiful his death; yet through God's blessing they were the means of leading his parents to fix their hopes, for both time and eternity, on that dear Saviour who blessed little children. And in the great day of account, how many ransomed souls will there be who have fulfilled the prediction, "And a little child shall lead them ?" - Congregationalist.

YOU NEVER CAN RUB IT OUT, -One pleasant afternoon a lady was sitting with her little white-haired boy, five years of age. The mother was sick, and the child had left his play to stay with her, and was amusing himself with printing his name with a pencil on paper.

Suddenly his busy finger stopped. He had made a mistake, and, wetting his finger, he tried again and again to rub out the mark, as he had been accustomed to do on his slate.

"My son," said his mother, "do you know that God writes down all you do in a book? He writes CONSTANTLY ON HAND every naughty word, every disobedient act, every time you indulge in temper and shake your shoulders, or pout your lips; and, my, boy, you can never rub it out!"

The little boy's face grew very red, and in a moment tears ran down his cheeks. His mother'e eye was on him carnestly, but she said nothing more. At length he came softly to her side, threw his arms round her neck, and whispered, "Can the blood of Jesus rub it out?"

Dear children, Christ's blood can rub out the evil you have done, and it is the only thing in the universe that can do it. "The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin."

FENALE SOCIETY .- You know my opinion of female ociety. Without it we should degenerate into brutes. This observation applies with tenfold force to young men and those who are in the prime of manhood. For, after a certain time of life, the literary man may make a shift (a poor one I grant) to do without the society of ladies. To a young man nothing is so important as a spirit of devotion (next the Creator) to some amiable woman, whose image may occupy his heart, and guard it from pollution, which besets him on every side. A man ought to choose his wife, as Mrs. Primstone did her wedding gown, for qualities that "wear well." One thing, at least, is true, that if matrimony has its cares, celibacy has no pleasure. A Newton, or a mere scholar, may find employment in study; a man of literary taste can receive in books a powerful auxiliary; but a man must have a bosom friend, and children round him to cherish and sup- Macintosh and all Improved makes in port the dreariness of old age. - John Randolph.

THE POISON-SELLER .- If a man meets another in the woods, and plunges a dagger into his breast, that he may get his watch and money, does he break this it is represented when sold, or the [sixth] commandment? VARIETIES.

Good cooking is the beauty of a dinner. It really does a man as much good again if he eats his food with a relish; and with a little attention, it is as easy to cook well as ill. And let me tell the wives, that your husbands would like you all the better,-and be less likely to go off to the public-house, if their bit of meat or their drop of broth were well cooked .- Laboring men should eat well. They should if possible, have meat-butcher meat-every day. Good broth is a capital dish. But above all, keep whiskey out of your stomachs. It makes the brain mad, it burns the coats of the stomach; it turns the liver into a lump of rotteness; it softens and kills the heart; it makes a man an idiot and a brute.

LITTLE BY LITTLE. Little by little, an acorn said,

At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following lighly satisfactory results were shown:— FIRE DEPARTMENT. The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom.

The Premiums for the year 1855 being.....£130,060

While the Premiums for the year 1558 are 196,148 Showing an actual increase of 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years. The recent returns of duty made by Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Comcany, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,354 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of hydrogeness daring the last ten years. Thus: of business during the last ten years. Thus:— Years. No. of Policies. Sums Assured. Dec. 5, 1861.-wpi. COLDS | COUGHS !! Brown's Bronchial Troches Cure Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Influenza, any irritation or Soreness of the throat, relieve the Hacking BRONCHIAL Cough in Consumption, Bron-chitis, Asthma, and Catarrh, clear and give strength to the Public Speakers and Singers. Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight Cold" in its first stages; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. Brown's Bronchial Troches are a most valuable article, especially so at this season of the year, when Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Hoarseness and Sore Throat are so prevalent. The Troches give sure and "A simple and elegant combination for Coughs, &c."

Dr. G. F. BIGELOW, Boston. "Have proved extremely serviceable for Hoarseness." Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER. "I have been much afflicted with Bronchial Affection, producing Hoarseness and Cough. The Troches are the only effectual remedy, giving power and clearness to the voice." Rev. Geo. SLACK, Minister Church of England, Milton Parsonage, Canada.

"Two or three times I have been attacked by Bronchitis, so as to make me fear that I should be compelled to desist from a moderate use of the Troches, I now find myself able to preach nightly, for weeks together, without the slightest inconvenience." Rev. E. B. RYCKMAN, A. B., Wesleyan Minister, Montreal.

I which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of PECTORAL duced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, dis-CUREY rdered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and above all, by the veneral infection Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descend ing "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or orrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA unded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who has given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkably cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil or Glandular Swellings, Tumor's, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose of St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Washassan and Infections, Mercurial Diseases, female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reorts of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is turnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those causes are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to ome one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal erience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and hus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these cons has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is dequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is for more affected than any other which has ever been is far more effectual than any other which has ever been AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanged stuges of the Disease. This has been so long used and so universally known, hat we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.
