(Concluded.) I signed the pledge of total abstinence on the 31st March, as also did my friend N.

About ten days after my conversion, God revealed himself to me in the following manner: My children were crying for bread and my wife said to me, "See now what your religion has brought you to." I told her to cheer up, I had a friend and a powerful one left; I then got out of bed, and poured out my complaint and distress to God, after doing which I felt fully convinced he would help me. I then dressed and went out. When I got outside the door. I asked the Lord which way to go.

At this moment the name of a gentleman came into my mind; I resolved to go in quest of him. As I did not know where he lived I inquired of another person his direction, and was referred to a certain place in Holloway. Hungry and wretched I started to go; at length, after inquiring of a number of persons, I arrived at the direction specified, when I found an empty house, in addition to which it had been empty for seven months. This was a terrible breakdown, but still I felt confident. I could not go home empty handed. I knocked and inquired at a great number of houses. At length, to my joy, I found out the house where this gentleman lived; I knocked and asked for him, the servant said he was not at home, but I should find him in White Lion street, Pentonville. I went there, he was not there but at a house in Goswell Road. I went, but still could not find him; but the gentleman at this place invited me in. He inquired what I wanted, and said he knew I was in trouble; at length I told him my case. He asked me if I still believed that God would help me. I answered, "Yes sir, I firmly believe that I shall get some help." "Ah, that you will," he said, and, putting his hand in his pocket gave me 4s. I could not thank him-my heart was too full. I was coming out of the house as a gentleman was going in. Mr N., the friend who assisted me, desired me to wait a minute; they went and communed together, when another 2s. 6d. was given to me, making altogether 6s. 6d. (Now, be it understood. I was a perfect stranger to both these friends, and I believe it was the will of God that they should help me.) As soon as I left the house, I started running, knowing my wife and children had nothing to eat or a bit of fire. I only stopped to purchase some tea and sugar, and a lonf. I was so exhausted when I got home I could not speak; but my wife gave the children some bread, and sent for some coals, and she made a fire, and we sat down thankfully to partake of what the Alz mighty had so mercifully sent us.

So things passed till the following Sunday week, when we were again distressed. There was but a small portion of food in the house, so I went out and did not return till after I had attended Mr. To offer up to him my earnest prayer, Weaver's meeting at the City of London Theatre. And lay before him every cross and care. While there I felt very faint for the want of nourishment, having eaten nothing for 24 hours; but I felt very confident I should not go to bed supperless. When I arrived home, there was the tea-pot on the hob, and bread on the table. I looked at them, and then at my wife. I asked her where they came from. She said a gentleman had called in the afternoon, having heard that we were in distress, and gave her 2s. 6d., out of which she had purchased some necessaries, she knowing I had had nothing to eat since the morning before.

About this time I was recommended to the secretary of the Monthly Tract Society for employ ment, which he could not give me; but he has several times kindly assisted me out of his private purse. In fact my things would have been taken for rent had it not been for his goodness in furnishing me with the means of paying my landlord. At length that friend gave me a recommendation to a gentleman who gave me some employment in the distribution of bills. The remuneration was not, in a worldly point, sufficient to support my family but the Lord has kept his promise - "Thy bread shall be given thee, and thy water shall be sure," for my barrel of meal has not failed.

I believe the Lord has work for me to do, for on Good Friday, at an open-air meeting, a young man, in a state of intoxication, came up to oppose us. He seemed to pick me out from the rest; I got into conversation with him, and persuaded him to take a walk with me. We walked till he was For nearly half a century have these two noble sober, and I then persuaded and prevailed on him got in, I went on my knees, and prayed for him. made upon him that will be instrumental in landing him in heaven. Another time, standing at the door of a meeting-room, a poor wretched woman came and leant against the door. She said she was friendless. I pointed her to the Saviour-the Friend of the friendless. She went away rejoicing. | trust.' I was going along the Commercial Road, when my attention was attracted to a drunken man, sur-

Every one has felt that there have been moments in their existence, not moments of peculiarly imnsignificance, which have unaccountably left strong impressions on their minds. Such moments may have been marked merely by some accidental notice of the beauties of nature, or even by some trivial circumstance. So trifling sometimes are the outward features of these influences that at the time no marked impression is visible.

I believe that the influence of my poor dear mother's petitions to God have hovered round me and preserved me in many a dark hour of temptation, and prevented me from the sin of cruel and oppressive treatment of the woman I have been married to eleven years; and although many times fearfully aggravated by my wife, I am thankful to say I never ifted even my finger in anger against her who at the altar I had sworn to protect. I thought of my dear mother, and when I have found temper getting the better of reason I have rushed from the house. Even in my worldly days I considered it an unmanly, disgraceful action for a man to degrade himself by such an act, a lord of the creation (so called) to oppress poor, weak, defenceless woman, for I firmly believe that nine out ten bad women are made so by man's ill-treatment. I have seen enough of the world to be assured of that.

As far as this world's affairs are concerned, I am a poorer man; but I have now what I never had before—a happy mind, with no fear for the future, knowing that I am in the hands and keeping of one who will not let me go, neither shall I be utterly

> A GLORIOUS THING. "I can pray, and that is a glerious thing." Among the last words of John Foster.

I cannot seek the busy scenes of life, To act my part amid its toil and strife; Yet in my narrow sphere God gives me power-So sweet it brightens e'en the dreariest hour-

I cannot leave my still, secluded room, Where shadows cast the r quiet, chastening gloom I cannot rise, or walk, or freely move, To do kind offices for those I love; Yet, while I suffering lie, the cross is there, And at my Saviour's feet I pour my prayer.

And oh, it matters not how weak the heart Whence prayer ascends, if it hath loving part In Christ, the Way; faith clasps the precious word, And e'en the holy air of heaven is stirred; God's ear is moved, and blessings rich come down, The waiting heart's wide sphere of prayers to crown.

Oh, wondrous, glorious privilege of prayer! Grief's healing balm, sure refuge from despair; Strength for the weak, and for the weary rest; For every sin-tossed soul a haven blest. Tarry, my soul, safe in this haven fair, Till on the heavenly shore shall end thy prayer.

THE LAST DAYS OF QUEEN ELIZABETH.—Queen ELIZABETH dies, and dies of grief. It has been the fashion to attribute to her-I know not why -remorse for Essex's death; and the foolish and false tale about Lady Nottingham and the ring has been accepted as history. The fact seems to be that she never held up her head after Burleigh's death. She could not speak of him without tears; forbade his name to be mentioned in the council. No wonder; never had a mistress a better servant.

For nearly half a century have these two noble souls loved each other, trusted each other, worked to attend with me a religious meeting. Public Speakers and Singers. Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight Cold" in its first stages; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. Brown's Bronchial Troches are a most valuable article, especially so at this season of the year, when Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Hoarseness and Sore Throat are so prevalent. The Troches give sure and almost immediate relief.

Chairman of the London Board .- SAMUEL BAKER, Esq. Chairman in Liverpool.—CHARLES TURNER, Esq. The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest Offices in the kingdom.

At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following highly satisfactory results were shown:—

FIRE DEPARTMENT. The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom.

The Premiums for the year 1855 being.....£130,060

While the Premiums for the year 1558 are... 196,148 Showing an actual increase of 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years. The recent returns of duty made by Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years.

Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance. LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies is successful three was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,854 8s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. of business during the last ten years. Thus:-

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases,

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a serofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your Sarsaparella, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse, until it disfigured my features, and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could, of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsapa-RILIA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and, without a doubt, owe it to your Sarsaparilla." Erysipelas-General Debility-Purify the Blood.

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.
"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your Sarsaparilla. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament. "I have used your Sarsaparilla in my family, for general debility and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your Sarsaparilla a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Apphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. "DR. AYER—My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and and effectual in some cases that where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Charles S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPABILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhæa, Whites, Female Weakness. are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the Sarsaparilla, the skilful application of local remedies. From the well known and widely celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhoa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment." A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:
"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhoa of long standing, by two bottles of YOUF SARSAPARILLA. Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrafula in the system, are rapidly cured by this Ext. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public heir quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to de all that they
