SARAH GOODWIN AND HER BOYS.

A TRUE STORY. Sarah Goodwin was the name of a poor seamstress, residing in the city of New York. She was not wholly friendless; but those whom she knew, and who would have aided her in her struggles, were very poor, and could not. So she, a widow with four boys from the ages of four to nine years, struggled through winter's cold and summer's heat, providing her little family with bread; and that was all. Her boys were good children, always in their home after nightfall, and giving their mother every cent (half-penny) of their little earnings, as often as they found work to do. At last the mother fell sick, and through a weary illness she had no other attendance save the occasional help of a neighbor and the constant aid of her poor little boys. It was touching to behold their kind ways and to hear their gentle words. Everybody said that they would be blessed in coming years, for their thoughtful love towards their mother. The widow recovered: but it was now the middle of a bitter winter, and their little stock of fuel was nearly gone. As soon as her strength permitted she walked through the cold of a cheerless day to the shop of her employer, and told him her pitiful story. But he said it was hard times; her illness had made room for others as destitute as herself, and they had not one stitch of work to give her. With a sinking heart, but praying, to keep her courage up, the poor woman toiled on from shop to shop, until it became late ; and, what with tears and the darkness, she could hardly see her way home. "If Mr. Hart had himself been there," she said to herself, bending to the strong wind, and drawing her scanty shawl closer about her form, "I know he would have given me work."

As she whispered thus through her chattering teeth, a tall gentleman passed by her and as he did so, something fell to the sidewalk and lay upon the crusted snow. Sarah paused; she had heard the noise made by the little packet, and a strange impression led her to search for it. Oh, joy! it was a purse, heavy and filled to the brim; vellow and shining lay the gold within, as she carried ito towards a lighted window.

"My poor boys, they shall want food no more," she cried; "this is gold. I think that God must have put it in my way, for he saw I was in Suddenly, like a flash of lightning, the thought occurred to Sarah that not one cent of the treasure was honestly hers. But a moment she lingered, pressing the money with her numbed fingers, the sorrowful tears chasing down her thin cheeks; then, starting forward to find the owner of the purse, she walked hurriedly up the street, fearful that the temptation, should she arrive at her poor room and see her hungry children, might prove too strong for her honesty.

Opposite the great hotel, as she stood thinking which way to take, she saw the stranger enter. She knew him by the long hair which curled to his shoulders, and, timidly crossing the street, she made her way into the hall, and there bewildered by the light knew not what to say, till twice asked by the servant what she wanted. Of course, she could do no more than describe the stranger by his tall stature and flowing hair. But he had already gone out again; she must call on the the morrow, they said, and ask for Mr. Ashcraft.

The next morning, having eaten nothing-for she could not touch a farthing of the gold-she was admitted into the room where sat the stranger. He arose as she entered, and gazed with a curious air till she presented the purse. Then he started with pleased surprise, laid down his paper, took the gold and carefully counted it over. "It is all safe," he said; "you have not taken

"Not one piece, sir," she cried eagerly, trembling as she spoke.

"You seem poor," remarked the stranger.
"I am poor," she replied.

"Got a family, I suppose?"

"Four little boys, sir; I am a widow." "Humph! so I suppose; that's the old story." "Ask Mr. Hart, the tailor," cried the widow, stepping forward a little; "he knows that though

I am poor I am honest." A bright red spot burned on her cheeks as she spoke, and she forced back the tears. "Now confess," said the stranger rising and walking to and fro before the fire, "tell me, did you not expect a large reward for this?" "I did think, perhaps-" and she turned with quivering lips to the door. "Stop, stop!" cried the stranger; "you know you would never have returned the purse, had you not expected to be well paid for it."

"Sir!" said the widow, her voice rising beyond its usual tone, and her thin form erect. The stranger paused, holding the purse in his hand; then drawing forth a small coin, offered it

"Work for me, perhaps," said the widow, untying the large package, when suddenly there came "Am I not," said he, "of sufficient rank to ashead of her boys. So Many Years Lost .- There is something very touching in the statement, made by a clergyman who recently had two female applicants for admission into the communion of the church he served. One was a girl of sixteen, from the Sab- READY MADE CLOTHING, bath school; the other a sober, matronly lady of about sixty years. As this young girl was relating the experience of her heart, her belief in her acceptance of the dear Saviour, and as she rehearsed the story of Christ's love and suffering, the lady was observed to be weeping. When the maiden had finished her story, the lady could not refrain from approaching her; and bending over her, she greeted her with an affectionate kiss, saying as she did it, "Oh! can I ever forgive myself that I have lived so long without loving Christ, when I might have begun as young as you?" What self-reproach and bitter reflections will be saved to our children if the grace of God convert them in early years! - Christian Intelligencer.

BEARING THE CROSS.

The heavier cross, the nearer heaven; No cross without, no God within. Death, judgment, from the heart are driven Amid the world's false glare and din. O happy he, with all his loss, Whom God hath set beneath the cross.

The heavier cross the better Christian: This is the touchstone God applies; How many a garden would lie wasting, Unwet by showers from weeping eyes! The gold by fire is purified; The Christian is by trouble tried.

The heavier cross the stronger faith; The loaded palm strikes deeper 100t; The vine juice sweetly issueth When men have pressed the clustered fruit And courage grows where dangers come, Like pearls beneath the salt sea-foam.

The heavier cross the heartier prayer; The bruised herbs most fragrant are. If sky and wind were always fair The sailor would not watch the star; And David's Psalms had ne'er been sung, If grief his heart had never wrung. The heavier cross the more aspiring;

From vales we climb to mountain crest; The pilgrim, of the desert tiring, Longs for the Canaan of his rest. The dove has here no rest in sight, And to the ark she wings her flight. The heavier cross the easier dying,

Death is a friendlier face to see; To life's decay one bids defying; To life's distress one then is free. The cross sublimely lifts our faith To him who triumphed over death. Thou Crucified! the cross 1 carry

The longer may it dearer be; And lest I faint while here I tarry, Implant thou such a heart in me That faith, hope, love may flourish there, Till for the cross my crown I wear. -From the German of Schmotk.

The recent returns of duty made by Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company while all the others respectively fall far short of the pany, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,354 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. SARSAPARILLA.

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Edes, a well known merchant of Oxford, Maine. "I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robert Stratton, Bristol, England. "I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your Sarsaparilla. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure, until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months." From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well known and much esteemed lady, of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse, until it disfigured my features, and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could, of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your Sarsapa-RILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and, without a doubt, owe it to your Sarsaparilla." Erysipelas-General Debility-Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robert Sawin, Houston-st., New York. "DR. AYER-I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelus with it. From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords be-came visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your Sarsaparilla. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your Sarsaparilla in my family, for general debility and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes. From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhan-nock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the testering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease. From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri. "I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have." From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Law-rence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature

"DR. AYER—My dear Sir: I have found your Sarsapa-RILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Charles S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPAveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him. are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the Sarsaparilla, the skilful application of local remedies From the well known and widely celebrated Dr. Jacob Mor-rill, of Uncinnati.

"I have found your Sassaparilla an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment." A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes: "My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrheea of long standing, by two bottles of your Sarsaparilla." Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, theart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Screfula in the system, are rapidly cured by this Ext. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS oossess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public heir quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.
