LABOUR NO CURSE. As Amos the blacksmith was working one day, Young Joseph the idler was passing that way: The door of the shop stood invitingly near,

And Joseph walked thither a new thing to hear.

And, make what he would, it was sure to be right: When his arm rose aloft, with its powerful swing, The blow that came down made the huge anvil ring. The farmers all round who had horses to shoe, Asked first whether Amos the business could do; He had jobs from the dawn till the set of the sun, For when Amos did work, it was sure to be done. Young Joseph stood watching the blows as they fell Though Amos said nothing, he saw the boy well;

But busily shaped he, and turned round his shoe, While hither and thither the shining sparks flew. At length said young Joseph, "It seems to me hard "Such labour I'm sure," said the youth, in reply, "In a fortnight would kill me, if once I should try!" "Not a bit of it, lad: you'd grow active and hale, Whereas you are now looking puny and pale.

His ordinance is given, and to it we must bow :-" Man shall eat of his bread by the sweat of his brow." " Nor shall the decree be called penal alone, Since the fall in our world hath such wickedness

For ofttimes doth labour drive sin from our head, And toil proves no curse, but a blessing instead. "Thus while I submit to the rule God doth give, I cheerfully work and I happily live; At night on my pillow I peacefully rest, And, by night or by day, sing, 'God knows what is

Young Joseph the idler walked thoughtful away, An idler ne more to be called from that day, Singing, "Toil is no curse, but a blessing instead."

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE OLD MAN'S PRAYER.

An aged man, whose hair was whitened with the snows of more than fourscore years, was on a bed of sickness. His hoary head was "a crown of glory," for he had long been a servant of God; and now, "in a good old age," having set his house in order, he was quietly waiting till his change should come. it may never be found again. "Speak every man truth It was Saturday evening; and as arrangements were about to be made for his own comfort through the night, at his own request he was assisted from the bed to the rocking chair. After sitting a while, he was removed to the bed, and when all was quiet, as he was about resigning himself to slumber, he repeated audibly and with great emphasis, the prayer of his child-

" Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take."

He then remarked, "That prayer my mother taught me at her knee, more than eighty years ago; and never have I failed to repeat it going to my rest at

"Is MY MOTHER A CHRISTIAN?"-"I wonder if my mother is a Christian?" So said a young lady to herself, when she had been awakened to realize the value of her soul. "My mother is a professor of religion; why does she not anxiously warn me to flee from the wrath to come? If she has any sense of my danger while in impenitence, why does she not, as it were fleeing from Sodom?"

"I know she has the tenderest affection for me, and the deepest interest in my worldly prosperityshe never hesitates to speak to me of these things; and if she is a real Christian, why does she not beg of me to embrace the Saviour? The gentleman told them they must take it, and he was convinced from the principles they had professed that they would make good use of it. The pious parents then blessed their benefactor, for such he proved; they paid their debts which had disturbed their peace, and the benevolent giver furnished the father employment in his accustomed occupation as a carpenter, enabling him to rear an industrious family in comparative happiness. This little girl became the wife of a respectable tradesman of New York, and had reason to rejoice that she was born of pious parents, who had secured their daughter's happiness by sending her to a Sunday-school

"ENLARGING THEIR SPHERE."-Women, mothers even, talk of enlarging their sphere. And how, we ask, by any possibility, can it be enlarged? They may step out of it into another; but when it embraces the noblest influences of a world, how can it be extended? Has not the mother her hands upon the very springs of being? Has she not the opportunity of moulding every living soul upon this broad earth to her own taste and fashion? Take, now, man's acknowledged public superiority, and woman's imperceptible but universal influence, and which, oh, proud, aspiring, discontented woman, would you choose, for extent or perpetuity? What true woman will not exult in her position? Though hampered, and driven, and cramped by ten thousand whirling crushing, opposing circumstances, would she ex-"Depend on it, Joseph, there's One who knows best change her post with any man? But let a mother-electrified with the same aspiration after true greatness, and laying her hands upon the heads of four, six, or eight children-impart the godlike influence to them, and send them forth into the world, and she has, by so many, multiplied her greatness. If she may not send forth men, let her train daughters, who in their turn shall transmit the inextinguishable fire of heaven, and she has done more to purify the world than any single individual can possibly accomplish. Talk not of an enlarged and noble sphere. It is large and noble enough already. It overwhelms one, who thinks of it at all, with its inconceivable and unutterable vastness. Let us quietly, humbly, hopefully fall back into our retired, unobtrusive place, and patiently labor on, as the coral But to work with his hands, or to work with his head, insects toil to build up the beautiful reefs of the Pacific. > PUT AWAY LYING .- Every Christian should be truthful. Many professors are not; some jest with lies, and lie in jest; this is wicked. Some lie in business for the sake of gain, -this is sinful. The Bible says, "Put away lying," and put it so far away that with his neighbour." When you speak of a friend, be sure what you say is truth. When you speak of an enemy, or one against whom you are prejudiced, be doubly careful. Speak only the truth, and speak the truth always. When God speaks of the seven things that are abominable to him, he places lying second. A proud look, a lying tongue-remember no liagoes to heaven. All liars shall have their portion in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, Oh, that we may all be so taught of God, and so resemble the God of truth, as to say with David, "I hate and abhor lying!"

A SLIGHT DIFFERENCE.—In the year 1806, Mr. Jay preached a sermon before the Society for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, and was requested to permitthe same to be printed. Such permission was given. The text was: "Skin for skin; yea, all lay hold of me, as did the angels of Lot, when he was that a man hath will he give for his life." When the proof sheets of the sermon were sent to Mr. Jay for correction, he found the printer had printed the text thus: "Skin for skin; yea, all that a man hath will he give for his wife." Instead of correcting the error in the usual way, he wrote on the margin, underlining the word wife, "That depends on circum-

THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY 92,

ngs, Liverpool. Chairman of the London Board.—Samuel Baker, Esq.

Chairman in Liverpool.—Charles Turner, Esq.

The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest

Offices in the kingdom.

At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following highly satisfactory results were shown:
FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of ome of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom.

The Premiums for the year 1855 being.....£180,060

While the Premiums for the year 1558 are 196,148 Showing an actual increase of...... 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years. The recent returns of duty made by Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the LIFE DEPARTMENT. The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,354 8s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. Thus: Years. No. of Policies. Sums Assured. New Premiums. £48,764 17 0 £1,380 9 1 95,650 9 11 2,627 4 7

422 181,504 10 6 161,848 13 297,560 16 8 887,752 6 8 The remarkable increase in the business of the last four years is mainly consequent upon the large bonus declared in 1855, which amounted to no less than £2 per cent. per annum on the sums assured, and averaged 80 per cent. upon the premiums paid.

62 Prince William-street. ATHS.—A quantity of LATHS. For sale at very low rates, by M. T. BREWER, Britain street, aug 15. 3d Wharf East of Boston Steamboat Landing. THE peculiar taint of infection which we call Scrottly lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is promen. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, dis rdered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and above all, by the veneral infection Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descend ing "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" ndeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. I'urify the blood, and these SPEEDY RELIEF.—All of Fellows' Medicines, consist-dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or dangerous distempers leave you. With that "life corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease., AYER'S SARSAPARILLA

s compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who has given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complain is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkably cures it has made of the following iseases: King's Evil or Glandular Swellings, Tumor's, Eruptious, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose of St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs rom tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings bility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion Syphilis and syphilitic Infections, female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the dir for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those causes are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is dequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may pretect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this know in this community as an experienced and fashionable Cutter, Gents. who may favor us with their orders, can deremedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the pend upon getting perfect fitting garments, at the lowest distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on

We know the public have been deceived by many com pounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been
