[Written for the Religious Intelligencer.] FAMILIAR PAPERS ON SABBATH SCHOOLS. BY A LADY .- NO. VI. "THE " RECOMPENSE OF REWARD."

If but one soul were turned from the error of his ways, to walk in the faith of knowledge and holiness, the value of that renewed life would sufficiently counterbalance all the Teacher's trials and anxieties; and be to him the very highest earthly reward he could enjoy. But this is not all; the Teacher who was the humble means of leading that soul to the Saviour, will lead others also; and these, if faithful in the church and the world, will be instrumental in bringing many to a knowledge of the truth.

Who can tell the sad effects which may result from a Teacher's want of faithfulness? In a few years perhaps, the boy under his care will enter the world as an actor in its busy scenes. In his former home, probably, no good influence was exerted over him; out of school hours he was surrounded by wicked companions; in the Sabbath School small efforts were made by his Teacher to lead him from the downward way, to which everything else was pushing him; and he goes from that school, his heart more steeled against good, by the knowledge of his Teacher's carclessness. What wonder if he is ruined! Ruined, because no kind word of encouragement was given to win him to a better life; ruined, because no helping hand was extended to draw him from the paths of sin. And yet that Teacher knew what he should do; he must have known; and fearfully will the charge come home to him, when he meets that wretched soul before the bar of God,-"You knew your duty, but ye did it not !" O, for the sake of souls, for our own soul's sake, let us be faithful to this solemn duty.

the Teacher's duties, in eternity, is a momentous thought. By the simple instrumentality of the Teacher, under the influence of the Holy Spirit,

Here it lies before you; directly across your path. Pause, then; for you cannot again speak His name, or that of Christ, or that of the Holy Spirit; authority, and cast contempt upon Him who is once a week." the Lawgiver of the universe. There are some men in whose presence you would not utter a pro-Him who has said He will not hold you guiltless in so doing. say, it cannot be very wrong to utter a few words, if they are not exactly right? There are no such things as little sins. To disobey any command of God is a great sin. He has laid no command upon us, which it is not for our good, present and future, to obey; and he that sins against Him "wrongs his own soul." The irreverent use of the divine name tends directly to weaken any impressions you may have had of His infinite greatness and glory. Such use of His names and titles leads you to think lightly of them. Could you so use the name of any person of eminent worth without losing your respect for him? Should you be willing to have your name used as you For sale at lowest rates, by M. T. BREWER, Britain street, use that of God ? Think of this before you again use irreverently the holy name of the Most High. This sin disqualifies those who commit it for polished Christian society. Profaneness injures a man in the estimation of all except the profane. Well-educated women abhor such language. It shocks their sensibility. It is a vulgar sin, practised by the most clownish and degraded persons in the community. The profane are not deemed The results which follow a faithful discharge of proper associates for Christians. As

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases. From Emery Edes, a well known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robert Stratton, Bristol, England. "I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an af-flicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure, until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. "She has here well to cure and the analytic of your SARSAPARILLA." She has been well for some months.

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well known and much esteemed lady, of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J. "My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing af-forded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papere in Nashua, N. H. "I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse, until it disfigured my features, and became an intolerable affliction. 1 tried almost every thing a man could, of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPA-RILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time ; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and, without a doubt, cwe it to your SARSAPARILLA. Erysipelas-General Debility-Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robert Sawin, Houston-st., New York. "DR. AYER-I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrothe souls committed to his care may be either eternally saved or lost. Thousands of Sabbath School children, who would otherwise have been lost, are now, we believe, praising God in heaven. Millions more perhaps, before time has taken its flight, will be added to that number. Hundreds, it may be thousands, of faithful Teachers will there meet those whom they have loved on earth, and led in the way of life; and bright, gloriously bright, will be the diadem which will glitter on their brows.

of heavenly enjoyments. This world affords some rare and beautiful sights; the ear is frequently charmed with harmonious sounds; and the imagination sometimes takes wing and soars to regions of never ceasing delights. Yet the Apostle expressly declares-"Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him."

This is enough for our encouragement to persevering faithfulness. When we think of the importance of a soul being won for eternity; when we think of the eternal happiness of that soul, it outweighs every other consideration-all, all is passed away-pleasures and trials; and even though he may not receive on earth, the faithful Teacher will receive in heaven, a full recompense of reward.

> " Hath he not then for prayers and tears, The day of grief, the anxious night,--For all his sorrows, all his fears, An over payment of delight?"

Sabbath School Teacher, what more shall we say? Is not this a noble office? Might not angels, if they could, envy your delightful employment? It is more than this, it is a solemn sacred trust; and no Teacher should assume it without feeling its solemn responsibilities, and seeking grace to enable him to win souls to Christ. Short is the time allowed for this, but it is sufficient to prove whether or not we are willing to do something to advance Christ's kingdom.

A blessed reward is offered, let us press on towards its full enjoyment in heaven; and so improve the talents and opportunities for doing good which are bestowed upon us, that when we meet our Judge we may receive the joyful invitation-"Inherit the kingdom prepared for you, from the foundation of the world."

"Yes, the prize shall then be given, Ve his open face shall see, Love-the sarnest of our heaven-Love, our full reward shall be, Love shall crown us Kings through all eternity.' St. John, 1862. BEULAH.

PROFANE SWEARING.

AN APPEAL TO THE SWEARER, By a Venerable Man eighty-three years old. WHAT is it? "THOU SHALT NOT TAKE THE NAME OF THE LORD THY GOD IN VAIN FOR THE LORD

take to vindicate it. All sinners have some plea except the swearer. He stands condemned, not only by the opinion of all the virtuous, but by his own conscience.

A minister passing on a wharf once, noticed a fishing-vessel, on which some of the men were using profane language. He remarked to one of them, "I suppose you use different kinds of bait for different fish." The reply was "Yes." "You cannot catch any without some kind of bait, I suppose." Said one, "I once threw over a naked hook, and a d-d fool bit it" Said the minister, "Satan deals with men much as fishermen do We are not permitted to take a very near view with fish. He employs different bait for different sinners. There is only one kind, I believe, that he catches without any bait, and that is profane swearers !"

O, swearer! think how inexcusable your sin is. What must be its aggravation in the view of the holy Lord God, who has proclaimed such denunciations against it ! Could you see its enormity, you would shudder at your impiety. You would say, "Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, rather than utter profane language."

Swearer, will you not desist? Do not say, "The habit is so fixed I cannot." Were you convinced that you must die the next time you swore, that God would strike you dead and send you to hell, would you not refrain ? You certainly would. We entreat you to desist, by the mercies of God, who has thus far borne with you. That dear Saviour, who loved you so that He was willing to die for you, calls upon you to come to Him. Go; tell Him how vile you have been-how justly He might hold you guilty. Tell Him how helpless you are. Cast yourself at His feet, and beg Him you may renounce every sin. Take His yoke upon you, and learn of Him. He is ready to receive you, and "is able to save to the utmost all that come to God by Him." - D. T. -Anti Tobacco Journal.

WHAT THE FLOWERS SAY.

"We toil not, we spin not, But every year In beautiful garments To you we appear. No queen in her glories Were lovely before The charm of our colors, The sweets of our store. Then look, unbelievers, And say, if you can, Since neither your art Nor the cunning of man Could dress these bright beauties, O who shall you praise, For work of such wonder, That woos you to gaze ? 'Tis God the Great Father, And if He display Such care for us flow'rets, That fade in a day, How shall He not rather, Your Spirit watch o'er, And call you to love Him, Believe and adore."

A PIECE FOR THE POCKET .- Among the victims of a steamboat explosion, some years since, was Stephen Allen, a man of high and excellent moral character, formerly Mayor of New York, beloved and esteemed by all who knew him. In his pocket-book was found WILL NOT HOLD HIM GUILTLESS THAT TAKETH HIS and especially to the young. It is very good, as far "It requires the reverent use of God's names, titles, attributes, ordinances, word and works. It forbids all profaning or abusing of anything where by God maketh himself known." God, in whose by God maketh himself known." God, in whose crets, if you have any. When you speak to a person, it is represented when sold, or the look him in the face. Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue. Good cha- money returned. profane language. So Christ spake : "I say unto you, Swear not all ; neither by heaven, for it is God's throne ; nor by the earth, for it is his foot stool ; neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King." Thus you are forbidden to swear. God, your Maker, who preserves you, who kindly feeds and clothes you, who bestows upon you all good, has laid this command upon you. It binds you just as surely as though you had heard Him say, "John, Thomas, James, swear not." If you were walking, racter is above all things else. Your character cannot fulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipe. las with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSA-PARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people.

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio. "For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.
"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the official "." afflicted.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Tunkhan-nock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die.'

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri. "I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic dis-ease than any other we possess. The profession are in-debted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Law-rence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature

"DR. AYER-My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPA-RILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Charles S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurual disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPA-RILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the Sarsaparilla, the skilful application of local remedies. From the well known and widely celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Interval Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by cal treatment."
