RAILWAY. - The Canadians having marred the great Intercolonial scheme, the best thing that Nova Scotia and New Brunswick can do is to move forward, slowly and cautiously "on their own hook."- We must push on to Pictou. Such extension will not in any case ruin the country, and to the best of our belief it would do the country very great good. When a shrewd Yarmouth financeier would consent to the Pictou Railway scheme for political considerations, we think the Province runs no serious risk in under- said : taking it.
