"Brigham Young has two mansions, the one called Lion House, being occupied by seventeen or eightteen of his wives; and the other holding his favorite and her family : while nearly fifty more are located on his property. Brigham Young in person is rather away in the grave. large and portly; he has an imposing carriage, and a very impressive manner. Two of his wives, living isolated on a small farm, had ventured to remonstrate with Brigham on his course of life. A meeting of the stood gazing upon the form of one so cherished and elders followed, and Florence and Irene were shortly afterwards murdered. I saw one poor woman taken from her home, stripped, tied to a tree, and flogged child repeated the request, and seemed very anxious till the blood flowed from her wounds to the ground. She was then taken to her husband's residence, and and placed it in the hand of his weeping sister. laid on the door step. None of the fiend's other wives dared to manifest any sympathy; and in the morning she was a corpse. But this is not all. The territory is invested by spies, who commit murder this little hand never struck me !" with impunity. During eleven months of my stay I lived at Brigham's Lion House mansion; and from that circumstance, and several private conversations your brothers and sisters, that, were you to die, such with him, had ample scope for an opinion of the man; and I conscientiously assert that the world has mistaken the ability and danger of the polygamist ruler of Utah. The disgusting mystery of the 'endowment' through which I passed is unfit for publication in a newspaper. It concludes with an oath to obey the elders in all things, even to commit murder. This is followed by the marriage ceremony. Young selects the partners; and sometimes the wife and children of one man are given to another man. Should a first wife complain of her husband taking a second, she is condemned by the law, sometimes flogged, sometimes secretly disposed of, and sometimes given over to the Indians. The husband may have as many wives as he can keep ; and he takes care to make them work and keep themselves. How domestic order is maintained may be judged from the following aversion to that part of their duty which falls under rules which are stuck up in every house :-- " 1. Any woman in this household telling any secret that occurs in the household, provided it compromises the day; a darn, premeditated poverty." But if they honor of her husband or any of his wives, or tends to only knew how pretty a well executed piece of repair bring polygamy into disrepute, to be confined in the looks, when you see in its warp and woof the bright cellar for one month. 2. Marriage at Utah is stripped other occupants of the omnibus were a young gentleof every sentiment that makes it holy, innocent and man and a lovely girl of, we should think, about pure. It is very common for one man to marry two eighteen. She was the prettiest, freshest-looking sisters. THIS HAND NEVER STRUCK ME. We recently heard the following most touching incident. A little boy had died. His body was laid out in a darkened retired room waiting to be laid

His afflicted mother and bereaved little sister went in to look at the sweet face of the precious sleeper, for his face was beautiful even in death. As they beloved, the little girl asked to take his hand. The mother at first did not think it best; but, as her about it, she took the cold hand of her sleeping boy,

The dear child looked at it for a moment, caressed it fondly, and then looked up to her mother through the tears of affection and love, and said : " Mother,

What could be more touching and lovely ? Young readers, have you always been so gentle to a tribute as this could be paid to your memory? Could a brother or sister take your hand, were it cold, and say: "This hand never struck me ?"

What an alleviation to our grief, when we are called to part with friends, to be able to remember only words and actions of mutual kindness and love! How bitter must be the sorrow, and how scalding the tears of remorse, of an unkind child, as he looks upon the cold form, or stands at the grave of a brother or sister, a father or mother, towards whom he had manifested unkindness!

Let us all remember, whatsoever we sow, in this respect, that we shall also reap.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

DISORDERS OF THE STOMACH, LIVER, AND BOWELS.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system-abused or debilitated by excess-indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side. &c. The Bowels sympathise by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dysectery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

O 12 barrels of the above just received. This Oil is now universally pronounced to be the best Lubricating Oil in the market for Railroads, Steamboats, Mills, Factories, and all kinds of Machinery. It is the pure Green Rock Oil, and is not reduced or adulterated by any chemical preparation whatever, which is the fault with many of the ap Rock Oils now flooding the market. It is as free om smell, and as clear from grit or dirt as Lard or Sperm his, and from thorough practical tests made by reliable Engineers and Mechanics, on Locomotives and Steamboats, Machine Shops and Factories, it has proved to be the nly reliable Lubricating Oil that will keep bearings coo and will not gum, It is not affected by heat or cold, which makes it the best for winter or summer use; will last much longer, and is equal in every respect to Sperm o any other Oil. These qualities, with the low price at which it is offered to consumers, makes it the most desirable arti cle in use. Adequate testimonials of its character can be given by those who have used it.
